Rules Out Improper Gifts

Freeman Sees Errors, Backs Estes' Handling

WASHINGTON (AP)—Seretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman defended his agency's handling of the Billie Sol Estes case today but acknowledged "some errors and shortcomings for which I, as secretary of agriculture, must assume responsibility."

Freeman's statements were in testimony prepared for the Senate investigation of the Estes case.

On Stand Later

The Senate Investigation subcommittee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., is exploring how the Pecos, Tex., financier made multimillion-dollar profits under federal farm aid programs, and whether high-powered political influence deals helped him.

As the hearing began, McClellan said Freeman's actual appearance on the stand would be delayed until afternoon.

He said members of the committee had not received copies of Freeman's statement until this morning and his testimony would be delayed to give them time to study it.

Freeman declared "no official or employe now in the department is known or can reasonably be believed to have improperly accepted gifts or other favors from Estes."

No Special Benefits

"Estes received no special benefits as a result of favored treatment from the Department of Agriculture," he added.

Freeman repeated what he has said before, that the government "has lost no money through its business with Estes."

The secretary spelled out his testimony in a 50-page typed statement.

In it he said Estes should not have received additional cotton acreage allotments now under scrutiny in the hearing, and he said the appointment of Estes to the National Cotton Advisory Committee was a mistake. Freeman said, however, that Undersecretary of Agriculture Charles S. Murphy acted in good faith in approving the appointment.

The Senate subcommittee was told Wednesday that Murphy approved Estes' appointment last Dec. 22—the same day the undersecretary had endorsed a proposed cancellation of cotton acreage allotments to Estes in some complex land deals the legality of which has been challenged by the department.

Erupts Into Row

"The undersecretary concluded that Estes' involvement in the transfer problem was not a sufficient reason for dropping him from the advisory committee," Freeman said. He added that Murphy based this belief on an understanding that the allotment issue was a civil legal dispute which would not affect Estes' standing as a committee member.

The first day of the Senate inquiry erupted into a political row set off by one of Freeman's subordinates.

The aide, Horace D. Godfrey, head of the Agriculture Department's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, accused the Eisenhower administration of "eight years of neglect and outright knifing" of the farmer committee system of administering farm aid at the local level.

Saugerties Boy Gets Secretary Of State Post

A ground swell that started at the Boys State testimonial dinner in New Paltz last week nearly swept an Ulster County boy into the top post of Boys State governor at elections held at Colgate University, Hamilton, Wednesday.

Brian E. Legg, 17 of Saugerties, although defeated for the governorship by Allen R. Bentley, a 16-year-old Cortland youth, was named secretary of state.

Young Bentley, standard bearer for the Nationalists, appointed the Saugerties youth to a top post in his cabinet. He commended young Legg, who ran on the Federalist ticket, for his clean campaign and good sportsmanship.

Other Area Winners

Ulster County won additional laurels at American Legion Boys State this year with the election of two local selectees as mayors of their individual cities.

Donald G. Newton, of Gardiner, representing Rose-Sheeley Post 1034 of Wallkill was elected mayor of the mythical city of Benedetto, and Stewart P. Glenn of Sullivan-Shafer Post 176, New Paltz, was named mayor of the city of Aronowitz.

There are 35 boy selectees in each of the 30 cities named after past American Legion Department commanders.

Young Legg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Legg of Main Street, Saugerties. A high ranking Boy Scout, he received his Eagle Badge with Troop 32 and earned his God and Country Award This past year he was named Scout of the Year and

GOP Conservatives Pick Pell to Oppose Javits

NEW YORK (AP) — Robert Thompson Pell of Upstate Ticonderoga, the Conservative Party's choice for U.S. Senator, says Gov. Rockefeller and Sen. Jacob K. Javits have turned the Republican Party in New York State into a "craven image of the Democratic Party."

The state executive committee of the recently formed Conservative Party, made up largely of conservative-wing Republican, announced Wednesday its selection of Pell, 60, a former U. S. State Department official.

Pell is to oppose Javits, who is seeking reelection with Rockefeller on the Republican ticket next November.

Kieran O'Doherty, state chairman of the Conservative Party, said it planned to field a full statewide ticket in the campaign. He said its candidate for governor would be announced within 10 days. The Democratic field is still wide open for nominations for governor and senator at that party's state convention in September.

The new party is seeking to enlist conservatives both in and outside the Republican Party.

O'Doherty said his party has almost 15,000 active workers enrolled in 64 clubs throughout the state. The goal is 300 district clubs.

Pell, now an adjunct professor at Fordham University, said in accepting the call to run that Javits is "just a carbon copy of the Humphreys, Neubergers, Morses and Churches of the Senate." These senators are among the leaders of the Democratic liberal wing.

Respect Is Basic In Teaching Job

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — School officials expressing defiance of the Supreme Court's prayer decision were reminded by the state education commissioner today that respect for law and governmental institutions was basic in the training of children.

Those making defiant or derogatory comments about the high court's controversial decision "should remember that the words and deeds of adults—especially of those in responsible positions of educational leadership — can strongly influence the words and deeds of children," Commissioner James E. Allen Jr. said.

Allen said he was making the statement in response to numerous inquiries from the press.

Some to Defy Ruling

At least a dozen school districts have said they will defy the court ban, against use of the state-recommended Regents' prayer. In addition, several school officials have spoken critically of the court's decision.

"I am sure that, when school officials making such comments think about it, they will recognize the inconsistency of their statements with their expressed concern for the moral and spiritual training of children," Allen said. "Basic to such training is respect for law and for the institutions of our government."

Rests With Districts

The question of compliance with the court decision is expected to rest primarily with local school districts. The education department has said that Allen would force a district to live up to the court's decision only if an appeal were brought to him.

The department takes the position that it is not a police agency. It sees its function as limited to directives to the school districts. This is the department's traditional position in similar issues.

The use of the Regents' prayer was not required by the state,

Two Girls, Cycle Driver Are Injured

Two girls and the operator of a motorcycle, which police were told, struck the girls on Delaware Avenue near Hasbrouck Park Wednesday afternoon reported injuries.

A report at 4:10 p. m. said Patricia DeGroat, 13, of 237 East Strand, and Pamela Beverly, 8, of 249 E. Union Street were taken to the Benedictine Hospital, the former for an X-ray of the left knee and the other for an X-ray of the right knee and elbow.

The motorcycle, police said, was operated by John L. Zehnick, 20, of 141 Chambers Street. Robert Allen Wenzel, of Salem Street, Port Ewen, was listed as its owner.

Zehnick reported injuries of the left wrist and right ankle, and was to be treated by a doctor.

The report at police headquarters said Zehnick claimed the cycle 'skidded on the pavement to the opposite side of the road." Officers Raymond Wells and John Kennedy investigated.

Extend Hearing On Drink Age; Hughes in Plea

NEW YORK (AP) — So many persons want to testify at the Staten Island hearing on the state's minimum age for purchasing alcoholic beverages that a legislative committee has extended the hearing into a second session today.

More than a dozen persons, including Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey, testified Wednesday before the Joint Legislative Committee for the Study and Revision of the Alcholic Beverage Control Law. Nearly 400 persons attended the hearing at Wagner College.

Appeals to Conscience

Hughes appealed to "the public and private conscience" of New York State to raise the minimum age from 18 to 21.

He and other advocates of raising the age pressed the contention of neighboring states, where the minimum is 21 years,

Three Ulster Men Indicted In Link to Dutchess Thefts

Five men, including three Ulster County residents, were named defendants in indictments handed up at Poughkeepsie Wednesday in connection with an investigation of a rash of burglaries in Dutchess County.

Robert Eichler, 45, Ardonia contractor, was named with his brother, Walter, 33, Ardonia, a school bus driver, in an indictment charging them with buying and receiving stolen power motors and other property valued at more than $100, a felony.

Robert Eichler was named in another indictment with his brother, Nicholas, 45, also an Ardonia contractor. Both are accused of buying and receiving stolen property, a felony, May 19. The indictments specifically charged them with buying and receiving cameras, whisky, hi-fi sets and other goods.

Anthony J. Russo, 45, of 18 Park Avenue, Beacon, a jeweler in that city, was indicted on four felony counts of buying and receiving stolen and wrongfully acquired property, and four counts of concealing and withholding stolen goods, also felonies, the value of the property being listed at more than $100.

Russo was accused of buying and receiving jewelry, silverware and other goods known to have been stolen April 4 and April 14. The indictment also accused Russo of buying and receiving stolen goods from Sept. 15, 1961 to June 7.

The fifth defendant indicted Wednesday was Egidio Pagano, 38, Brookside Trailer Park, Hav-

Ryan, Stagg Testify Wednesday In Action for Mercier Removal

An echo of the Bernard Tompkins Ulster County "kickback" investigation was heard in Albany Wednesday when testimony was taken before Official Referee Isadore Bookstein in the Town of Esopus "removal" action against Town Superintendent of Highways, Paul Mercier.

Originally Mercier was charged with receiving "sums of money as emoluments, gratuties and rewards commonly referred to as 'kickbacks'" at various times from Ulster Bituminous Distributors, Inc., and Lansdell Company, Inc., distributors of road oil.

Mercier denied the allegations. Attorney Vincent G. Connelly appeared for Mercier.

Application Rejected

Special Prosecutor Tompkins brought a proceeding before the Appellate Division, State Supreme Court, seeking to have that court remove Mercier because of the alleged misconduct. The Appellate Division rejected that application on the grounds such application for removal must be made by a citizen of the town or the district attorney of the county.

At that time the Appellate Division ruled that there "on the face, the petition alleges adequate grounds for removal, and we do not agree (with Tompkin's contention) that criminal prosecution is the exclusive procedure."

As a result of the Appellate Court's action, the matter was referred back to the Ulster County District Attorney's office.

In May 1961 District Attorney David W. Corwin held that testimony taken before the Extraordinary Special and Trial term had been made available to him, and, he felt there were sufficient grounds stated therein to bring proceedings for removal of Mercier. At that time Amos B. Stokes of the Town of Marbletown was also involved in the proceedings but he later resigned, leaving only the Town of Esopus proceeding pending.

Still Pending

Later Corwin brought a proceeding before the Appellate Division seeking removal of Mercier from office. That matter is still pending.

In April the Appellate Division referred the matter to Official Referee Isadore Bookstein for the purpose of taking testimony.

The first session before former Supreme Court Justice Bookstein, now official referee, was held Wednesday.

Testimony of Morgan D. Ryan, a former official of the Ulster Bituminous Company and Lester Stagg, formerly associated with Ulster Bituminous was taken.

There had been delay in taking testimony due to the illness of Mr. Mercier, who is now serving as town superintendent of highways of Town of Esopus having been re-elected to office last fall. Vincent G. Connelly appeared for Mercier and District Attorney David W. Corwin appeared for the prosecution.

Following taking of preliminary testimony Wednesday, the matter was adjourned until July 12, when additional testimony will be heard by Official Referee Bookstein.

Israel Seizes Soblen After Bail-Jump Dash

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Israel police today arrested Dr. Robert A. Soblen, bail-jumping fugitive from a life sentence in the United States as a Soviet spy, and hurried him before a magistrate.

Arraigned in a Tel Aviv court, Soblen was ordered held for the issuance of an official charge against him within the next 10 days. It is understood he will be accused of entering Israel illegally and with false papers.

Used Brother's Name

Reliable sources said Soblen arrived Tuesday night after a flight from New York via Paris, showing immigration officers a Canadian passport in the name of his late brother, Beras Soble.

When police asked for his passport this morning on his arrest at the Hotel Savoy in Tel Aviv he reportedly said he must have lost it on the way from the airport.

There is no extradition treaty between the United States and Israel under which the United States could ask for Soblen's return.

However, U.S. Atty. Robert M. Morgenthau said in New York, "We will make every effort to secure his return."

Morgenthau said he had been notified by Israel of Soblen's arrest.

Fled on Eve of Surrender

Soblen fled from New York Monday on the eve of his scheduled surrender to begin serving his life sentence, escaping via Idlewild Airport.

In Washington, the FBI and State Department said no official word had been received there about Soblen's arrest.

Soblen was free in $100,000 bail.

The 62-year-old Lithuanian-born psychiatrist, reputedly dying of cancer of the blood, was convicted July 16, 1961, in federal court in New York of spying for the Soviet Union over a 20-year period.

Illness Spared Him

The U.S. Court of Appeals affirmed the conviction March 13. Last Monday the U.S. Supreme Court refused to review his case. Soblen's wife said he disappeared a few hours later.

He was scheduled to surrender in federal court at New York today to begin serving his life term.

Soblen could have been sentenced to death. U.S. Dist. Judge William B. Herlands had spared him the electric chair because Soblen's disease, leukemia, was supposed to kill him by this summer.

Forfeiture Stayed

In New York Wednesday, Judge Herlands ordered Soblen's bail forfeited, but stayed the forfeiture until this afternoon.

Soblen's wife, known professionally as Dr. Dina Soble, became his surety by posting $40,000 in

Afternoon Election Set

Girls State Officers To Be Announced 5:30

Vigorous balloting marked the nomination of key state officers Wednesday afternoon at a session of Empire Girls State sponsored by the Department of New York American Legion Auxiliary at State University College, New Paltz.

Election of officers was on the agenda for this afternoon's session, and successful candidates will be announced at the annual dinner at the college at 5:30 p. m.

Gubernatorial nominees are: Anne Elizabeth Decker, 60 Greenvale Avenue, Yonkers, Federalist Party; and Christine E. Dyckman, 642 Mountain View Road, Peekskill, Nationalist Party.

Others nominated are: For Liut. Governor—Viola Fulton, 968 Boston Road, Bronx, Federalist Party; JoAnn Manfra, R. D. 1, Seneca Falls, Nationalist. Attorney General—Carlie Russell Ince, 115 Sackville Road, Garden City, L. I., Federalist; Lynda Lubar, 215 Mount Hope Place, Bronx, Nationalist. Comptroller — Joanne Edelson, 19-22 202nd Street, Bayside, L. I., Federalist, and Marilyn Mogul, 69-81 183rd Street, Fresh Meadows, L. I., Nationalist.

Spirited party caucuses preceded the nomination of state officers, and last night colorful political rallies were held with a parade through the streets of New Paltz adjacent to the college. Crowds of residents lined the parade route.

Floats in Parade

Each party had a float with Mrs. Leonard Miscall, Ithaca, co-chairman of the program and leader of the Nationalists group, and Mrs. Michael F. Boland, of Syracuse, president of the State Department of American Legion Auxiliary and leader of the Federal party group, riding in separate cars attired in the party colors, yellow for the Nationalist unit and blue for the Federalists party group.

Miss Decker and Miss Dyckman, party candidates for Governor, rode in carts hauled by other girls of respective parties, trimmed with the party colors.

After the parade the candidates and delegates returned to the college, where the candidates for state office circled around a gaily trimmed pole resembling a

Viaduct Details To Be Discussed At City Hall, 7:30

Discussion of details of the Washington Avenue Viaduct-Esopus Creek Bridge project is slated for 7:30 p. m. this date, in the planning board office, City Hall.

Mayor John J. Schwenk announced June 22 that he had received copies of plans which call for razing of the viaduct and replacement of the narrow Esopus Creek Bridge, and he called the meeting to go over details which affect the city.

State Engineer Coming

A state engineer from the district office at Poughkeepsie is due to discuss the plans with planning board members, aldermen, and Corporation Counsel Harry Gold.

It was indicated after plans were received that copies of three resolutions which came with them would be forwarded for consideration of the Common Council at its July 3 meeting, but today it appeared that action on them could be delayed pending local study of financial and legal detail.

One resolution deals with ap-

Churchill Suffers Bone Break in Fall at Hotel

MONTE CARLO (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill fell in his hotel Wednesday night and a nurse at Monaco Hospital said today his left thigh bone was broken.

Britain's famous wartime leader, who will be 88 Nov. 30, was taken to the hospital this morning and examined by the hospital director, Dr. Charles Chatelain, and Dr. Andre Fissore, an X-ray expert.

Dr. Chatelain is studying the X-rays, the nurse said.

But from Churchill's home at Chartwell near London, a family spokesman said, "It is not a life and death matter."

He said Lady Churchill would not fly to Monte Carlo today.

Churchill arrived here last Tuesday for a two-week stay. The Riviera is one of his favorite vacation spots to paint and sit in the sun. Lady Churchill stayed at Chartwell.

Dr. Chatelain said the former prime minister would be sent back to London today if he is able to travel, but a decision would be withheld until the X-ray pictures have been developed and studied.

The hospital nurse said Churchill had suffered a fracture of the left femur. Earlier, Dr. Chatelain said the injury was at or near the col de femur—the hip joint.

There was an unconfirmed report that Sir Winston had also suffered a slight injury to his left shoulder in the fall at the Hotel

Support Of Court Essential

Cautions Reds On Massing of Troops

WASHINGTON (AP)— Whether the Supreme Court's school prayer decision pleases or displeases, in President Kennedy's view it's the law of the land and commands support. Moreover, he says it should encourage every family to pray more at home.

There is bound to be disagreement, Kennedy said at his news conference Wednesday.

He did not express a personal opinion but declared:

"I think that it is important for us, if we are going to maintain our constitutional principle, that we support Supreme Court decisions even when we may not agree with them."

Advice to Dissenters

This was his indirect advice to members of Congress who have denounced the court for holding an official prayer read in New York schools an unconstitutional crossing of the wall separating church and state.

Kennedy declined to comment on constitutional amendments proposed to circumvent the ruling until he could measure their effect on the Bill of Rights.

The President was asked about the decision after he opened the conference with a statement designed to correct any misunderstanding of U.S. policy by the Chinese Communists. In course of questioning, he also restated policy on Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist government on Formosa.

The United States, Kennedy emphasized, opposes use of force in that area but is ready "to take necessary action in the face of force."

Cautions Communists

He cautioned the Communists, who have been massing troops on the mainland off Quemoy and Matsu, that the U.S. position remains as it was under former President Dwight D. Eisenhower: It is committed to defense of Formosa and the Pescadores and would react to an attack on the offshore islands that appeared to threaten Formosa and the Pescadores. He did not specify the form such a U.S. reaction might take.

As for any attempt by Chiang to attack the mainland, Kennedy said a 1954 agreement prohibits such an offensive without U.S. concurrence and repeated: "Our interest in this area is defensive."

On Other Subjects

Kennedy had this to say of other subjects:

Trade—With the House gripped in debate over his tariff-cutting bill, Kennedy said passage this year "is vital to the future of this country." He opposed a Republican move to substitute an extension of present trade law as self-defeating on grounds that "we

Rocky Renewing Demand for N.Y. Narcotics Hospital

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller brought renewed pressure on President Kennedy today for establishment of a federal narcotics hospital in the New York City area.

The hospital is "urgently needed," the Republican governor said in a letter to the Democratic President. "The time for decision and action is now."

Rockefeller said the White House had told him, in reply to an earlier request for the facility, that the hospital "is still under active consideration but that there is some thinking that alternative courses of action might be adopted."

The reply, the governor said, "indicates a delay in decision...."

"This is a matter of deep concern to the people of New York," Rockefeller wrote.

He described present federal treatment procedures, by which narcotics addicts are sent to the federal hospital at Lexington, Ky., as "cumbersome and difficult and not in accord with modern therapy for such patients."

Rockefeller said 47 per cent of the nation's recorded active drug addicts live in New York City area, and he added that 41 per cent of the addicts treated at the Lexington hospital were from the area.

Five men, including three Ulster County residents, were named defendants in indictments handed up at Poughkeepsie Wednesday in connection with an investigation of a rash of burglaries in Dutchess County.

Robert Eichler, 46, Ardonia contractor, was named with his brother, Walter, 33, Ardonia, a school bus driver, in an indictment charging them with buying and receiving stolen power motors and other property valued at more than $100, a felony.

Robert Eichler was named in another indictment with his brother, Nicholas, 45, also an Ardonia contractor. Both are accused of buying and receiving stolen property, a felony, May 19. The indictments specifically charged them with buying and receiving cameras, whisky, hi-fi sets and other goods.

Anthony J. Russo, 45, of 18 Park Avenue, Beacon, a jeweler in that city, was indicted on four felony counts of buying and receiving stolen and wrongfully acquired property, and four counts of concealing and withholding stolen goods, also felonies, the value of the property being listed at more than $100.

Russo was accused of buying and receiving jewelry, silverware and other goods known to have been stolen April 4 and April 14. The indictment also accused Russo of buying and receiving stolen goods from Sept. 15, 1961 to June 7.

The fifth defendant indicted Wednesday was Egidio Pagano, 38, Brookside Trailer Park, Hav-

Ryan, Stagg Testify Wednesday In Action for Mercier Removal

An echo of the Bernard Tompkins Ulster County "kickback" investigation was heard in Albany Wednesday when testimony was taken before Official Referee Isadore Bookstein in the Town of Esopus "removal" action against Town Superintendent of Highways, Paul Mercier.

Originally Mercier was charged with receiving "sums of money as emoluments, gratuties and rewards commonly referred to as 'kickbacks'" at various times from Ulster Bituminous Distributors, Inc., and Lansdell Company, Inc., distributors of road oil.

Mercier denied the allegations. Attorney Vincent G. Connelly appeared for Mercier.

Application Rejected

Special Prosecutor Tompkins brought a proceeding before the Appellate Division, State Supreme Court, seeking to have that court remove Mercier because of the alleged misconduct. The Appellate Division rejected that application on the grounds such application for removal must be made by a citizen of the town or the district attorney of the county.

At that time the Appellate Division ruled that there "on the face, the petition alleges adequate grounds for removal, and we do not agree (with Tompkin's contention) that criminal prosecution is the exclusive procedure."

As a result of the Appellate Court's action, the matter was referred back to the Ulster County District Attorney's office.

In May 1961 District Attorney David W. Corwin held that testimony taken before the Extraordinary Special and Trial term had been made available to him, and, he felt there were sufficient grounds stated therein to bring proceedings for removal of Mercier. At that time Amos B. Stokes of the Town of Marbletown was also involved in the proceedings but he later resigned, leaving only the Town of Esopus proceeding pending.

Still Pending

Later Corwin brought a proceeding before the Appellate Division seeking removal of Mercier from office. That matter is still pending.

In April the Appellate Division referred the matter to Official Referee Isadore Bookstein for the purpose of taking testimony.

The first session before former Supreme Court Justice Bookstein, now official referee, was held Wednesday.

Testimony of Morgan D. Ryan, a former official of the Ulster Bituminous Company and Lester Stagg, formerly associated with Ulster Bituminous was taken.

There had been delay in taking testimony due to the illness of Mr. Mercier, who is now serving as town superintendent of highways of Town of Esopus having been re-elected to office last fall. Vincent G. Connelly appeared for Mercier and District Attorney David W. Corwin appeared for the prosecution.

Following taking of preliminary testimony Wednesday, the matter was adjourned until July 12, when additional testimony will be heard by Official Referee Bookstein.

Israel Seizes Soblen After Bail-Jump Dash

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Israel police today arrested Dr. Robert A. Soblen, bail-jumping fugitive from a life sentence in the United States as a Soviet spy, and hurried him before a magistrate.

Arraigned in a Tel Aviv court, Soblen was ordered held for the issuance of an official charge against him within the next 10 days. It is understood he will be accused of entering Israel illegally and with false papers.

Used Brother's Name

Reliable sources said Soblen arrived Tuesday night after a flight from New York via Paris, showing immigration officers a Canadian passport in the name of his late brother, Beras Soble.

When police asked for his passport this morning on his arrest at the Hotel Savoy in Tel Aviv he reportedly said he must have lost it on the way from the airport.

There is no extradition treaty between the United States and Israel under which the United States could ask for Soblen's return.

However, U.S. Atty. Robert M. Morgenthau said in New York, "We will make every effort to secure his return."

Morgenthau said he had been notified by Israel of Soblen's arrest.

Fled on Eve of Surrender

Soblen fled from New York Monday on the eve of his scheduled surrender to begin serving his life sentence, escaping via Idlewild Airport.

In Washington, the FBI and State Department said no official word had been received there about Soblen's arrest.

Soblen was free in $100,000 bail.

The 62-year-old Lithuanian-born psychiatrist, reputedly dying of cancer of the blood, was convicted July 16, 1961, in federal court in New York of spying for the Soviet Union over a 20-year period.

Illness Spared Him

The U.S. Court of Appeals affirmed the conviction March 13. Last Monday the U.S. Supreme Court refused to review his case. Soblen's wife said he disappeared a few hours later.

He was scheduled to surrender in federal court at New York today to begin serving his life term.

Soblen could have been sentenced to death. U.S. Dist. Judge William B. Herlands had spared him the electric chair because Soblen's disease, leukemia, was supposed to kill him by this summer.

Forfeiture Stayed

In New York Wednesday, Judge Herlands ordered Soblen's bail forfeited, but stayed the forfeiture until this afternoon.

Soblen's wife, known professionally as Dr. Dina Soble, became his surety by posting $40,000 in

Afternoon Election Set

Girls State Officers To Be Announced 5:30

Vigorous balloting marked the nomination of key state officers Wednesday afternoon at a session of Empire Girls State sponsored by the Department of New York American Legion Auxiliary at State University College, New Paltz.

Election of officers was on the agenda for this afternoon's session, and successful candidates will be announced at the annual dinner at the college at 5:30 p. m.

Gubernatorial nominees are: Anne Elizabeth Decker, 60 Greenvale Avenue, Yonkers, Federalist Party; and Christine E. Dyckman, 642 Mountain View Road, Peekskill, Nationalist Party.

Others nominated are: For Liut. Governor—Viola Fulton, 968 Boston Road, Bronx, Federalist Party; JoAnn Manfra, R. D. 1, Seneca Falls, Nationalist. Attorney General—Carlie Russell Ince, 115 Sackville Road, Garden City, L. I., Federalist; Lynda Lubar, 215 Mount Hope Place, Bronx, Nationalist. Comptroller — Joanne Edelson, 19-22 202nd Street, Bayside, L. I., Federalist, and Marilyn Mogul, 69-81 183rd Street, Fresh Meadows, L. I., Nationalist.

Spirited party caucuses preceded the nomination of state officers, and last night colorful political rallies were held with a parade through the streets of New Paltz adjacent to the college. Crowds of residents lined the parade route.

Floats in Parade

Each party had a float with Mrs. Leonard Miscall, Ithaca, co-chairman of the program and leader of the Nationalists group, and Mrs. Michael F. Boland, of Syracuse, president of the State Department of American Legion Auxiliary and leader of the Federal party group, riding in separate cars attired in the party colors, yellow for the Nationalist unit and blue for the Federalists party group.

Miss Decker and Miss Dyckman, party candidates for Governor, rode in carts hauled by other girls of respective parties, trimmed with the party colors.

After the parade the candidates and delegates returned to the college, where the candidates for state office circled around a gaily trimmed pole resembling a

Viaduct Details To Be Discussed At City Hall, 7:30

Discussion of details of the Washington Avenue Viaduct-Esopus Creek Bridge project is slated for 7:30 p. m. this date, in the planning board office, City Hall.

Mayor John J. Schwenk announced June 22 that he had received copies of plans which call for razing of the viaduct and replacement of the narrow Esopus Creek Bridge, and he called the meeting to go over details which affect the city.

State Engineer Coming

A state engineer from the district office at Poughkeepsie is due to discuss the plans with planning board members, aldermen, and Corporation Counsel Harry Gold.

It was indicated after plans were received that copies of three resolutions which came with them would be forwarded for consideration of the Common Council at its July 3 meeting, but today it appeared that action on them could be delayed pending local study of financial and legal detail.

One resolution deals with ap-

Churchill Suffers Bone Break in Fall at Hotel

MONTE CARLO (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill fell in his hotel Wednesday night and a nurse at Monaco Hospital said today his left thigh bone was broken.

Britain's famous wartime leader, who will be 88 Nov. 30, was taken to the hospital this morning and examined by the hospital director, Dr. Charles Chatelain, and Dr. Andre Fissore, an X-ray expert.

Dr. Chatelain is studying the X-rays, the nurse said.

But from Churchill's home at Chartwell near London, a family spokesman said, "It is not a life and death matter."

He said Lady Churchill would not fly to Monte Carlo today.

Churchill arrived here last Tuesday for a two-week stay. The Riviera is one of his favorite vacation spots to paint and sit in the sun. Lady Churchill stayed at Chartwell.

Dr. Chatelain said the former prime minister would be sent back to London today if he is able to travel, but a decision would be withheld until the X-ray pictures have been developed and studied.

The hospital nurse said Churchill had suffered a fracture of the left femur. Earlier, Dr. Chatelain said the injury was at or near the col de femur—the hip joint.

There was an unconfirmed report that Sir Winston had also suffered a slight injury to his left shoulder in the fall at the Hotel

Support Of Court Essential

Cautions Reds On Massing of Troops

WASHINGTON (AP)— Whether the Supreme Court's school prayer decision pleases or displeases, in President Kennedy's view it's the law of the land and commands support. Moreover, he says it should encourage every family to pray more at home.

There is bound to be disagreement, Kennedy said at his news conference Wednesday.

He did not express a personal opinion but declared:

"I think that it is important for us, if we are going to maintain our constitutional principle, that we support Supreme Court decisions even when we may not agree with them."

Advice to Dissenters

This was his indirect advice to members of Congress who have denounced the court for holding an official prayer read in New York schools an unconstitutional crossing of the wall separating church and state.

Kennedy declined to comment on constitutional amendments proposed to circumvent the ruling until he could measure their effect on the Bill of Rights.

The President was asked about the decision after he opened the conference with a statement designed to correct any misunderstanding of U.S. policy by the Chinese Communists. In course of questioning, he also restated policy on Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist government on Formosa.

The United States, Kennedy emphasized, opposes use of force in that area but is ready "to take necessary action in the face of force."

Cautions Communists

He cautioned the Communists, who have been massing troops on the mainland off Quemoy and Matsu, that the U.S. position remains as it was under former President Dwight D. Eisenhower: It is committed to defense of Formosa and the Pescadores and would react to an attack on the offshore islands that appeared to threaten Formosa and the Pescadores. He did not specify the form such a U.S. reaction might take.

As for any attempt by Chiang to attack the mainland, Kennedy said a 1954 agreement prohibits such an offensive without U.S. concurrence and repeated: "Our interest in this area is defensive."

On Other Subjects

Kennedy had this to say of other subjects:

Trade—With the House gripped in debate over his tariff-cutting bill, Kennedy said passage this year "is vital to the future of this country." He opposed a Republican move to substitute an extension of present trade law as self-defeating on grounds that "we

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller brought renewed pressure on President Kennedy today for establishment of a federal narcotics hospital in the New York City area.

The hospital is "urgently needed," the Republican governor said in a letter to the Democratic President. "The time for decision and action is now."

Rockefeller said the White House had told him, in reply to an earlier request for the facility, that the hospital "is still under active consideration but that there is some thinking that alternative courses of action might be adopted."

The reply, the governor said, "indicates a delay in decision...."

"This is a matter of deep concern to the people of New York," Rockefeller wrote.

He described present federal treatment procedures, by which narcotics addicts are sent to the federal hospital at Lexington, Ky., as "cumbersome and difficult and not in accord with modern therapy for such patients."

Rockefeller said 47 per cent of the nation's recorded active drug addicts live in New York City area, and he added that 41 per cent of the addicts treated at the Lexington hospital were from the area.

To Concentrate on Home Front Now

Rocky Staying Active During Dems' Dilemma

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller plans to concentrate on the political home front.

After a speech to a Republican state gathering in Boston tonight, Rockefeller has only one other out-of-state political trip on his pre-election schedule — a talk in Washington July 6 to a meeting of Republican candidates for Congress.

Intensive Approach

The governor plans an intensive, grass-roots approach to voters in his campaign for re-election.

He has accepted invitations to appear at county fairs, picnics to be sponsored by political and other groups and at a wide range of other gatherings.

By the time he is formally renominated, he will have appeared in most of the counties, and his official campaign will give him an opportunity to revisit key areas.

The present Rockefeller strategy is designed to give the governor a long, long head start over his Democratic opponent.

The governor is campaigning now, meeting with voters across the state, shaking hands with housewives and farmers, patting children on the head, dedicating or opening new projects, pointing with pride to his record and reaping huge quantities of publicity.

Dems Continue Search

The Democrats, meanwhile, are searching for a candidate.

That party remains in a dilemma that is becoming more and more of a problem—whether to rally behind a candidate now and open the door to charges he was selected behind the scenes by the "bosses" of allow the September convention to pick the nominee and thereby allow him only a few short weeks for campaigning.

While Democrats struggle to make that decision, the summer is advancing and the Rockefeller campaign is moving faster and faster.

The governor's decision against further out-of-state political trips appears designed in part to allay Democratic charges that his heart is really in the national political arena, not in New York State.

First Things First

The governor is a potential candidate for the Republican nomination for president in 1964. He has refused to pledge himself to serve a full, four-years if re-elected in New York State this November. He has said, however, he is interested now only in re-election.

His recent trips have taken him to Florida, Oregon, Maine, Illinois, Connecticut, Michigan, Kansas and several other states.

He has said he made those visits in response to requests from Republican organizations and, as a GOP leader, he feels obligated to help out when asked to speak at fund-raising and other party affairs.

A large body of political thought looks upon these trips as preliminary forays for a presidential bid two years hence.

But Rockefeller is putting home-front considerations first at this particular point, with the full realization that, without a 1962 victory, there will be no hope for any 1964 presidential ambitions he might entertain.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, JUNE 28, 1962

TAX SYSTEM BASIC

Before any nation can properly develop its resources for the benefit of all the people there must be an adequate national system of taxation. Though many in the United States complain that our taxes are too high, this country does have such a system.

But not all the national governments have the financial resources to develop their public sectors. Unfortunately this applies in a high degree to South America. Recognition of this dearth of resources was responsible, largely, for creation of the Alliance for Progress.

As a major contributor to this program the United States conditioned its support on the promise that recipient Latin American countries would institute tax reform. As far as Washington is concerned, reform means acceptance of the graduated income tax. In our government's view the income tax is the only device adequate to raise the huge sums for schools, land distribution and other improvements needed so badly south of the border.

Though it has been difficult to put this point across, Latin America seems to have accepted this taxation necessity. A good sign, for example, is the fact that Chile just recently indicted an income tax defector for fraud in the first such action ever attempted on that whole continent.

Our tax officials, who have been working in close cooperation with these governments, take heart from these signs. For the Alliance for Progress could never by itself lift South America out of the rut where the few are fabulously wealthy and the huge majority degradingly poor. Self help in the form of an efficient tax must come first.

BUFFER FOR THE SHORES

The Department of the Interior has been plumping for the excellent idea that a great deal more of the U.S. shoreline should be protected and, where necessary, restored. Two measures giving the concept some implementation have been introduced in Congress.

Though changes may have to be made before final approval of legislation, the general idea of preserving the shoreline merits broad support. Leveling the dunes and cluttering shore areas with houses and other private buildings is an invitation to disaster, as was evidenced in the great storm that swept the East coast last March. Such beach developments also tend to deprive the public of fine recreation spots, too few of which remain after decades of public indifference to the matter.

One measure which already has been approved by the Senate would provide federal matching funds to help states and communities acquire areas for public recreation. Another would increase federal aid for shore protection projects, and especially for the sort of buffer zones advocated by Interior Secretary Udall. These bills would take the nation a long step toward preserving the recreational values of our shores. That would be greatly in the general public interest. As our population grows, the need for recreation grounds also increases.

INTO BETTER CHANNELS

Maybe we should begin to face the fact that the rise of juvenile gangs is not some unaccountable abnormality, but a normal outgrowth of raising children in the crowded and often depressing areas of our cities. Having recognized that, we might find out whether there is not some merit worth salvaging in the makeup of these lads. Maybe what they need is not repression but guidance—not any namby-pamby guidance, but rugged leadership intended to divert their aggressive spirit into worthwhile channels.

The qualities that attract youngsters to gang life are some of them bad—but not all of them. There are good qualities too, qualities of courage, loyalty, selfless (though miguided) devotion to a "cause."

The human race needs such qualities. Whenever and wherever they are found they should not be allowed to expend themselves futilely and evilly. They should be made use of in fields where America needs them. The chances are that some of the so-called juvenile delinquents might do worthwhile things if given understanding, guidance and sound objectives for their valor and loyalty.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

THE ECONOMY

President Kennedy cannot ignore the unseemly economy of the United States. It is true that prices in the Stock Exchange have been too high. To use a rule of thumb which a very successful financier has used, it is unwise to buy at the bottom of the market; it is unsound to sell at what looks like the top. Practically, when a stock sells for more than 15 or 20 times its earnings, its price ins inflated by emotional factors, including public relations gimmicks.

But the stock market is not to be taken as a yardstick of the economy. It is a place, here as well as in other countries, where men gamble on probabilities and possibilities and the gamblers can upset all economic laws if they deal in large enough volume. Short selling should be prohibited by law, as a gambler's device.

The stock market does not cause a recession or a depression. Both are normal characteristics of adjustment in the economic system. Every device conceived in capitalistic or communist countries to avoid or avert "hills and valleys" has failed, because in certain periods, "good times," man tends to over-produce until a period of satiation sets in. These may be called "bad times."

It has been assumed by optimitic politicians and statisticians that as there are vast backyard areas of the world, it ought to be possible by a pump-priming trick, "foreign aid," not only to achieve a political goal but to raise the standard of living of a people so swiftly that they would immediately consume the surpluses of the countries which are over-produced. This has not happened. Instead, those countries that stockpiled to maintain high prices and high wages are stuck with their stockpiles and, in 1962, the entire world is suffering from mild to severe economic disturbances. The United States could break the back of the economies of many nations and guarantee a universal depression of major dimensions by dumping its stockpile at bargain-counter prices.

This problem goes back to Joseph in Egypt, if my readers recall the story in the Bible. Joseph invented the stockpile as he did the ever-normal granary. He erected vast storages to hold the grain, so that in years of famine there would be food. The granaries became very costly and Egypt undertook enormous public works based on a slave system.

When the slaves revolted, Egypt's economy went to pieces. The leading country in the world at one moment in history, Egypt never recovered from this curious economic experimentation.

This technique has, since the end of World War II, been used throughout the world in the hope of maintaining a war-expanded economy. It has not worked.

Take the example of Canada. Viewing the history of the Canadian dollar from 1846 to today, it has generally stood in relationship to the U. S. dollar in the vicinity of 90. This was advantageous to Canada which is dependent upon British and U. S. capital for its development. After all, Canada is a country of 3,621,616 square miles with a population of 17,000,000. It could hold a population of 50,000,000 to 100,000,000. But it cannot swiftly develop capital to finance the provision of work without assistance of other countries and without creating conditions favorable to exports.

The history of Canada has been a history of the export of raw materials and the import of manufactured goods and capital. It paralleled the history of the United States. Actually the two countries were one economically, except that the United States, having a more favorable climate, attracted more immigrants. As a result, the United States developed more rapidly than Canada and some of Canada's population overflowed into the United States either as a working force or as permanent settlers. But American manufactured goods and capital flowed freely into Canada.

Up to Prohibition, this freedom of economic movement continued. Immense amounts of American capital flowed into Canada, which Canada could not consume by usual economic processes. Canada thus became an exporter of capital as well as an importer and the Canadian dollar moved out of line. Economic nationalism led to the cartel system; Canada swallowed more than it could chew.

That is true of so many other countries. Thus, a universal recession has set in, which, if not dealt with without regard to sentiment, can produce a universal depression

Shun Cancer Treatments Failing Objective Tests

By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

In the first of these columns, dealing with unproved methods of cancer treatment, reference was made to Krebiozen and the measures suggested by the late Dr. Gerson and by Dr. Jacob Pawlotzky whose articles first appeared in Russian literature.

Here are other UNPROVED methods concerning which the American Cancer Society has found no evidence that their use "results in any objective benefit in the treatment of cancer in human beings."

Revici Cancer Control or lipid therapy, described as "biologically guided chemotherapy," consisting of nine products for the treatment of "acid symptoms" and eight others for the treatment of "alkaline symptoms." Repeated attempts to evaluate the claims of Dr. Revici have been made by the Universities of Wisconsin and Chicago and by the National Cancer Institute and the Committee on Cancer Diagnosis and Therapy of the National Research Council.

"In every case, it has been impossible to reach agreement with representatives of the (Revici) Institute on procedures which would assure an objective scientific evaluation."

Glover serum, presumably prepared by injecting animals with a living organism obtained from the blood of cancer patients. A committee of the Toronto Academy of Medicine reported that it could find "no evidence to warrant the hope that a specific cure had been discovered" after examining 12 patients treated and selected by Dr. Glover. And Dr. Francis Carter Wood, after injecting purchased serum into white rats with experimentally produced malignancies, noted "no beneficial effect."

Antineol, presumably prepared from the posterior pituitary gland, is the "discovery" of Dr. H. K. Wachtel. An attempt by the National Research Council to set up a clinical study of Antineol failed "when Dr. Wachtel said it would be impossible to supply the agent for such studies."

Anticancergen Z-50 has been proposed as a treatment for cancer by G. S. Zuccala who holds a doctor's degree in science. Prepared from "pooled cancer tissues" or the patient's blood or urine, the preparation is given by intramuscular injection. At Mr. Zuccala's request, Anticancergen Z-50 was investigated by the National Research Council which found the product "without therapeutic activity in human cancer."

Mind you. All these are unproved claims, listed so you can steer clear of them.

Washington News

By PETER EDSON
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Ceylon's seizure of nearly a third of the petroleum products distribution facilities owned by two American and one British oil companies constitutes the most serious threat to foreign investment by private enterprise that has arisen yet. The confiscated properties represent an estimated investment of over $5 million.

THE THREE COMPANIES involved are the British Shell International Petroleum, California-Texas Ceylon Ltd., and Esso Standard Eastern. All have been doing business on the island south of India for over 40 years.

Ceylon followed the example of India in setting up a nationalized oil company, but more ruthlessly.

Shell's total investment in Ceylon is put at $9.8 million and its volume of Ceylonese business over five million barrels of petroleum products a year, 60 per cent of the total. Cal-Tex, with a total investment of over $3 million and Esso with an investment of over $4 million, have each marketed over 1.5 million barrels of products a year, or 20 per cent of the total. Ceylon's total oil business is estimated at about $100 million a year gross.

PROPERTIES TAKEN OVER by the nationalized Ceylon Petroleum Corp. under a law passed a year ago include 180 of the best filling station locations out of a total of 750 on the island, 60 kerosene stations, tankage and bunkering facilities. The three companies have been left with only their lowest volume and least profitable distribution centers in rural areas.

Furthermore, Ceylon Petroleum Corp. has cut its prices a fraction of a cent a gallon below the private company prices. This makes continued profitable operation difficult. Cal-Tex says it may be forced to liquidate its Ceylon holding.

The Ceylon government takeover constitutes a doubled free world economic threat in that it has turned to Russia, Rumania and United Arab Republic for new sources of petroleum products supply.

Total Soviet oil exports now amount to only 3 per cent of world trade. But Communist countries are pushing their sales hard at cut prices, making their competition hard to beat.

Last December, Ceylon signed a five-year contract with the Russians to supply 10 million barrels of products over five years. This is nearly a fourth of the island's present requirements of 8 million barrels a year. Ceylon claims that the Russian price is from 20 to 25 per cent under charges by the three companies, using supply from the Persian Gulf area.

FROM THE CEYLON GOVERNMENT'S point of view the most favorable aspect of its new deal is that it will be able to pay for some of its oil with low-grade tea, sheet rubber and other tropical exports not marketable elsewhere.

The law under which Ceylon confiscated the oil properties provides for establishment of a Compensation Tribunal of 10 persons. It has not yet been named and no basis of compensation has been set.

There has been speculation that it will be original cost less depreciation, with no allowance for taking over a long-established business. Method of payment — whether in dollars, pounds sterling, Ceylon rupees (worth 4.75 to the dollar), or long-term bonds—is not provided by law.

British interests will be hardest hit by Ceylon's nationalization program, since most of its trade has been with Commonwealth countries, and Britain developed the island.

United States trade with Ceylon in 1960 was $14 million in exports, $38 million imports. In addition, the United States has given Ceylon $74 million in aid since the end of the war — $50 million in grants, mosty surplus foods.

In spite of this, Ceylon's economy is in bad shape. On a $100 million budget, it has a $50 million deficit, most of which has gone for food subsidies. The government turned to confiscation of oil properties and barter as one way out.

Justice Douglas 'Dictum': No Religious Aid at All

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Whether or not the latest Supreme Court decision on the subject of an official prayer in the public schools is soundly based, it has brought sharply to the foreground a discussion of the whole subject of government financing, directly or indirectly, of any institution or activity which relates even remotely to religion.

The main ruling of the court was on a narrow question—that is, whether a state can direct that a particular prayer be recited, even though the prayer is itself general and "denominationally neutral." The issue was whether the state has a right to dictate to the schools any form of prayer might be neutral, and discretion, then one day the prayer might be neutral, and another day some other prayer with denominational overtones might be ordered by the state board of education.

But although the Supreme Court decided only that no state could direct any official prayer, there was a "concurring" opinion by Justice Douglas which is bound to attract nationwide attention. What Mr. Douglas said is known as "dictum" and has no bearing on the ruling itself, even though he concurred in the result.

The big question is whether Mr. Douglas' views will be shared by other members of the court and whether a majority will ever join with him in putting into a ruling the point of view which he has just expressed.

"It is customary," wrote Justice Douglas, "in deciding a constitutional question to treat it in its narrowest form. Yet at times the setting of the question gives it a farm and content which no abstract treatment could do. The point for decision is whether the government can constitutionally finance a religious exercise. Our system at the Federal and state levels is presently honeycombed with such financing. Nevertheless, I think it is an unconstitutional undertaking whatever form it takes."

A List of 'Aids'

Standing by itself, this is a broad statement, but it is even more significant because Justice Douglas attached a footnote in which he presented an extract from a book by David Fellman entitled "The Limits of Freedom." This particular quotation listed the many "aids" to religion at all levels of government, such as provision for chaplains of both Houses of Congress and in the Armed Services, compulsory chapel at the Armed Service Academies, and religious services in Federal hospitals and prisons. It also pointed out that the President issues religious proclamations, that the Bible is used for the administration of oaths, and that Federal funds were available to parochial schools during the depression in the 1930's. It then adds:

"Veterans receiving money under the 'G. I.' bill of 1944 could attend denominational schools, to which payments were made directly by the government.

"During World War II, federal money was contributed to denominational schools for the training of nurses. The benefits of the National School Lunch Act are available to students in private as well as public schools. The Hospital Survey and Construction Act of 1946 specifically made money available to non-public hospitals. . . .

"This list of Federal 'aids' could easily be expanded, and of course there is a long list in each state."

This is the first time that any justice of the Supreme Court has even hinted that all forms of Federal financing are unconstitutional if they go to religious institutions directly or indirectly. Such a sweeping disapproval of Federal "aid" has never been espoused by any prominent member of Congress.

Justice Douglas even would reverse the famous case of "Everson vs. Board of Education," in which he voted with the majority in 1947. It upheld the use of taxpayers' money to pay "the bus fares of parochial school pupils as a part of a general program" under which the fares of pupils attending public and other schools were also paid. He says:

'In Retrospect . . .'

"The Everson case seems in retrospect to be out of line with the First Amendment. Its result is appealing, as it allows aid to be given to needy children. Yet by the same token, public funds could be used to satisfy other needs of children in parochial schools — lunches, books, and tuition being obvious examples."

Justice Douglas, in effect, is taking issue with President Kennedy, who while contending that "across the board" aid to all church-related educational institutions would be unconstitutional, holds that there is no such bar to aid being given at only the college level where mathematics and other scientific subjects are taught. Mr. Douglas would sweep out entirely all forms of government aid to church-related institutions, including tuition grants to war veterans.

The factor of discrimination as between citizens, of course, comes into the controversy. Persons of a particular religious faith who offer their lives in sacrifice during war do not like to be told that, when they come back from a war, they cannot be recompensed, for instance, by tuition payments which would help them get the education they were denied on account of the government's summons to military service. The subject will be debated for a long, long time to come.

Do You Remember by Sophie Miller

The Ulster Dog Training Club held its graduation exercises at the Rondout Recreation Center with the dogs receiving their diploma and ribbons. It was a lovely turn out and a party held afterwards with delicious hot-and cold refreshments served in the old-fashioned friendly and charming manner by Mary McDonald, Eileen Savage, Florence Hommel and Greta Port. It was difficult to imagine by those who were not there the competent way in which several dozen dogs of various types can be handled in one room. Mr. Bryant is interested in classic old cars, owns one, and is president of the local organization about which I would have liked to know more, but like everything else there just isn't enough time for a read good old-fashioned visit, where you could sit on a porch and rock and talk.

One of the items Mrs. Bryant sent me sometime ago tells about a man driving up from the big city past Newburgh in the 1920's. The peach trees along the way were heavy with ripe fruit. He stopped the car and took four empty baskets out of his car, and went into a nearby peach orchard and started to fill his baskets with the lucious ripe fruit. When he was finished, he put them in his car and drove away thinking he had made a clean getaway. Another machine pulled up to the same orchard. This time the man got out and opened the hood of his car to make adjustments. A farmer stood nearby and said, "The man who just drove away in that car got away with $4 worth of my good peaches." "That's too bad," answered the man busy with his car. "Oh, I don't know" the farmer answered. "While he was stealing my fruit I removed two of his new tires from the back of his car rack, they'll look mighty good on my new tin lizzie."

One of my readers is interested in some good pictures of the Homer Ramsdell, of the Central Hudson line which was burned to the water's edge on May 21, 1911 at her wharf in Newburgh with a loss of some $25,000. The Ramsdell was a passenger propeller river boat and not a side-wheeler. It had one smoke stack. It was built for river traffic to run from New York to Newburgh. I know that Tom Walsh, of 37 Bou- River and Catskill Mountain items has a great collection of Hudson River boat pictures, among which no doubt he has several of the Homer Ramsdell.

TAX SYSTEM BASIC

Before any nation can properly develop its resources for the benefit of all the people there must be an adequate national system of taxation. Though many in the United States complain that our taxes are too high, this country does have such a system.

But not all the national governments have the financial resources to develop their public sectors. Unfortunately this applies in a high degree to South America. Recognition of this dearth of resources was responsible, largely, for creation of the Alliance for Progress.

As a major contributor to this program the United States conditioned its support on the promise that recipient Latin American countries would institute tax reform. As far as Washington is concerned, reform means acceptance of the graduated income tax. In our government's view the income tax is the only device adequate to raise the huge sums for schools, land distribution and other improvements needed so badly south of the border.

Though it has been difficult to put this point across, Latin America seems to have accepted this taxation necessity. A good sign, for example, is the fact that Chile just recently indicted an income tax defector for fraud in the first such action ever attempted on that whole continent.

Our tax officials, who have been working in close cooperation with these governments, take heart from these signs. For the Alliance for Progress could never by itself lift South America out of the rut where the few are fabulously wealthy and the huge majority degradingly poor. Self help in the form of an efficient tax must come first.

BUFFER FOR THE SHORES

The Department of the Interior has been plumping for the excellent idea that a great deal more of the U.S. shoreline should be protected and, where necessary, restored. Two measures giving the concept some implementation have been introduced in Congress.

Though changes may have to be made before final approval of legislation, the general idea of preserving the shoreline merits broad support. Leveling the dunes and cluttering shore areas with houses and other private buildings is an invitation to disaster, as was evidenced in the great storm that swept the East coast last March. Such beach developments also tend to deprive the public of fine recreation spots, too few of which remain after decades of public indifference to the matter.

One measure which already has been approved by the Senate would provide federal matching funds to help states and communities acquire areas for public recreation. Another would increase federal aid for shore protection projects, and especially for the sort of buffer zones advocated by Interior Secretary Udall. These bills would take the nation a long step toward preserving the recreational values of our shores. That would be greatly in the general public interest. As our population grows, the need for recreation grounds also increases.

INTO BETTER CHANNELS

Maybe we should begin to face the fact that the rise of juvenile gangs is not some unaccountable abnormality, but a normal outgrowth of raising children in the crowded and often depressing areas of our cities. Having recognized that, we might find out whether there is not some merit worth salvaging in the makeup of these lads. Maybe what they need is not repression but guidance—not any namby-pamby guidance, but rugged leadership intended to divert their aggressive spirit into worthwhile channels.

The qualities that attract youngsters to gang life are some of them bad—but not all of them. There are good qualities too, qualities of courage, loyalty, selfless (though miguided) devotion to a "cause."

The human race needs such qualities. Whenever and wherever they are found they should not be allowed to expend themselves futilely and evilly. They should be made use of in fields where America needs them. The chances are that some of the so-called juvenile delinquents might do worthwhile things if given understanding, guidance and sound objectives for their valor and loyalty.

THE ECONOMY

President Kennedy cannot ignore the unseemly economy of the United States. It is true that prices in the Stock Exchange have been too high. To use a rule of thumb which a very successful financier has used, it is unwise to buy at the bottom of the market; it is unsound to sell at what looks like the top. Practically, when a stock sells for more than 15 or 20 times its earnings, its price ins inflated by emotional factors, including public relations gimmicks.

But the stock market is not to be taken as a yardstick of the economy. It is a place, here as well as in other countries, where men gamble on probabilities and possibilities and the gamblers can upset all economic laws if they deal in large enough volume. Short selling should be prohibited by law, as a gambler's device.

The stock market does not cause a recession or a depression. Both are normal characteristics of adjustment in the economic system. Every device conceived in capitalistic or communist countries to avoid or avert "hills and valleys" has failed, because in certain periods, "good times," man tends to over-produce until a period of satiation sets in. These may be called "bad times."

It has been assumed by optimitic politicians and statisticians that as there are vast backyard areas of the world, it ought to be possible by a pump-priming trick, "foreign aid," not only to achieve a political goal but to raise the standard of living of a people so swiftly that they would immediately consume the surpluses of the countries which are over-produced. This has not happened. Instead, those countries that stockpiled to maintain high prices and high wages are stuck with their stockpiles and, in 1962, the entire world is suffering from mild to severe economic disturbances. The United States could break the back of the economies of many nations and guarantee a universal depression of major dimensions by dumping its stockpile at bargain-counter prices.

This problem goes back to Joseph in Egypt, if my readers recall the story in the Bible. Joseph invented the stockpile as he did the ever-normal granary. He erected vast storages to hold the grain, so that in years of famine there would be food. The granaries became very costly and Egypt undertook enormous public works based on a slave system.

When the slaves revolted, Egypt's economy went to pieces. The leading country in the world at one moment in history, Egypt never recovered from this curious economic experimentation.

This technique has, since the end of World War II, been used throughout the world in the hope of maintaining a war-expanded economy. It has not worked.

Take the example of Canada. Viewing the history of the Canadian dollar from 1846 to today, it has generally stood in relationship to the U. S. dollar in the vicinity of 90. This was advantageous to Canada which is dependent upon British and U. S. capital for its development. After all, Canada is a country of 3,621,616 square miles with a population of 17,000,000. It could hold a population of 50,000,000 to 100,000,000. But it cannot swiftly develop capital to finance the provision of work without assistance of other countries and without creating conditions favorable to exports.

The history of Canada has been a history of the export of raw materials and the import of manufactured goods and capital. It paralleled the history of the United States. Actually the two countries were one economically, except that the United States, having a more favorable climate, attracted more immigrants. As a result, the United States developed more rapidly than Canada and some of Canada's population overflowed into the United States either as a working force or as permanent settlers. But American manufactured goods and capital flowed freely into Canada.

Up to Prohibition, this freedom of economic movement continued. Immense amounts of American capital flowed into Canada, which Canada could not consume by usual economic processes. Canada thus became an exporter of capital as well as an importer and the Canadian dollar moved out of line. Economic nationalism led to the cartel system; Canada swallowed more than it could chew.

That is true of so many other countries. Thus, a universal recession has set in, which, if not dealt with without regard to sentiment, can produce a universal depression

Shun Cancer Treatments Failing Objective Tests

By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

In the first of these columns, dealing with unproved methods of cancer treatment, reference was made to Krebiozen and the measures suggested by the late Dr. Gerson and by Dr. Jacob Pawlotzky whose articles first appeared in Russian literature.

Here are other UNPROVED methods concerning which the American Cancer Society has found no evidence that their use "results in any objective benefit in the treatment of cancer in human beings."

Revici Cancer Control or lipid therapy, described as "biologically guided chemotherapy," consisting of nine products for the treatment of "acid symptoms" and eight others for the treatment of "alkaline symptoms." Repeated attempts to evaluate the claims of Dr. Revici have been made by the Universities of Wisconsin and Chicago and by the National Cancer Institute and the Committee on Cancer Diagnosis and Therapy of the National Research Council.

"In every case, it has been impossible to reach agreement with representatives of the (Revici) Institute on procedures which would assure an objective scientific evaluation."

Glover serum, presumably prepared by injecting animals with a living organism obtained from the blood of cancer patients. A committee of the Toronto Academy of Medicine reported that it could find "no evidence to warrant the hope that a specific cure had been discovered" after examining 12 patients treated and selected by Dr. Glover. And Dr. Francis Carter Wood, after injecting purchased serum into white rats with experimentally produced malignancies, noted "no beneficial effect."

Antineol, presumably prepared from the posterior pituitary gland, is the "discovery" of Dr. H. K. Wachtel. An attempt by the National Research Council to set up a clinical study of Antineol failed "when Dr. Wachtel said it would be impossible to supply the agent for such studies."

Anticancergen Z-50 has been proposed as a treatment for cancer by G. S. Zuccala who holds a doctor's degree in science. Prepared from "pooled cancer tissues" or the patient's blood or urine, the preparation is given by intramuscular injection. At Mr. Zuccala's request, Anticancergen Z-50 was investigated by the National Research Council which found the product "without therapeutic activity in human cancer."

Mind you. All these are unproved claims, listed so you can steer clear of them.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Ceylon's seizure of nearly a third of the petroleum products distribution facilities owned by two American and one British oil companies constitutes the most serious threat to foreign investment by private enterprise that has arisen yet. The confiscated properties represent an estimated investment of over $5 million.

THE THREE COMPANIES involved are the British Shell International Petroleum, California-Texas Ceylon Ltd., and Esso Standard Eastern. All have been doing business on the island south of India for over 40 years.

Ceylon, followed the example of India in setting up a nationalized oil company, but more ruthlessly.

Shell's total investment in Ceylon is put at $9.8 million and its volume of Ceylonese business over five million barrels of petroleum products a year, 60 per cent of the total. Cal-Tex, with a total investment of over $3 million and Esso with an investment of over $4 million, have each marketed over 1.5 million barrels of products a year, or 20 per cent of the total. Ceylon's total oil business is estimated at about $100 million a year gross.

PROPERTIES TAKEN OVER by the nationalized Ceylon Petroleum Corp. under a law passed a year ago include 180 of the best filling station locations out of a total of 750 on the island, 60 kerosene stations, tankage and bunkering facilities. The three companies have been left with only their lowest volume and least profitable distribution centers in rural areas.

Furthermore, Ceylon Petroleum Corp. has cut its prices a fraction of a cent a gallon below the private company prices. This makes continued profitable operation difficult. Cal-Tex says it may be forced to liquidate its Ceylon holding.

The Ceylon government takeover constitutes a doubled free world economic threat in that it has turned to Russia, Rumania and United Arab Republic for new sources of petroleum products supply.

Total Soviet oil exports now amount to only 3 per cent of world trade. But Communist countries are pushing their sales hard at cut prices, making their competition hard to beat.

Last December, Ceylon signed a five-year contract with the Russians to supply 10 million barrels of products over five years. This is nearly a fourth of the island's present requirements of 8 million barrels a year. Ceylon claims that the Russian price is from 20 to 25 per cent under charges by the three companies, using supply from the Persian Gulf area.

FROM THE CEYLON GOVERNMENT'S point of view the most favorable aspect of its new deal is that it will be able to pay for some of its oil with low-grade tea, sheet rubber and other tropical exports not marketable elsewhere.

The law under which Ceylon confiscated the oil properties provides for establishment of a Compensation Tribunal of 10 persons. It has not yet been named and no basis of compensation has been set.

There has been speculation that it will be original cost less depreciation, with no allowance for taking over a long-established business. Method of payment — whether in dollars, pounds sterling, Ceylon rupees (worth 4.75 to the dollar), or long-term bonds—is not provided by law.

British interests will be hardest hit by Ceylon's nationalization program, since most of its trade has been with Commonwealth countries, and Britain developed the island.

United States trade with Ceylon in 1960 was $14 million in exports, $38 million imports. In addition, the United States has given Ceylon $74 million in aid since the end of the war — $50 million in grants, mosty surplus foods.

In spite of this, Ceylon's economy is in bad shape. On a $100 million budget, it has a $50 million deficit, most of which has gone for food subsidies. The government turned to confiscation of oil properties and barter as one way out.

Justice Douglas 'Dictum': No Religious Aid at All

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Whether or not the latest Supreme Court decision on the subject of an official prayer in the public schools is soundly based, it has brought sharply to the foreground a discussion of the whole subject of government financing, directly or indirectly, of any institution or activity which relates even remotely to religion.

The main ruling of the court was on a narrow question—that is, whether a state can direct that a particular prayer be recited, even though the prayer is itself general and "denominationally neutral." The issue was whether the state has a right to dictate to the schools any form of prayer might be neutral, and discretion, then one day the prayer might be neutral, and another day some other prayer with denominational overtones might be ordered by the state board of education.

But although the Supreme Court decided only that no state could direct any official prayer, there was a "concurring" opinion by Justice Douglas which is bound to attract nationwide attention. What Mr. Douglas said is known as "dictum" and has no bearing on the ruling itself, even though he concurred in the result.

The big question is whether Mr. Douglas' views will be shared by other members of the court and whether a majority will ever join with him in putting into a ruling the point of view which he has just expressed.

"It is customary," wrote Justice Douglas, "in deciding a constitutional question to treat it in its narrowest form. Yet at times the setting of the question gives it a farm and content which no abstract treatment could do. The point for decision is whether the government can constitutionally finance a religious exercise. Our system at the Federal and state levels is presently honeycombed with such financing. Nevertheless, I think it is an unconstitutional undertaking whatever form it takes."

A List of 'Aids'

Standing by itself, this is a broad statement, but it is even more significant because Justice Douglas attached a footnote in which he presented an extract from a book by David Fellman entitled "The Limits of Freedom." This particular quotation listed the many "aids" to religion at all levels of government, such as provision for chaplains of both Houses of Congress and in the Armed Services, compulsory chapel at the Armed Service Academies, and religious services in Federal hospitals and prisons. It also pointed out that the President issues religious proclamations, that the Bible is used for the administration of oaths, and that Federal funds were available to parochial schools during the depression in the 1930's. It then adds:

"Veterans receiving money under the 'G. I.' bill of 1944 could attend denominational schools, to which payments were made directly by the government.

"During World War II, federal money was contributed to denominational schools for the training of nurses. The benefits of the National School Lunch Act are available to students in private as well as public schools. The Hospital Survey and Construction Act of 1946 specifically made money available to nonpublic hospitals. . . .

"This list of Federal 'aids' could easily be expanded, and of course there is a long list in each state."

This is the first time that any justice of the Supreme Court has even hinted that all forms of Federal financing are unconstitutional if they go to religious institutions directly or indirectly. Such a sweeping disapproval of Federal "aid" has never been espoused by any prominent member of Congress.

Justice Douglas even would reverse the famous case of "Everson vs. Board of Education," in which he voted with the majority in 1947. It upheld the use of taxpayers' money to pay "the bus fares of parochial school pupils as a part of a general program" under which the fares of pupils attending public and other schools were also paid. He says:

'In Retrospect . . .'

"The Everson case seems in retrospect to be out of line with the First Amendment. Its result is appealing, as it allows aid to be given to needy children. Yet by the same token, public funds could be used to satisfy other needs of children in parochial schools — lunches, books, and tuition being obvious examples."

Justice Douglas, in effect, is taking issue with President Kennedy, who while contending that "across the board" aid to all church-related educational institutions would be unconstitutional, holds that there is no such bar to aid being given at only the college level where mathematics and other scientific subjects are taught. Mr. Douglas would sweep out entirely all forms of government aid to church-related institutions, including tuition grants to war veterans.

The factor of discrimination as between citizens, of course, comes into the controversy. Persons of a particular religious faith who offer their lives in sacrifice during war do not like to be told that, when they come back from a war, they cannot be recompensed, for instance, by tuition payments which would help them get the education they were denied on account of the government's summons to military service. The subject will be debated for a long, long time to come.

Mones Installed Rotary President

Melvin Mones was installed president of Kingston Rotary Club Wednesday at the regular luncheon-meeting of the local service club. Others who took office for the ensuing Rotary year were Wakeman Gardner, first vice president, Franklin Hazard, second vice president, A. Theodore Young, treasurer, George Kernochan, secretary, Harry LeFever, sergeant-at-arms.

Installation and presentation of committees was in charge of Past Presidents Sam Scudder and Larry Bogert and participated in by other past presidents of the club.

Dr. Charles Carter presented the past president's pin to Dr. Milton Grover, who handed over the gavel to incoming President Mones.

The regular program was in charge of Arthur Carr and Col. George Chandler, charter members.

During the luncheon, the Kingston Rotary Club scholarship was presented to Frederick Snyder by Joseph Morgan.

State List Released On MV Revocations

A list of driver license and motor vehicle registration revocations for major causes during the first half of June was released today by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Licenses revoked for conviction of driving while intoxicated, Lawrence A. Weishaupt of Hurley, as of May 28, and Samuel L. Jackson of Gardiner, as of May 2.

License revoked for conviction of a third violation committed within 18 months, John K. Brown, Murphy Street, Kingston, one speeding and two misdemeanors, as of June 8.

Registration revoked for conviction as unlicensed operator, George W. Richardson, Germantown, as of June 8.

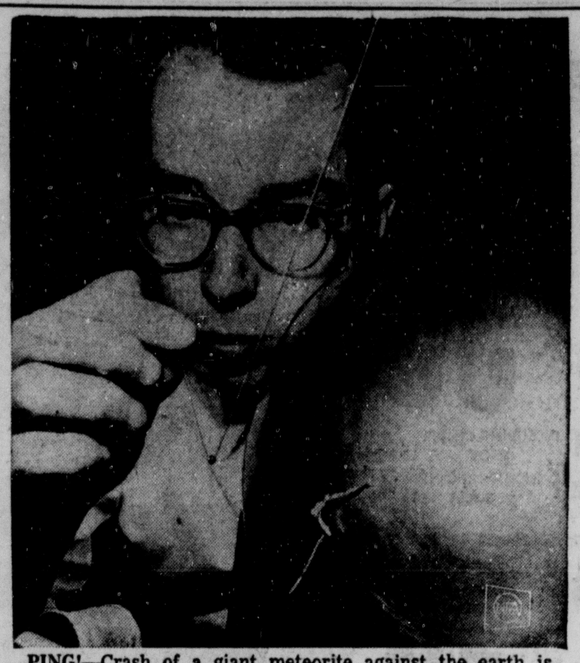
For the Birds

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — The customer ordered a hamburger, a bottle of beer and a dish of ice cream.

An unusual order, but the waitress served him.

The man took three quail from inside the bosom of his shirt and set them down by the ice cream dish. The birds dined on ice cream while the man had hamburger and beer.

Customers in the cafe were too surprised to get the man's name or to find out how he got such unusual pets.



PING!—Crash of a giant meteorite against the earth is simulated by a tiny BB striking a 300-pound metal globe in experiments at Stanford University. Geophysics student Victor Gregson adjusts the thread in preparation for another collision in studies of wave motions in the model earth. The BB is roughly equivalent to a meteorite 20 to 40 miles across and its impact is that of a five to 10-megaton H-bomb in miniature. The model tests theories applicable to oil field exploration and earthquake studies.

Scour River for Boat

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Police and Coast Guard rescue boats for a missing 16-foot outboard searched the Niagara River today motorboat with two teen-aged boys aboard.

Daniel Higgins, 17, and Ronald K. Feldmann, 16, were last seen about 4 p.m. Wednesday when they left a private dock in the Town of Tonawanda.

Higgins, whose family owns the boat, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. George Higgins. Feldmann is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Feldmann of the Town of Tonawanda. His father is the managing editor of the Buffalo Courier-Express.

Both boys were described as experienced boaters.

Texas can claim 482 of the 4,700 drive-in theaters of the United States, most of any state in the Union.

Progress Lacking In Lead Talks

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—An official of the United Auto Workers says no progress has been made toward settlement of the union's strike against the Doehler-Jarvis Division of the National Lead Co. The walkout began May 26.

UAW Local 257 met Wednesday night to hear the report on negotiations held last week in Toledo, Ohio.

Harley Peterson, local president, said the company had offered no new proposal for consideration. Five days of meetings with federal negotiators in Toledo ended Friday without progress, he said.

A three-year contract providing an average hourly wage of $3.01 expired April 1 for UAW employes at Doehler-Jarvis plants at Grand Rapids, Toledo, Pottstown, Pa., and Batavia, N.Y.

The union is demanding clarification on company use of a monitoring system on employe efficiency on the job.

It contends that the company seeks control of the present incentive system with the aim of eventually abolishing it and also that the company has said a 14-cent hourly wage cut would be requierd to allow it to remain competitive.

Rusk Gets Cool Lisbon Welcome

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk sits down with Dictator Antonio de Oliveira Salazar today in an effort to mend badly strained U.S.-Portuguese relations. A cool welcome and small anti - American demonstrations marked Rusk's arrival here for the windup of his 10-day tour of North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies.

Rusk was scheduled to have an hour's conference with Salazar, 75, who is embittered because the United States supported a U.N. investigation of Portugal's administration of its African colony of Angola and because the United States did not prevent India's seizure of Goa.

Continued operation of U.S. military bases in Portugal's Azores Islands may hinge on the conversations with Salazar and his youthful foreign minister, Franco Noguerira.

FOOD FOR AMERICANS

Strawberries and Cantaloupe—Mm!

PORTRAIT OF SUMMER: Refreshing strawberry-and-cantaloupe salad with a smooth sherbet fruit salad dressing.

GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Fresh cantaloupe, now abundant, has fragrance, flavor, consistency as well as nutritional wealth. A fine source of vitamin A, and a good source of other vitamins and minerals.

Fresh Strawberry/Cantaloupe Salad
(6 servings)

1 large ripe cantaloupe
2 cups fresh strawberries
Sherbet Fruit Salad Dressing

Wash cantaloupe and cut into 6 sections almost to the end so that it opens out slightly like petals of a flower. Remove seeds and chill, until ready to serve. Place in serving bowl.

Wash strawberries and remove caps. Spoon into center of cantaloupe. Serve on lettuce, with Sherbet Fruit Salad Dressing, if desired.

Sherbet Fruit Salad Dressing
(1¾ Cups)

2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
¼ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ cups fresh orange juice
2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
2 egg yolks, beaten slightly
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
3 tablespoons salad oil
½ cup raspberry, orange or lemon sherbet

Combine dry ingredients in top of double boiler. Stir in fruit juices. Cook over hot water until thickened, stirring constantly.

Stir 2 tablespoons of the hot mixture into egg yolks. Gradually add to the hot sauce. Stir and cook 1 minute.

Remove from heat and stir in orange rind and oil. Cool and chill.

Musical Puzzle

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—John G. Miller, who runs a musical instrument company, frantically called police when a special order of 12 band uniforms valued at $900 turned up missing. An employe had been instructed to ship the uniforms by air. But neither the uniforms nor employe showed up at the airport. Miller checked every junk and garbage collector in town and went through 100 bus station lockers. Then he found them in a vacant room in his own shop. The employe is still missing.

Charges States Not Doing Good Job With Schools

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The federal government is going to step into public education because the states aren't doing a good job of running the nation's schools, says Oklahoma's governor, Howard Edmondson.

"We should see less criticism of federal action and more criticism of state inaction," he told the closing session Wednesday of the 53rd York State Conference of Mayors.

Edmondson, a Democrat said the states were not meeting their responsibilities in educating their children, and added:

"I predict the federal government will soon be in education."

The states, said Edmondson, "can't even get together on the color of paint for traffic divider lines."

Has Hero Citation Before Joining Marines

SHERRILL, N. Y. (AP) — A young Marine Corps recruit, who reports for duty Friday, already has a citation for heroism from the Marines' commandant, Gen. David N. Shoup.

Shoup said Bruce Davis, 19, acted "in keeping with the highest tradition of the U.S. Marine Corps" when the youth saved a three-year-old girl from drowning last April.

Davis dived into a creek near his home in this Oneida County community to rescue Rose Rechlin of Utica. He applied artificial respiration until the girl was breathing again.

Davis was sworn into the Marine Corps in February, but his call to active duty was deferred until he completed high school this month.

Scour River for Boat

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Police and Coast Guard rescue boats for a missing 16-foot outboard searched the Niagara River today motorboat with two teen-aged boys aboard.

Daniel Higgins, 17, and Ronald K. Feldmann, 16, were last seen about 4 p.m. Wednesday when they left a private dock in the Town of Tonawanda.

Higgins, whose family owns the boat, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. George Higgins. Feldmann is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Feldmann of the Town of Tonawanda. His father is the managing editor of the Buffalo Courier-Express.

Both boys were described as experienced boaters.

Progress Lacking In Lead Talks

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—An official of the United Auto Workers says no progress has been made toward settlement of the union's strike against the Doehler-Jarvis Division of the National Lead Co. The walkout began May 26.

UAW Local 257 met Wednesday night to hear the report on negotiations held last week in Toledo, Ohio.

Harley Peterson, local president, said the company had offered no new proposal for consideration. Five days of meetings with federal negotiators in Toledo ended Friday without progress, he said.

A three-year contract providing an average hourly wage of $3.01 expired April 1 for UAW employes at Doehler-Jarvis plants at Grand Rapids, Toledo, Pottstown, Pa., and Batavia, N.Y.

The union is demanding clarification on company use of a monitoring system on employe efficiency on the job.

It contends that the company seeks control of the present incentive system with the aim of eventually abolishing it and also that the company has said a 14-cent hourly wage cut would be requierd to allow it to remain competitive.

Caravan to Mexico Leaving Sunday for Seven-Week Tour

Fifty-eight tourist ambassadors of friendship will leave Kingston Sunday afternoon for a seven week's tour of Mexico and the Southwest under the leadership of the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur E. Oudemool.

For the past 11 years the Oudemool family has been conducting a group of co-ed teenagers on a station wagon camping trip to south of the border and scenic and historic points in Arizona and New Mexico. The group is non-sectarian and includes not only local residents but young people from six other states.

The caravan will enter Mexico at Laredo and begin sight-seeing in Monterrey, the largest industrial city in Mexico. The group will visit the Bishop's Palace and have a day-long trip to Horsetail Falls, high in the mountains. The next stop will be Saltillo, famous for the finest "serapes" loomed in Mexico. From here the road will gradually climb, and at the next stop-over, Queretaro, the altitude will be 6,200 feet, and the climate will be delightful. This charming old colonial city is where the Emperor Maximillian met his death. On the way into Mexico City the group will stop off at Toluca to spend a few hours (and pesos!) in the largest and most complex market in Mexico. The beautiful baskets made in this area are a temptation that is difficult to resist.

Camp Near Campus

Mexico City at an altitude of 7,400 feet will be cool during the day and cold at night. The caravan will be camped near the campus of the University of Mexico—one of the oldest and most modern universities on the American continent. The group will visit the National Museum and see the Aztec Calendar Stone, take a trip to Zochomilco and ride the flower decked boats, climb the great Pyramid of the Sun at Teotihuacan, and see the Cathedral of the Virgin of Guadalupe, national religious shrine of all Mexicans.

On a four day visit to Cuernavaca the caravaners will walk thruogh the Bara Gardens, the Palace of Cortez, and climb the pyramids of Teopanzolcb and Zochicalco. An entire day will be spent in visiting the silver shop, the Borda Cathedral and the House of Tears.

A letter has just been received from Don Jose Pliego, owner of one of Mexico's largest and most beautiful estates, inviting the caravaners to be over-night guests at his lovely hacienda, La Gavia. Don Pliego, one of the wealthiest industrialists in Mexico, inherited this early Spanish land grant of 700,000 acres.

Visit UNICEF Project

One of the most interesting aspects of the trip will be the visit to Patzcuaro where there is a school project of UNICEF. Two hundred Indian boys from the lake region are being given an education that otherwise would not be available were it not for funds supplied by the UN. Milk, vaccine, food, medical care is supplied to these children largely through the UNICEF Haloween Trick or Treat program which was inaugurated in Kingston last year. Last fall the young "spooks" who took part in UNICEF Halloween all over the United States, collected $1,750,000. Mrs. Oudemool will be taking a set of slides of the school and the children. These slides will be available to anyone in Kingston or the vicinity who is interested in participating in the Halloween Trick or Treat Program.

At Gaudalajara the caravaners will visit Tlaquepaque, one of the world's largest pottery producing villages. A stop-off at Mazatlan and Guaymas will afford the group an opportunity to swim in the Pacific and the Gulf of Mexico. The departure point from Mexico will be Nogales, and then the caravan will travel through Phoenix and Tucson to Grand Canyon. At the canyon the boys and girls will take the day-long trip by mule down into the canyon.

The Gallup Inter-Tribal Indian Ceremonial will be the last big event of the trip. Twelve thousand Indians from 25 tribes throughout the United States, Alaska and Mexico, will take part in a parade, rodeo, and a program of ceremonial dancing. And with that thrilling experience, the Caravan will start home arriving in Kingston on Aug. 17.

Local members of the caravan are James Boyd of 175 Manor Avenue, Kingston; Susie Perlman of Woodstock; Carol Royaei of RD 1, Route 9W, Kingston; Beverly Schoonmaker, of Accord.

Among couselors from this area are Mrs. Margaret Brown of Yarmouth Street; Rudolph Kraus, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Oudemool and Jan Oudemool, all of 100 Pearl Street.

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, our drug called ODRINEX. You must lose ugly fat in 7 days or your money back. No strenuous exercise, laxatives, massage or taking of so-called reducing candies, crackers or cookies, or chewing gum. ODRINEX is a tiny tablet and easily swallowed. When you take ODRINEX, you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like, but you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food. Your weight must come down, because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. ODRINEX costs $3.00 and is sold on this GUARANTEE: If not satisfied for any reason just return the package to your druggist and get your full money back. No questions asked. ODRINEX is sold with this guarantee by:

Will Shift Estes Trial From Home

PECOS, Tex. (AP) — District Judge J. H. Starley upheld a defense argument Wednesday that Billie Sol Estes couldn't get a fair trial in his home town and said he will transfer the case to Tyler, 529 miles east of Pecos.

Attorneys representing Estes, 37, unexpectedly asked Monday for immediate trial of the promoter on one count of an eight-count indictment returned in April by the Reeves County grand jury. He asked for trial specifically on the charge that he bilked farmer Thomas A. Bell of $162,144 in a purchase agreement involving liquid fertilizer tanks.

Estes also is under federal indictment on fraud charges and congressional investigation. The West Texas financier's farming and business empire is in receivership.

District Judge Otis T. Dunagan told reporters in Tyler Wednesday night he had talked to Starley and would accept the case. No date will be set until the Pecos judge signs a formal order, and he said that will be done July 23.

With selection of a jury still incomplete, defense lawyer John Cofer asked Tuesday night for indefinite delay. He said it was obvious that newspaper, magazine and broadcast accounts about the Estes case had influenced the veniremen.

Dist. Atty. R. B. McGowen expressed a view that Estes could receive a fair trial in Pecos now and said he did not join in the motion for postponement. He conceded, however, that "the law is on the side of the defense in asking a first continuance."

County grand jurors indicted Estes on charges of obtaining $828,576 illegally from six Reeves County farmers, including Bell, through purchase contracts for fertilizer tanks.

Auto, Porch Damaged

An automobile was burned and a Lake Katrine residence was damaged before noon today, by fire which reportedly started when gasoline spilled on the muffler of a power lawn mower and ignited. At the home of Walter Sutton, Old Kings Highway, Lake Katrine, where the fire occurred, a resident said the mower was being taken to a nearby home when it accidentally hit the Suttons parked car, causing gasoline to spill from the mower and ignite. Fire spread to the rear porch of the home. Mt. Marion-Ruby firemen were summoned and Ulster Hose Co. 5, went to the scene.

Hearings Coming On Amendments To Keep Prayer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee will hold hearings next week on proposed constitutional amendments to override the Supreme Court's decision outlawing official prayers in public schools.

However, Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., sought a swifter remedy than an amendment, which would have to be approved by a two-thirds majority of both houses and be ratified by three-fourths of the states.

He introduced a resolution to provide that the court's action not ban any public school system from providing time for prayer as long as no public official prescribes or recites the prayer offered.

Constitutional amendments to legalize classroom prayers have also been introduced in the House.

Firemen to Meet

A special meeting for members of two Saugerties fire companies is scheduled Friday at 7:30 p. m., it was announced today. They are C. A. Lynch Hose Company and Washington Hook and Ladder Company. The meeting is at the Lynch firehouse.

Rosendale Vols Groups to Hold Bazaar July 6-7

In a recent announcement by the general chairman, plans were outlined for the Town of Rosendale's first five company combined vol's bazaar.

The bazaar, sponsored by the Town of Rosendale Volunteer Firemen's Association, has been slated for Friday and Saturday evenings, July 6 and 7 at St. Peter's Church grounds, Rosendale. Activities will begin both nights at 7 p. m.

This is the first time in the association's history that the facilities and resources of five companies have been utilized and coordinated to produce an event of this nature. Participating departments include Bloomington, Rosendale, Cottekill, Binnewater and High Falls.

Plans indicate that an unusual variety of attractions will highlight the festivities, including many novel variations never before presented in the area. The public is cordially invited to attend and the committee assures that there'll be something for every member of the family at the bazaar. Plenty of free parking is available adjacent to the grounds and fire police will be on duty to insure a smooth flow of traffic. Admission to the grounds is free.

Charles Peterson of Bloomington, is the bazaar general chairman. Also serving on the committee are: Bloomington, Herbert Faurote, John Markle, Richard Staley, Donald Sagar and Joseph Hafner; Rosendale, Anthony Erceg, George Fisher and John Boyle; Cottekill, August Backert, Fred Quick, Ralph Temple and Herman Miller; Binnewater, Clarence Coogan, Roland Drolet, Lawrence Craig and William deHaberland; High Falls, Pete Zegel and Raymond Williams.

In addition to the fire companies who will conduct the affair, ladies from each company's auxiliary will also be present to aid at the refreshemnt stand. Bloomington and Binnewater Auxiliary will have its own booths, together with over 20 other attractions which local firemen will staff.

Allot Ulster County $92,500 for Welfare

ALBANY—State Comptroller Arthur Levitt today announced the distribution of $24,630,100—$92,500 to Ulster County—for the month of July to the 65 public welfare districts in the state.

These monies represent the federal and state share (80 per cent) of the anticipated welfare expenditures by the localities. The federal share of these advances amounts to $13,421,000.

Sand in Diesel Motor

Area authorities today were investigating a complaint that someone put sand in the diesel motor of a Euclid land hauler owned by the Arborio Construction Co., last weekend. Damage to the $65,000 hauler was reported in the neighborhood of $3,000. The machinery was left last weekend at a construction project on Route 209, Town of Hurley, it it was reported.

Bids on Orange Work

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — S. J. Groves and Sons Co. of Woodbridge, N.J., today submitted a low bid of $1,839,727 to the State Public Works Department on a contract for reconstruction of 2.7 miles of Route 293 in Orange County.

The work will be done between a point north of the Route 6 intersection and a point near Popolopen Lake.

Satellite Launched

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE Base, Calif. (AP) — The Air Force says a satellite employing a Thor Agena-B booster combination was launched from this missile base Wednesday.

X-15 Unintentionally Sets New Speed Mark

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—X15 pilot Joseph A. Walker, streaking upward to a maximum altitude of 120,000 feet, set a speed record during the climb—but he didn't mean to.

The space agency aviator took the 52-foot, stubby-winged rocket plane aloft Wednesday to experiment with some risky braking maneuvers. But en route to the maximum altitude, he reached a record 4,159 miles an hour—more than six times the speed of sound.

The old mark of 4,093 m.p.h. was set last Nov. 9 by Air Force Maj. Robert White, also in an X15.

Officials said they were uncertain why the craft, designed for a 4,000 m.p.h. top speed, did so well.

The flight was to test the angle to attack, a maneuver future space craft may use to slow their return into the earth's atmosphere. The plane losses altitude with its nose higher than its tail in a "pancake landing."

The plane was dropped from a B52 bomber at 45,000 feet and landed 10 minutes later.

Rowboat Missing

Search was underway today along the Hudson River for a 12-foot steel rowboat reported missing from a mooring near Ulster Park. County Investigator Arthur H. Brown said the boat, owned by Edward Ashby, of Ulster Park, is freshly painted light gray inside and outside. Anyone seeing the boat floating in the river is asked to immediately notify the sheriff's office on Wall Street.

Budget Vote Set

Taxpayers in the Wappingers Central School District on July 12, will vote on a $4,044,520 contingency budget reduced $243,400 from a revised district budget. The new budget has been approved by the Board of Education. Voters in the district twice previously defeated a record $4,412,298 budget.

BIGGEST REACH

99 Million Consumers Read a Daily Newspaper Each Weekday

These readers make up the largest audience available to any advertiser in any medium. A recent study* of this national newspaper audience shows that it includes 80 per cent of all men and women over 21... and 72 per cent of all teen-agers, age 15 and over. This huge and consistent readership can be depended upon by advertisers because the daily newspaper is a habit with most people... an established part of their everyday lives. For the national advertiser, this amounts to almost the total market for any product. For the local advertiser, this massive readership symbolizes the local reach of his own local newspaper—into almost 9 out of 10 homes every day. No matter what the product or service an advertiser wants to sell, more people can read about it in the pages of the daily newspaper.

Regents Gathered To Detetrmine Ban's Full Impact

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The State Board of Regents gathered amidst a continuing national furor today to determine how a U.S. Supreme Court ban on prayers in public schools would affect other classroom activities connected with religious beliefs.

The board's regular, monthly meeting runs through Friday.

The question of classroom activities that are oriented toward religion was not on the formal agenda but a source close to the board said it most assuredly would come up.

Any decisions reached are expected to be made public Friday. The first day of the monthly, two-day session is usually given over to closed meetings of committees.

This month's meeting is being held against the background of national debate over the Supreme Court decision. The nation's highest court struck down as unconstitutional the recitation in New York State public schools of a non-denominational prayer recommended by the Regents 11 years ago.

The court held by a 6-1 majority that use of the prayer violated the concept of separation of church and state embodied in the federal constitution. Most of the reaction across the country to the decision has been adverse.

It did not appear there was anything the Regents could do to alter the prayer to meet court's objections, which left no apparent room for compromise or modification.

But other questions have been posed and the Regents are expected to turn to them at their current session. To be resolved are the questions of whether:

1. Such religion-based activities as Christmas pageants should be continued in public schools.

2. The board, which never sought formally to require recitation of its prayer, should now act to force its abandonment by some local school officials who have said they would ignore the Supreme Court decision and continue recitation of the prayer.

3. The court decision should be extended to a practice in New York City schools, where the Board of Education ordered in 1953 that each class day begin with signing of the fourth stanza of America, which ends with the words "Protect Us By They Might, Great God, Our King."

Faulk Figure Found Dead

NEW YORK (AP) — A defendant in former entertainer John Henry Faulk's multimillion dollar libel suit has been found dead in a Bronx motel room.

The body of Laurence A. Johnson, the defendant, was identified today by Donald J. Giancola of Syracuse, a son-in-law.

A clerk and a maintenance man at the motel found Johnson's pajama-clad body Wednesday. There were medicine bottles on a table nearby. He had checked in Sunday.

The suit is scheduled to go to a jury later today.

Johnson, 73, is a retired grocery store-chain operator, who had lived in Syracuse.

An assistant medical examiner said the body bore no marks of violence.

Card of Thanks

Five to Attend Leader Training

Kingston YMCA will be represented at the sixth annual Leaders School to be held at Silver Bay on Lake George from June 28 to July 5. Attending will be James Rundle, 19, of 67 O'Neil Street; Justin Beck, 14, of 15 Fairview Avenue; John Baltz, 13, of RFD 1, Box 160, Kingston; Larry Flowers, 13, of 61 Downs Street and Steven Betley, 13, of 80 Bruyn Street.

Rundle will be serving his second year as an assistant to the staff at Silver Bay while the other boys will be attending classes. The Silver Bay Leaders School is not a sports type camp but a school of seven days duration.

Three major objectives of the school are (1) to supplement the work of the local YMCA in the training and inspiring of young physical education leaders; (2) To expose key boys to experienced YMCA lay and professional leaders to stimulate their continuing interest in the work of the YMCA; and (3) To expose selected young leaders to modern methods of leadership and of teaching methods and skills.

The financing of the boy's attendance at the Silver Bay School was due largely to the local Lions Club. In 1961, a total of 167 leaders attended, sponsored by civic groups from their areas; 70 from New York, 49 from the New England area, 28 from Central Atlantic area, six from New Hampshire, five from Maine and five from Pennsylvania.

Memoriam

In loving memory of my darling husband, Harry Nenni, whom my precious mother joined this month. He departed this life June 28, 1960.

Somewhere back of the sunset
I see his smiling face,
The kindest smile from the one I love,
Whom God never can replace.
I live in happy memories
As I go on my way,
Until God alone sees fit

Will Shift Estes Trial From Home

PECOS, Tex. (AP) — District Judge J. H. Starley upheld a defense argument Wednesday that Billie Sol Estes couldn't get a fair trial in his home town and said he will transfer the case to Tyler, 529 miles east of Pecos.

Attorneys representing Estes, 37, unexpectedly asked Monday for immediate trial of the promoter on one count of an eight-count indictment returned in April by the Reeves County grand jury. He asked for trial specifically on the charge that he bilked farmer Thomas A. Bell of $162,144 in a purchase agreement involving liquid fertilizer tanks.

Estes also is under federal indictment on fraud charges and congressional investigation. The West Texas financier's farming and business empire is in receivership.

District Judge Otis T. Dunagan told reporters in Tyler Wednesday night he had talked to Starley and would accept the case. No date will be set until the Pecos judge signs a formal order, and he said that will be done July 23.

With selection of a jury still incomplete, defense lawyer John Cofer asked Tuesday night for indefinite delay. He said it was obvious that newspaper, magazine and broadcast accounts about the Estes case had influenced the veniremen.

Dist. Atty. R. B. McGowen expressed a view that Estes could receive a fair trial in Pecos now and said he did not join in the motion for postponement. He conceded, however, that "the law is on the side of the defense in asking a first continuance."

County grand jurors indicted Estes on charges of obtaining $828,576 illegally from six Reeves County farmers, including Bell, through purchase contracts for fertilizer tanks.

Auto, Porch Damaged

An automobile was burned and a Lake Katrine residence was damaged before noon today, by fire which reportedly started when gasoline spilled on the muffler of a power lawn mower and ignited. At the home of Walter Sutton, Old Kings Highway, Lake Katrine, where the fire occurred, a resident said the mower was being taken to a nearby home when it accidentally hit the Suttons parked car, causing gasoline to spill from the mower and ignite. Fire spread to the rear porch of the home. Mt. Marion-Ruby firemen were summoned and Ulster Hose Co. 5, went to the scene.

Hearings Coming On Amendments To Keep Prayer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee will hold hearings next week on proposed constitutional amendments to override the Supreme Court's decision outlawing official prayers in public schools.

However, Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., sought a swifter remedy than an amendment, which would have to be approved by a two-thirds majority of both houses and be ratified by three-fourths of the states.

He introduced a resolution to provide that the court's action not ban any public school system from providing time for prayer as long as no public official prescribes or recites the prayer offered.

Constitutional amendments to legalize classroom prayers have also been introduced in the House.

Firemen to Meet

A special meeting for members of two Saugerties fire companies is scheduled Friday at 7:30 p. m., it was announced today. They are C. A. Lynch Hose Company and Washington Hook and Ladder Company. The meeting is at the Lynch firehouse.

Rosendale Vols Groups to Hold Bazaar July 6-7

In a recent announcement by the general chairman, plans were outlined for the Town of Rosendale's first five company combined vol's bazaar.

The bazaar, sponsored by the Town of Rosendale Volunteer Firemen's Association, has been slated for Friday and Saturday evenings, July 6 and 7 at St. Peter's Church grounds, Rosendale. Activities will begin both nights at 7 p. m.

This is the first time in the association's history that the facilities and resources of five companies have been utilized and coordinated to produce an event of this nature. Participating departments include Bloomington, Rosendale, Cottekill, Binnewater and High Falls.

Plans indicate that an unusual variety of attractions will highlight the festivities, including many novel variations never before presented in the area. The public is cordially invited to attend and the committee assures that there'll be something for every member of the family at the bazaar. Plenty of free parking is available adjacent to the grounds and fire police will be on duty to insure a smooth flow of traffic. Admission to the grounds is free.

Charles Peterson of Bloomington, is the bazaar general chairman. Also serving on the committee are: Bloomington, Herbert Faurote, John Markle, Richard Staley, Donald Sagar and Joseph Hafner; Rosendale, Anthony Erceg, George Fisher and John Boyle; Cottekill, August Backert, Fred Quick, Ralph Temple and Herman Miller; Binnewater, Clarence Coogan, Roland Drolet, Lawrence Craig and William deHaberland; High Falls, Pete Zegel and Raymond Williams.

In addition to the fire companies who will conduct the affair, ladies from each company's auxiliary will also be present to aid at the refreshemnt stand. Bloomington and Binnewater Auxiliary will have its own booths, together with over 20 other attractions which local firemen will staff.

Allot Ulster County $92,500 for Welfare

ALBANY—State Comptroller Arthur Levitt today announced the distribution of $24,630,100—$92,500 to Ulster County—for the month of July to the 65 public welfare districts in the state.

These monies represent the federal and state share (80 per cent) of the anticipated welfare expenditures by the localities. The federal share of these advances amounts to $13,421,000.

Sand in Diesel Motor

Area authorities today were investigating a complaint that someone put sand in the diesel motor of a Euclid land hauler owned by the Arborio Construction Co., last weekend. Damage to the $65,000 hauler was reported in the neighborhood of $3,000. The machinery was left last weekend at a construction project on Route 209, Town of Hurley, it it was reported.

Bids on Orange Work

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — S. J. Groves and Sons Co. of Woodbridge, N.J., today submitted a low bid of $1,839,727 to the State Public Works Department on a contract for reconstruction of 2.7 miles of Route 293 in Orange County.

The work will be done between a point north of the Route 6 intersection and a point near Popolopen Lake.

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE Base, Calif. (AP) — The Air Force says a satellite employing a Thor Agena-B booster combination was launched from this missile base Wednesday.

X-15 Unintentionally Sets New Speed Mark

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—X15 pilot Joseph A. Walker, streaking upward to a maximum altitude of 120,000 feet, set a speed record during the climb—but he didn't mean to.

The space agency aviator took the 52-foot, stubby-winged rocket plane aloft Wednesday to experiment with some risky braking maneuvers. But en route to the maximum altitude, he reached a record 4,159 miles an hour—more than six times the speed of sound.

The old mark of 4,093 m.p.h. was set last Nov. 9 by Air Force Maj. Robert White, also in an X15.

Officials said they were uncertain why the craft, designed for a 4,000 m.p.h. top speed, did so well.

The flight was to test the angle to attack, a maneuver future space craft may use to slow their return into the earth's atmosphere. The plane losses altitude with its nose higher than its tail in a "pancake landing."

The plane was dropped from a B52 bomber at 45,000 feet and landed 10 minutes later.

Rowboat Missing

Search was underway today along the Hudson River for a 12-foot steel rowboat reported missing from a mooring near Ulster Park. County Investigator Arthur H. Brown said the boat, owned by Edward Ashby, of Ulster Park, is freshly painted light gray inside and outside. Anyone seeing the boat floating in the river is asked to immediately notify the sheriff's office on Wall Street.

Budget Vote Set

Taxpayers in the Wappingers Central School District on July 12, will vote on a $4,044,520 contingency budget reduced $243,400 from a revised district budget. The new budget has been approved by the Board of Education. Voters in the district twice previously defeated a record $4,412,298 budget.

BIGGEST REACH

99 Million Consumers Read a Daily Newspaper Each Weekday

These readers make up the largest audience available to any advertiser in any medium. A recent study* of this national newspaper audience shows that it includes 80 per cent of all men and women over 21...and 72 per cent of all teen-agers, age 15 and over. This huge and consistent readership can be depended upon by advertisers because the daily newspaper is a habit with most people...an established part of their everyday lives. For the national advertiser, this amounts to almost the total market for any product. For the local advertiser, this massive readership symbolizes the local reach of his own local newspaper—into almost 9 out of 10 homes every day. No matter what the product or service an advertiser wants to sell, more people can read about it in the pages of the daily newspaper.

Regents Gathered To Detetrmine Ban's Full Impact

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The State Board of Regents gathered amidst a continuing national furor today to determine how a U.S. Supreme Court ban on prayers in public schools would affect other classroom activities connected with religious beliefs.

The board's regular, monthly meeting runs through Friday.

The question of classroom activities that are oriented toward religion was not on the formal agenda but a source close to the board said it most assuredly would come up.

Any decisions reached are expected to be made public Friday. The first day of the monthly, two-day session is usually given over to closed meetings of committees.

This month's meeting is being held against the background of national debate over the Supreme Court decision. The nation's highest court struck down as unconstitutional the recitation in New York State public schools of a non-denominational prayer recommended by the Regents 11 years ago.

The court held by a 6-1 majority that use of the prayer violated the concept of separation of church and state embodied in the federal constitution. Most of the reaction across the country to the decision has been adverse.

It did not appear there was anything the Regents could do to alter the prayer to meet court's objections, which left no apparent room for compromise or modification.

But other questions have been posed and the Regents are expected to turn to them at their current session. To be resolved are the questions of whether:

1. Such religion-based activities as Christmas pageants should be continued in public schools.

2. The board, which never sought formally to require recitation of its prayer, should now act to force its abandonment by some local school officials who have said they would ignore the Supreme Court decision and continue recitation of the prayer.

3. The court decision should be extended to a practice in New York City schools, where the Board of Education ordered in 1953 that each class day begin with signing of the fourth stanza of America, which ends with the words "Protect Us By They Might, Great God, Our King."

Faulk Figure Found Dead

NEW YORK (AP) — A defendant in former entertainer John Henry Faulk's multimillion dollar libel suit has been found dead in a Bronx motel room.

The body of Laurence A. Johnson, the defendant, was identified today by Donald J. Giancola of Syracuse, a son-in-law.

A clerk and a maintenance man at the motel found Johnson's pajama-clad body Wednesday. There were medicine bottles on a table nearby. He had checked in Sunday.

The suit is scheduled to go to a jury later today.

Johnson, 73, is a retired grocery store-chain operator, who had lived in Syracuse.

An assistant medical examiner said the body bore no marks of violence.

YMCA News

Five to Attend Leader Training

Kingston YMCA will be represented at the sixth annual Leaders School to be held at Silver Bay on Lake George from June 28 to July 5. Attending will be James Rundle, 19, of 67 O'Neil Street; Justin Beck, 14, of 15 Fairview Avenue; John Baltz, 13, of RFD 1, Box 160, Kingston; Larry Flowers, 13, of 61 Downs Street and Steven Betley, 13, of 80 Bruyn Street.

Rundle will be serving his second year as an assistant to the staff at Silver Bay while the other boys will be attending classes. The Silver Bay Leaders School is not a sports type camp but a school of seven days duration.

Three major objectives of the school are (1) to supplement the work of the local YMCA in the training and inspiring of young physical education leaders; (2) To expose key boys to experienced YMCA lay and professional leaders to stimulate their continuing interest in the work of the YMCA; and (3) To expose selected young leaders to modern methods of leadership and of teaching methods and skills.

The financing of the boy's attendance at the Silver Bay School was due largely to the local Lions Club. In 1961, a total of 167 leaders attended, sponsored by civic groups from their areas; 70 from New York, 49 from the New England area, 28 from Central Atlantic area, six from New Hampshire, five from Maine and five from Pennsylvania.

Memoriam

In loving memory of my darling husband, Harry Nenni, whom my precious mother joined this month. He departed this life June 28, 1960.

Somewhere back of the sunset
I see his smiling face,
The kindest smile from the one
I love,
Whom God never can replace.
I live in happy memories
As I go on my way,
Until God alone sees fit
That we shall meet again some

Bond Sale Approved

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The Public Service Commission has authorized the State Telephone Co., which serves suburban and rural areas near here, to sell $150,000 in first-mortgage bonds to an insurance company.

The PSC said Wednesday that the proceeds would be used to repay loans incurred for plant expansion.

Claim Rejected

BRATTLEBORO, Vt. (AP)—A federal court jury has rejected the claim of Henry J. Moran of Whitehall, N.Y., for $15,000 for injuries he said he suffered in a traffic accident.

The jury returned the verdict Wednesday in favor of the defendants, Frank F. Chico of Cavendish and Bertie M. Hakey of Proctorsville.

Moran was a passenger in an automobile driven by Chico when the accident occurred last August.

PERIODICAL CICADA—Swarms of the periodical cicada, often erroneously called the 17-year locust, appear at 13 and 17-year intervals. The most recent infestation in the U.S. occurred in 1945. The nymph, whose life cycle began 13 or 17 years earlier in the ground, crawls out, splits its nymphal skin and works itself out and becomes a freshly transformed adult, top photo. Below is a mature adult.

Business Nerves on Edge During Turbulent Six Months

Guessing How Fast Economy Would Grow Turns Into Fretting About Market Drop

EDITOR'S NOTE — A turbulent six months has business nerves on edge. In this, first of two articles on the current situation and outlook at midyear, Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst, outlines the conflicts and problems.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) —Americans started 1962 trying to guess how fast the economy would grow and ended the first six months trying to guess how low stock prices would fall.

In between there were few dull moments.

Government and big business clashed over a short lived attempt to raise steel prices. And the rest of the business world, after the first shock over the administration's quick use of massive deterrents, turned either wary or resentful.

Security Is Battle Cry

The biggest break in stock prices since 1929 followed, whether because of the clash or by coincidence. Millions of new stock owners took big losses—either in paper profits or very real cash. Many, rightly or wrongly, thought government was moving against increased profits and bigness in business.

Job security became this year's battle cry of labor.

Labor's demands shifted from emphasis on higher wages to spreading the work through shorter work weeks, longer vacations, earlier retirements; or to cushioning the pains of unemployment by higher jobless benefit payments, retraining displaced workers, fatter pensions.

President Kennedy's appeals to labor to hold wage demands within the bounds of increasing productivity were followed by renewed agitation for lowering the average work week to 35 hours. Some top labor leaders were as reluctant as business executives to see the government man become a third party at the labor-management negotiation table.

Flurry of Merger Plans

The first six months have seen a flurry of merger plans—railroads, airlines, banks. The government favored some, chiefly in transportation, that seemed the best way to stave off bankruptcy, frowned on others it suspected of restricting competition. Antitrust suits hit several industries. When mergers implied loss of jobs, the unions involved were quick to threaten strikes.

Federal tax cuts were held out as a promise when the first six months found the economy jogging along instead of galloping, unemployment falling very slowly, and the nation's international finances still in the red.

But business fretted because it suspected that cuts in some lines would be offset by slashing tax privileges in others.

While stock traders fretted about the future, industrial production managed to climb, if slowly; average factory takehome pay set a record; total personal incomes and savings rose, and so did personal debts. The cost of living hit a record high, then leveled off there in May.

Auto salesmen had their best spring in years. Construction outlays rose. Retail sales climbed, but with a slight dip in May after a record April.

Bond Sale Approved

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The Public Service Commission has authorized the State Telephone Co., which serves suburban and rural areas near here, to sell $150,000 in first-mortgage bonds to an insurance company.

The PSC said Wednesday that the proceeds would be used to repay loans incurred for plant expansion.

Claim Rejected

BRATTLEBORO, Vt. (AP)—A federal court jury has rejected the claim of Henry J. Moran of Whitehall, N.Y., for $15,000 for injuries he said he suffered in a traffic accident.

The jury returned the verdict Wednesday in favor of the defendants, Frank F. Chico of Cavendish and Bertie M. Hakey of Proctorsville.

Moran was a passenger in an automobile driven by Chico when the accident occurred last August.

PERIODICAL CICADA—Swarms of the periodical cicada, often erroneously called the 17-year locust, appear at 13 and 17-year intervals. The most recent infestation in the U.S. occurred in 1945. The nymph, whose life cycle began 13 or 17 years earlier in the ground, crawls out, splits its nymphal skin and works itself out and becomes a freshly transformed adult, top photo. Business Nerves on Edge During Turbulent Six Months

Guessing How Fast Economy Would Grow Turns Into Fretting About Market Drop

EDITOR'S NOTE — A turbulent six months has business nerves on edge. In this, first of two articles on the current situation and outlook at midyear, Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst, outlines the conflicts and problems.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) —Americans started 1962 trying to guess how fast the economy would grow and ended the first six months trying to guess how low stock prices would fall.

In between there were few dull moments.

Government and big business clashed over a short lived attempt to raise steel prices. And the rest of the business world, after the first shock over the administration's quick use of massive deterrents, turned either wary or resentful.

Security Is Battle Cry

The biggest break in stock prices since 1929 followed, whether because of the clash or by coincidence. Millions of new stock owners took big losses—either in paper profits or very real cash. Many, rightly or wrongly, thought government was moving against increased profits and bigness in business.

Job security became this year's battle cry of labor.

Labor's demands shifted from emphasis on higher wages to spreading the work through shorter work weeks, longer vacations, earlier retirements; or to cushioning the pains of unemployment by higher jobless benefit payments, retraining displaced workers, fatter pensions.

President Kennedy's appeals to labor to hold wage demands within the bounds of increasing productivity were followed by renewed agitation for lowering the average work week to 35 hours. Some top labor leaders were as reluctant as business executives to see the government man become a third party at the labor-management negotiation table.

Flurry of Merger Plans

The first six months have seen a flurry of merger plans—railroads, airlines, banks. The government favored some, chiefly in transportation, that seemed the best way to stave off bankruptcy, frowned on others it suspected of restricting competition. Antitrust suits hit several industries. When mergers implied loss of jobs, the unions involved were quick to threaten strikes.

Federal tax cuts were held out as a promise when the first six months found the economy jogging along instead of galloping, unemployment falling very slowly, and the nation's international finances still in the red.

But business fretted because it suspected that cuts in some lines would be offset by slashing tax privileges in others.

While stock traders fretted about the future, industrial production managed to climb, if slowly; average factory takehome pay set a record; total personal incomes and savings rose, and so did personal debts. The cost of living hit a record high, then leveled off there in May.

Auto salesmen had their best spring in years. Construction outlays rose. Retail sales climbed, but with a slight dip in May after a record April.

Cancer Crusade Exceeds Mark, Volunteers Thanked

OPEN INQUIRY — Paul E. Kamerick, assistant counsel to the Senate Investigations subcommittee, leads off as opening witness at a Senate probe of the Billie Sol Estes case. He testified that the Agriculture Department had advance warning that Estes' deals in cotton acreage allotments were outside the law. (AP Wirephoto)

"I can only say that I would have no report to give if it were not for our volunteers who give so willingly of their time and efforts throughout the year for the benefit of their fellow-man."

Thus did Mrs. Arthur Freeman, Port Ewen, volunteer county director of the American Cancer Society, express thanks to the many volunteers in Ulster County who had participated in the American Cancer Society program. The thanks was expressed at the annual meeting of the Ulster County Unit, American Cancer Society, held recently at the Governor Clinton Hotel in the form of a dutch-treat luncheon.

It was reported at the meeting by Mrs. John Salapatis and Frank Hommel, co-chairmen of the 1962 Ulster County Cancer Crusade, that the campaign was a tremendous success. A total of $32,000, far in excess of the quota, has been collected to-date according to their report.

Attorney Richard W. Griggs, unit president, expressed deep appreciation on behalf of the society and local board members to Mrs. Salapatis and Hommel.

James J. Rua, campaign treasurer, then noted that only $87 was used as expenses during the campaign as he gave a complete report of the monies raised and disbursed.

Mrs. Freeman also presented a review of the activities of the unit for the past nine months.

Dr. Gerald P. Gorman, chairman of the education committee, reported on the success of the pilot program introduced at Kingston High School in the spring on the subject of smoking and its relation to lung cancer. Dr. Gorman's plan including a series of 40-minute lectures by himself.

The use of pathology slides and the showing of the film "To Smoke or Not to Smoke" were included during the lectures. Approximately 1500 students participated through the cooperation of Dr. Earl Soper, superintendent of Kingston Consolidated Schools, M. Clifford Miller, Kingston High School principal, and G. Warren Kias, of the Physical Education Department. Dr. Gorman said that plans are being made to promote a similar program in other schools throughout the county.

The nominating committee presented a slate of new members for election to the unit's board of directors. Those unanimously elected to serve a three-year term were:

Warren Knaust, Mrs. Robert Carnright, John Carnright, and William Wilkin of Saugerties.

Irving Levine, Ellenville; Mrs. Harold Elliott, Woodstock; Mrs. Marian Umhey, Mt. Tremper; Mrs. George Bushnell and Morton E. Gazlay, Stone Ridge; Robert Corcoran, Port Ewen; Mrs. John Beisel, Connelly; Mrs. Carl Dedy, Lomontville; Mrs. Lorenzo Diorio and Mrs. Pierre Renaud, Marlboro; Mrs. Daniel Fochi, West Hurley; Mrs. Jesse McHugh, Wallkill; Mrs. Peter Roumelis, Highland; George Svirsky, Ulster Park; and Mrs. Milton C. Van Duser, Plattekill.

Must Obey . . .

merely recommended. The final decision rested with local school boards. Furthermore, the department points out, the Supreme Court suit was not against the State Education Department but against a single school board.

Where They Are

Eight of the districts that have said they would not comply with the Supreme Court decision are on Long Island. Three others are in western New York and one is in Chenango Forks, near Binghamton.

Spokesmen for the defiant districts give various explanations for their actions, but generally they contend that some acknowledgement of God is necessary. Others have said the decision does not apply to them because they use the Lord's prayer, not the Regents' prayer. The Education Department, however, always has considered use of the Lord's prayer illegally sectarian for schools.

Three Ulster . . .

lland Road, Hyde Park, a car dealer. He was charged with concealing and withholding plumbing supplies known to have been stolen. The material was valued at less than $100, a misdemeanor.

The indictments stemmed from an investigation of burglaries reportedly committed in the last several years in Dutchess, Columbia and Putnam counties by Raymond H. Stanton, 48, of 34 Jefferson Street, who was arrested with his son Raymond G. Stanton, on third degree burglary charges.

Dutchess County Sheriff Lawrence M. Quinlan said previously, the elder Stanton admitted more than 150 burglaries that netted loot worth more than 500,000.

Boy for Diana

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — British actress Diana Dors and her husband, comedian Richard Dawson, are parents of a 10-pound, 2-ounce son.

The baby, as yet unnamed, was born at Cedars of Lebanon hospital Wednesday.

The couple has another son, Mark Richard, 2.

ARE YOU AFRAID TO WORK ON COMMISSION?

If you are . . . don't bother to read this advertisement. But if you want to make $10,000 or more per year, on a commission basis, you can do it by selling Bennett Ready Cut homes. Widely advertised by a fifty year old company of integrity. Bennett Homes are high quality and the savings to home builders are attractive. Plenty of prospects everywhere. Write Bennett Lumber Corporation, 190 Oliver Street, North Tonawanda, New York.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP) —The stock market mounted its first clear-cut rally in almost two weeks today, with trading active early this afternoon.

Showing a gain which approached in size that of June 15, The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 3.10 at 204.20 with industrials up 4.70, rails up .90, and utilities up 1.80.

Key stocks rose along a broad front, posting gains of fractions to a point or two. As usual, some of the more volatile issues moved more widely.

A technical recovery seemed overdue, because no real daily gain by the over-all list had been made in the past eight sessions.

Large blocks changed hands at the start and the ticker tape ran late.

Ford and Chrysler advanced more than a point each while the other auto stocks gained fractions.

Jones & Laughlin added more than a point. Bethlehem and Republic Steel were about a point higher. U.S. Steel gained a fraction.

Du Pont and Eastman Kodak were each up about 2 while American Cyanamid added a point.

AT&T and International Telephone were up well over 2.

Merck rose more than 2, Pfizer a point as drugs joined the rise. Tobaccos gained fractions. Airlines showed little change.

Gains by rails were mostly fractiona, Southern Railway adding about a point and Kansas City Southern around 2.

IBM rose about 10 points, Xerox 4, Korvette and Sears, Roebuck about 2 each and Polaroid a point or so.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 8.66 at 545.64. At 11 a.m. (EDT) it stood at 547.69.

WHIRLY-GIRL—Feeling as if she could take off under her own power is Mrs. Rosemary Weidinger of Culver City, Calif. She just won her helicopter pilot's license, making her member No. 41 of the Whirly-Girls, which is an international organization of qualified women helicopter pilots.

Decision Is Law

have exhausted the powers" it provides.

Congress — Don't adjourn, he suggested, without adopting a good deal more of the administration's legislative program. He enumerated trade, tax, medical care, education and farm proposals among those difficult to get through Congress, where he acknowledged some Democrats have been voting with Republicans for years and have to do better. He called the November congressional elections important, with a workable majority hanging in the balance.

Farm Bill—The unexpected defeat of his wheat and feed grains control measure last week was "a great mistake," Kennedy said. "What is interesting," he added, is that Republicans now indicate they will support an emergency feed grain bill but voted against it with four or five exceptions last year.

Eisenhower — Asked about Eisenhower's assertion that his administration is spending too much on defense and "floundering" in fiscal and economic currents, Kennedy said he didn't enjoy the spending but felt strength helps maintain peace. With some Republicans protesting not enough is done to stand up to the Communists and others saying expenses are too high, he quipped: "There should be some coordination of policy. Otherwise it may appear that the Grand Old Party may be floundering."

Churchill Suffers

de Paris.

Word of Churchill's fall was telephoned by his secretary, Anthony Montague Browne, to Prime Minister Macmillan in London.

The news also was sent to Lord Moran, Churchill's longtime physician, who was reached while en route from Oxford to London.

Asked if he would fly to Monte Carlo, Lord Moran said: 'If he needs me, of course I will."

For the last few years, Britain's great wartime leader has appeared to have had more and more difficulty in getting about. Yet he has insisted on seeing friends—visiting them at their homes—and frequently going to the House of Commons.

Woman's Case Off

Trial of a 29-year-old Poughkeepsie woman on a second degree murder charge has been adjourned by Dutchess County Judge John R. Schwartz until Tuesday, July 3. Mrs. Lucille Nelson Cherry, 124 Main Street, Poughkeepsie, is accused of slaying Nathaniel Cherry, 35, with a butcher knife in their apartment after a quarrel last month.

According to authorities, $20,000 of the money was her own and $20,000 was borrowed from a friend whom she later repaid. The $60,000 in bonds was lent by another friend.

When the $100,000 bond was posted last August, the government expressed fear that Soblen might flee to Cuba.

Soblen, 62, a psychiatrist, has been too ill to sit down for any length of time. During his four-week trial last year, Soblen reclined or stood in the courtroom most of the time, sucking on ice cubes and taking pills.

Ring Involved Brother

The car Soblen had been driving was found Wednesday, parked on West 91th st. A woman friend who lives nearby could not be located.

Soblen was convicted of being a member of a spy ring headed by his brother, Jack Soble, 57, imprisoned for a seven-year term in 1957 for espionage. Soble was a star government witness against his brother. The brothers spell their names differently.

Soblen and his brother came to the U.S. in 1941 and were naturalized in 1947.

City Officials Called

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y. (AP)—Plattsburgh city officials have been ordered to appear in State Supreme Court here Friday to show why the city should not be enjoined from imposing a sales tax.

The order was issued on a petition by the Plattsburgh Citizens Tax Committee, an organization composed primarily of businessmen opposed to the tax. The tax is scheduled to go into effect Sunday.

21 Charges Made For Speeding in 24-Hour Period

Police Chief Robert F. Murphy, after 21 drivers were summoned within 24 hours, today issued notice that a crackdown on speeders will continue both with and without the department's timing device, because of complaints against speeding from all sections of the city.

Most of those who were caught speeding through use of the timing device on Wilbur Avenue were fined $15 each by City Judge Joseph D. Saccoman today. Other summonses were issued today.

Complaints of speeding on Wilbur Avenue, Chief Murphy said, were heaviest after completion of the new pavement there. It is the main objective of the police department, he said, to stop speeding in the city, and not just to determine how many speeders can be caught.

To Be Moved Around

The timer, he said, will be used in all areas of the city, "any place at any time. We do not intend to ease up in the summer." All department personnel, whether in patrol cars or working with the timer, has been orderd to stop speeders."

"The summer,' he said, "is the time when children are out of school and are playing in all areas of the city. They are endangered by fast driving, because no one can tell when a child might dart out in front of a car."

Paid $15 Fines

Those fined $15 each today were: Charles Guida, Rifton; Rita Gromoll, Eddyville; Wallace W. Fulford, High Falls; Dorothy Sperle, Ulster Park; James Polito, 41 Lounsbery Place; Stephen Harold Abelove, 4 Washington Avenue; Carol Jean Alpaugh, Bloomington; Robert F. Gollnick, Colonial Gardens; Dorothy Sumber, Holiday Lane; Ann Rylance, 44 West Chestnut Street; Oscar Ahrens, 43 Ravine Street; Bufford Scarborough, RD 2, Vincent Road, Poughkeepsie, and Edward Gray, Stone Ridge.

Others are due for later city court appearance, including some who were booked Tuesday and several who received summonses today.

Extend Hearing

that their teen-agers drive to New York to drink and become involved in traffic accidents, many of them fatal.

Among the witnesses urging that the New York minimum age remain at 18 was Dr. Margaret Mead, adjunct professor of anthropology at Columbia University and associate curator of ethnology of the American Museum of Natural History.

She said:

Felt Detrimental

"If the 18-to-21 age group are old enough to marry and have jobs, they are old enough to have the other privileges of adults. It would be detrimental to the people of New York and the rest of the country to change the law."

If the New York age were raised, she said, "we could expect a tremendous increase in corruption and deterioration of law-enforcement agencies."

State Assemblyman Lucio Russo, Staten Island Republican, who followed Dr. Mead to the witness stand, called her contentions "fallacious."

Russo said: "As to the statement that the law is unenforceable. . .if this be true, and we follow it to its logical conclusion, we should abolish the penal law."

He said he believes that raising the age from 18 to 21 would be justified, "even if it saves one life." For the last eight years, Russo has introduced a bill in the Assembly each year to raise the age.

34 Fire Blasts

Hudson's fire signal caused some concern in that Columbia County city Wednesday, when it sounded a series of 34 blasts, as the result of a failure of the automatic transmitter at city hall. The alarm was intended to be a 3-3-3 call to alert the Edmonds Hose Co. to emergency standby assignment for the Town of Greenbush, where Greenport Fire Co., members extinguished a minor fire at the Lone Star Cement Co., caused by a conveyor belt.

RailroadStockNotSuited For Retirement Portfolio

Q) "I am 60 years of age, working steady, but have no pension except Social Security. I am thinking of buying Southern Pacific and California Packing. Is this advisable or would you pick something else?" F. O.

A) You sound like a man who has several years of useful work ahead of him before retirement. I would say that what you need are stocks that appear to have a good chance to appreciate in price through growth over the next decade, so that your retirement will be cushioned.

California Packing would qualify for this purpose, but I don't believe that Southern Pacific or any other railroad stock would. Because of excessive regulation, multiple taxation and keen competition from other forms of transport, I can see little prospect for growth for Southern Pacific. I believe the road is well managed and the income is secure, but I would prefer to see you in a situation with stronger, appreciation possibilities.

I mentioned Magnavox here recently and I belive this stock would fill the bill for you.

Q) "I bought Fruehauf Trailer at 37, and it is now selling at 22. Shall I sell and buy something else? I am a single, middle-aged woman with nobody who can help me." B. S.

A) Fruehauf is a stock which is very sensitive to changes in business conditions. It is not the type of issue that a person like yourself should hold and I see no likelihood of big recovery.

Your situation is rather a lonely one and I don't believe you should be subjected to continual worry about your investment. I would sell and buy California Electric, a good public utility at around the same price level.

Freeman Sees

Godfrey did not spell out any basis for his charge.

Snide Tactic: Mundt

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., senior Republican member of the Senate Investigations subcommittee, charged Godfrey with using a "snide" tactic to inject partisan politics into the Estes hearings. He called the testimony a "political stump speech."

Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., admonished the witness, saying "You possibly went a little afield" but that "most of your statement was quite proper." Peace then was restored.

But Mundt insisted on an advance look at Freeman's prepared testimony before the secretary gets on the witness stand. Mundt told a reporter he wanted enough time to "prepare to refute anything in his testimony that needs refuting."

The subcommittee's rules require that prepared testimony be submitted 24 hours in advance so the senators may decide whether it would be relevant.

Caught by Surprise

But Godfrey's blast caught the subcommittee by surprise for it had not been included in his prepared statement. Instead, he asked for and got permission to read the extra portion without indicating what he was about to say.

Mundt said that from now on the 24-hour rule should be enforced to prevent the hearings from degenerating "from a needed investigation into a political spectacle."

This is the second day of the subcommittee's hearings on Estes' wheeling and dealing under government farm programs, particularly his successful scheme for acquiring valuable extra cotton acreage allotments. The subcommittee seeks to learn whether the promoter received improper help from government officials in building his farm-business empire.

Sessions Are Held

Today's program opened with a flag ceremony at 7:45 a. m. followed by political instructions by S. James Matthews, Kingston attorney and political instructor at the college. Sessions of the Assembly and Senate followed at 10:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m.

Balloting for state officers was scheduled to begin at 2:30 p. m. Voting machines loaned by the Town of New Paltz will be used.

A flag lowering ceremony at 6:30 p. m. will precede a skit night—A Fun Loving Lampoon, in charge of counselors.

A flag ceremony at 7:45 a. m. Friday will be followed by a morning session and at 9:15 a. m. balloting for representatives to Girls' Nation, Washington, D. C. will take place.

At 9:30 a. m. tomorrow, Mrs. Boland, department president, will deliver an address on "The Story of the American Legion Auxiliary." Assemblyman Aileen B. Ryan will deliver an address on "Women in Politics."

Certificates will be presented at the 1:15 p. m. session, and at 3:45 p. m. a rehearsal is slated for the inauguration ceremony in the lounge at the College Union building.

The formal inauguration ceremony is scheduled at 8 p. m. tomorrow with Mrs. Miscall in charge. State Senator D. Clinton Dominick III will administer the oath of office to the state officers, and Girls State pins will be presented.

The new state officers will go to the State Capitol where they will meet and confer with state officers they represent in Girls State.

The program concludes Friday night, and at 6 a. m. Saturday the delegates will prepare to leave for their home communities, according to Mrs. Delia T. Shaw, publicity chairman for the American Legion Auxiliary, sponsors of Girls State.

At Wednesday afternoon's session, Alton G. Marshall, deputy director of the State Division of the Budget, addressed the girls explaining how the budget is prepared and the amounts estimated for various state departments.

A film "Holiday for Quartette" prepared by the State Department of Defense Advisory Committee on Women in the Services, was shown.

A junior at Saugerties High School, he serves as manager of the football team and business manager of the Sawyer yearbook. He was sponsored by Lamouree-Hackett Post 72 of Saugerties.

Attending Boys State sessions yesterday were P. J. Beichert of Town of Esopus Post, Port Ewen, who has served as county Boys State chairman for the past 17 years; Saugerties Supervisor Peter M. Williams, Saugerties Legion Post Boys State chairman, and Joseph Sills, chairman for Kingston Post 150.

Thomas E. Bohan of Kingston Post 150 is also at Boys State, where he is serving as counselor, a post he has held for many years.

Beichert attended the Boys State board of directors annual meeting at Hamilton.

Commends Solomon

Other high school juniors representing American Legion Posts in Ulster County include:

John Irwin of Shokan, Olive Memorial 1627, Ashokan; George Horner of Woodstock, Phoenicia 950, Phoenicia; Robert S. Whiston of Kingston, Kingston 150; Robert Mandia of Clintondale, Lloyd 193, Highland; Dominick Mercurio of Ulster Park, Town of Esopus 1298, and Carmine T. Messina of Marlboro, Viebey-Sutton 124.

According to the Associated Press, Bentley, newly elected governor, will address the opening session of the high school boy legislature today. Inauguration of elected officials was held at the college last night.

Only two Federalist nominees won election to state office. Richard M. Jaeger, 16, of Brooklyn, was named attorney general over Donald A. Messier, 16, of West Hampton Beach, and Warren J. Kessler, 17, of Rochester was elected a judge of the State Court of Appeals.

Besides Bentley, Nationalist Party winners included:

Lieutenant governor — Mark A. Mikolas, 16, of Binghamton, who defeated Larry R. Davis, 17, of Earlville.

Comptroller — William R. Stephenson, 16, of Bemus Point, Chautauqua County, who beat Arthur F. Jones, 16, of Frankfort.

Judges, state court of appeals—Arthur P. Frierman, 17, of Smithtown; William G. McCabe, 17, of Haverstraw; Kevin P. Kane, 16, of Rockville, Allegany County, and Richard Kulle Jr., 17, of Skaneateles Falls.

A total of 1,025 delegates are attending boys' state, which ends Saturday.

The new alignment of sections of Washington Avenue and Route 28 along with the new creek bridge, the plans reveal, is to be generally west of the present alignment.

The state's call for bids, an engineer said, is now dependent upon action on the plans in Albany.

Several city administrations in the past 20 years have sought elimination of the city's worst traffic bottleneck on a main artery. It has been proposed that the project conform with uptown urban renewal plans.

Hercules Dividend

WILMINGTON, Del. — The board of directors of Hercules Powder Company has announced payment of a regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent equal to $1.25 a share, on its preferred stock, payable August 15, 1962, to stockholders of record August 1, 1962.

Cancer Crusade Exceeds Mark, Volunteers Thanked

"I can only say that I would have no report to give if it were not for our volunteers who give so willingly of their time and efforts throughout the year for the benefit of their fellow-man."

Thus did Mrs. Arthur Freeman, Port Ewen, volunteer county director of the American Cancer Society, express thanks to the many volunteers in Ulster County who had participated in the American Cancer Society program. The thanks was expressed at the annual meeting of the Ulster County Unit, American Cancer Society, held recently at the Governor Clinton Hotel in the form of a dutch-treat luncheon.

It was reported at the meeting by Mrs. John Salapatis and Frank Hommel, co-chairmen of the 1962 Ulster County Cancer Crusade, that the campaign was a tremendous success. A total of $32,000, far in excess of the quota, has been collected to-date according to their report.

Attorney Richard W. Griggs, unit president, expressed deep appreciation on behalf of the society and local board members to Mrs. Salapatis and Hommel.

James J. Rua, campaign treasurer, then noted that only $87 was used as expenses during the campaign as he gave a complete report of the monies raised and disbursed.

Mrs. Freeman also presented a review of the activities of the unit for the past nine months.

Dr. Gerald P. Gorman, chairman of the education committee, reported on the success of the pilot program introduced at Kingston High School in the spring on the subject of smoking and its relation to lung cancer. Dr. Gorman's plan including a series of 40-minute lectures by himself.

The use of pathology slides and the showing of the film "To Smoke or Not to Smoke" were included during the lectures. Approximately 1500 students participated through the cooperation of Dr. Earl Soper, superintendent of Kingston Consolidated Schools, M. Clifford Miller, Kingston High School principal, and G. Warren Kias, of the Physical Education Department. Dr. Gorman said that plans are being made to promote a similar program in other schools throughout the county.

The nominating committee presented a slate of new members for election to the unit's board of directors. Those unanimously elected to serve a three-year term were:

Warren Knaust, Mrs. Robert Carnright, John Carnright, and William Wilkin of Saugerties.

Irving Levine, Ellenville; Mrs. Harold Elliott, Woodstock; Mrs. Marian Umhey, Mt. Tremper; Mrs. George Bushnell and Morton E. Gazlay, Stone Ridge; Robert Corcoran, Port Ewen; Mrs. John Beisel, Connelly; Mrs. Carl Dedy, Lomontville; Mrs. Lorenzo Diorio and Mrs. Pierre Renaud, Marlboro; Mrs. Daniel Fochi, West Hurley; Mrs. Jesse McHugh, Wallkill; Mrs. Peter Roumelis, Highland; George Svirsky, Ulster Park; and Mrs. Milton C. Van Duser, Plattekill.

Where They Are

Eight of the districts that have said they would not comply with the Supreme Court decision are on Long Island. Three others are in western New York and one is in Chenango Forks, near Binghamton.

Spokesmen for the defiant districts give various explanations for their actions, but generally they contend that some acknowledgement of God is necessary. Others have said the decision does not apply to them because they use the Lord's prayer, not the Regents' prayer. The Education Department, however, always has considered use of the Lord's prayer illegally sectarian for schools.

The indictments stemmed from an investigation of burglaries reportedly committed in the last several years in Dutchess, Columbia and Putnam counties by Raymond H. Stanton, 48, of 34 Jefferson Street, who was arrested with his son Raymond G. Stanton, on third degree burglary charges.

Dutchess County Sheriff Lawrence M. Quinlan said previously, the elder Stanton admitted more than 150 burglaries that netted loot worth more than 500,000.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP) —The stock market mounted its first clear-cut rally in almost two weeks today, with trading active early this afternoon.

Showing a gain which approached in size that of June 15, The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 3.10 at 204.20 with industrials up 4.70, rails up .90, and utilities up 1.80.

Key stocks rose along a broad front, posting gains of fractions to a point or two. As usual, some of the more volatile issues moved more widely.

A technical recovery seemed overdue, because no real daily gain by the over-all list had been made in the past eight sessions.

Large blocks changed hands at the start and the ticker tape ran late.

Ford and Chrysler advanced more than a point each while the other auto stocks gained fractions.

Jones & Laughlin added more than a point. Bethlehem and Republic Steel were about a point higher. U.S. Steel gained a fraction.

Du Pont and Eastman Kodak were each up about 2 while American Cyanamid added a point.

AT&T and International Telephone were up well over 2.

Merck rose more than 2, Pfizer a point as drugs joined the rise. Tobaccos gained fractions. Airlines showed little change.

Gains by rails were mostly fractiona, Southern Railway adding about a point and Kansas City Southern around 2.

IBM rose about 10 points, Xerox 4, Korvette and Sears, Roebuck about 2 each and Polaroid a point or so.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 8.66 at 545.64. At 11 a.m. (EDT) it stood at 547.69.

have exhausted the powers" it provides.

Congress — Don't adjourn, he suggested, without adopting a good deal more of the administration's legislative program. He enumerated trade, tax, medical care, education and farm proposals among those difficult to get through Congress, where he acknowledged some Democrats have been voting with Republicans for years and have to do better. He called the November congressional elections important, with a workable majority hanging in the balance.

Farm Bill—The unexpected defeat of his wheat and feed grains control measure last week was "a great mistake," Kennedy said. "What is interesting," he added, is that Republicans now indicate they will support an emergency feed grain bill but voted against it with four or five exceptions last year.

Eisenhower — Asked about Eisenhower's assertion that his administration is spending too too much on defense and "floundering" in fiscal and economic currents, Kennedy said he didn't enjoy the spending but felt strength helps maintain peace. With some Republicans protesting not enough is done to stand up to the Communists and others saying expenses are too high, he quipped: "There should be some coordination of policy. Otherwise it may appear that the Grand Old Party may be floundering."

Word of Churchill's fall was telephoned by his secretary, Anthony Montague Browne, to Prime Minister Macmillan in London.

The news also was sent to Lord Moran, Churchill's longtime physician, who was reached while en route from Oxford to London.

Asked if he would fly to Monte Carlo, Lord Moran said: 'If he needs me, of course I will."

For the last few years, Britain's great wartime leader has appeared to have had more and more difficulty in getting about. Yet he has insisted on seeing friends—visiting them at their homes—and frequently going to the House of Commons.

According to authorities, $20,000 of the money was her own and $20,000 was borrowed from a friend whom she later repaid. The $60,000 in bonds was lent by another friend.

When the $100,000 bond was posted last August, the government expressed fear that Soblen might flee to Cuba.

Soblen, 62, a psychiatrist, has been too ill to sit down for any length of time. During his four-week trial last year, Soblen reclined or stood in the courtroom most of the time, sucking on ice cubes and taking pills.

Soblen was convicted of being a member of a spy ring headed by his brother, Jack Soble, 57, imprisoned for a seven-year term in 1957 for espionage. Soble was a star government witness against his brother. The brothers spell their names differently.

Soblen and his brother came to the U.S. in 1941 and were naturalized in 1947.

City Officials Called

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y. (AP)—Plattsbugh city officials have been ordered to appear in State Supreme Court here Friday to show why the city should not be enjoined from imposing a sales tax.

The order was issued on a petition by the Plattsburgh Citizens Tax Committee, an organization composed primarily of businessmen opposed to the tax. The tax is scheduled to go into effect Sunday.

21 Charges Made For Speeding in 24-Hour Period

Police Chief Robert F. Murphy, after 21 drivers were summoned within 24 hours, today issued notice that a crackdown on speeders will continue both with and without the department's timing device, because of complaints against speeding from all sections of the city.

Most of those who were caught speeding through use of the timing device on Wilbur Avenue were fined $15 each by City Judge Joseph D. Saccoman today. Other summonses were issued today.

Complaints of speeding on Wilbur Avenue, Chief Murphy said, were heaviest after completion of the new pavement there. It is the main objective of the police department, he said, to stop speeding in the city, and not just to determine how many speeders can be caught.

To Be Moved Around

The timer, he said, will be used in all areas of the city, "any place at any time. We do not intend to ease up in the summer." All department personnel, whether in patrol cars or working with the timer, has been orderd to stop speeders."

"The summer,' he said, "is the time when children are out of school and are playing in all areas of the city. They are endangered by fast driving, because no one can tell when a child might dart out in front of a car."

Paid $15 Fines

Those fined $15 each today were: Charles Guida, Rifton; Rita Gromoll, Eddyville; Wallace W. Fulford, High Falls; Dorothy Sperle, Ulster Park; James Polito, 41 Lounsbery Place; Stephen Harold Abelove, 4 Washington Avenue; Carol Jean Alpaugh, Bloomington; Robert F. that their teen-agers drive to New York to drink and become involved in traffic accidents, many of them fatal.

Among the witnesses urging that the New York minimum age remain at 18 was Dr. Margaret Mead, adjunct professor of anthropology at Columbia University and associate curator of ethnology of the American Museum of Natural History.

She said:

Felt Detrimental

"If the 18-to-21 age group are old enough to marry and have jobs, they are old enough to have the other privileges of adults. It would be detrimental to the people of New York and the rest of the country to change the law."

If the New York age were raised, she said, "we could expect a tremendous increase in corruption and deterioration of law-enforcement agencies."

State Assemblyman Lucio Russo, Staten Island Republican, who followed Dr. Mead to the witness stand, called her contentions "fallacious."

Russo said: "As to the statement that the law is unenforceable. . .if this be true, and we follow it to its logical conclusion, we should abolish the penal law."

He said he believes that raising the age from 18 to 21 would be justified, "even if it saves one life." For the last eight years, Russo has introduced a bill in the Assembly each year to raise the age.

34 Fire Blasts

Hudson's fire signal caused some concern in that Columbia County city Wednesday, when it sounded a series of 34 blasts, as the result of a failure of the automatic transmitter at city hall. The alarm was intended to be a 3-3-3 call to alert the Edmonds Hose Co. to emergency standby assignment for the Town of Greenbush, where Greenport Fire Co., members extinguisned a minor fire at the Lone Star Cement Co., caused by a conveyor belt.

Q) "I am 60 years of age, working steady, but have no pension except Social Security. I am thinking of buying Southern Pacific and California Packing. Is this advisable or would you pick something else?" F. O.

A) You sound like a man who has several years of useful work ahead of him before retirement. I would say that what you need are stocks that appear to have a good chance to appreciate in price through growth over the next decade, so that your retirement will be cushioned.

California Packing would qualify for this purpose, but I don't believe that Southern Pacific or any other railroad stock would. Because of excessive regulation, multiple taxation and keen competition from other forms of transport, I can see little prospect for growth for Southern Pacific. I believe the road is well managed and the income is secure, but I would prefer to see you in a situation with stronger, appreciation possibilities.

I mentioned Magnavox here recently and I belive this stock would fill the bill for you.

Q) "I bought Fruehauf Trailer at 37, and it is now selling at 22. Shall I sell and buy something else? I am a single, middle-aged woman with nobody who can help me." B. S.

A) Fruehauf is a stock which is very sensitive to changes in business conditions. It is not the type of issue that a person like yourself should hold and I see no likelihood of big recovery.

Your situation is rather a lonely one and I don't believe you should be subjected to continual worry about your investment. I would sell and buy California Electric, a good public utility at around the same price level.

Freeman Sees

Godfrey did not spell out any basis for his charge.

Snide Tactic: Mundt

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., senior Republican member of the Senate Investigations subcommittee, charged Godfrey with using a "snide" tactic to inject partisan politics into the Estes hearings. He called the testimony a "political stump speech."

Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., admonished the witness, saying "You possibly went a little afield" but that "most of your statement was quite proper." Peace then was restored.

But Mundt insisted on an advance look at Freeman's prepared testimony before the secretary gets on the witness stand. Mundt told a reporter he wanted enough time to "prepare to refute anything in his testimony that needs refuting."

The subcommittee's rules require that prepared testimony be submitted 24 hours in advance so the senators may decide whether it would be relevant.

Caught by Surprise

But Godfrey's blast caught the subcommittee by surprise for it had not been included in his prepared statement. Instead, he asked for and got permission to read the extra portion without indicating what he was about to say.

Mundt said that from now on the 24-hour rule should be enforced to prevent the hearings from degenerating "from a needed investigation into a political spectacle."

This is the second day of the subcommittee's hearings on Estes' wheeling and dealing under government farm programs, particularly his successful scheme for acquiring valuable extra cotton acreage allotments. The subcommittee seeks to learn whether the promoter received improper help from government officials in building his farm-business empire.

Girls State . . .

May pole, as a group of girls danced around them and sang appropriate songs.

Sessions Are Held

Today's program opened with a flag ceremony at 7:45 a. m. followed by political instructions by S. James Matthews, Kingston attorney and political instructor at the college. Sessions of the Assembly and Senate followed at 10:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m.

Balloting for state officers was scheduled to begin at 2:30 p. m. Voting machines loaned by the Town of New Paltz will be used.

A flag lowering ceremony at 6:30 p. m. will precede a skit night—A Fun Loving Lampoon, in charge of counselors.

A flag ceremony at 7:45 a. m. Friday will be followed by a morning session and at 9:15 a. m. balloting for representatives to Girls' Nation, Washington, D. C. will take place.

At 9:30 a. m. tomorrow, Mrs. Boland, department president, will deliver an address on "The Story of the American Legion Auxiliary." Assemblyman Aileen B. Ryan will deliver an address on "Women in Politics."

Certificates will be presented at the 1:15 p. m. session, and at 3:45 p. m. a rehearsal is slated for the inauguration ceremony in the lounge at the College Union building.

The formal inauguration ceremony is scheduled at 8 p. m. tomorrow with Mrs. Miscall in charge. State Senator D. Clinton Dominick III will administer the oath of office to the state officers, and Girls State pins will be presented.

The new state officers will go to the State Capitol where they will meet and confer with state officers they represent in Girls State.

The program concludes Friday night, and at 6 a. m. Saturday the delegates will prepare to leave for their home communities, according to Mrs. Delia T. Shaw, publicity chairman for the American Legion Auxiliary, sponsors of Girls State.

At Wednesday afternoon's session, Alton G. Marshall, deputy director of the State Division of the Budget, addressed the girls explaining how the budget is prepared and the amounts estimated for various state departments.

A film "Holiday for Quartette" prepared by the State Department of Defense Advisory Committee on Women in the Services, was shown.

Attending Boys State sessions yesterday were P. J. Beichert of Town of Esopus Post, Port Ewen, who has served as county Boys State chairman for the past 17 years; Saugerties Supervisor Peter M. Williams, Saugerties Legion Post Boys State chairman, and Joseph Sills, chairman for Kingston Post 150.

Thomas E. Bohan of Kingston Post 150 is also at Boys State, where he is serving as counselor, a post he has held for many years.

Beichert attended the Boys State board of directors annual meeting at Hamilton.

Commends Solomon

The Saugerties youth started his campaign for the governorship at the Boys' State testimonial dinner held June 21 at the post home of Sullivan-Shafer Post 176, New Paltz, when he named young Solomon as his campaign manager.

According to the Associated Press, Bentley, newly elected governor, will address the opening session of the high school boy legislature today. Inauguration of elected officials was held at the college last night.

Only two Federalist nominees won election to state office. Richard M. Jaeger, 16, of Brooklyn, was named attorney general over Donald A. Messier, 16, of West Hampton Beach, and Warren J. Kessler, 17, of Rochester was elected a judge of the State Court of Appeals.

Besides Bentley, Nationalist Party winners included:

Lieutenant governor — Mark A. Mikolas, 16, of Binghamton, who defeated Larry R. Davis, 17, of Earlville.

Comptroller — William R. Stephenson, 16, of Bemus Point, Chautauqua County, who beat Arthur F. Jones, 16, of Frankfort.

Judges, state court of appeals—Arthur P. Frierman, 17, of Smithtown; William G. McCabe, 17, of Haverstraw; Kevin P. Kane, 16, of Rockville, Allegany County, and Richard Kulle Jr., 17, of Skaneateles Falls.

A total of 1,025 delegates are attending boys' state, which ends Saturday.

JFK Faces Giant Task in Campaign To Get Majority

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy may have to hit the campaign trail hard if he expects to win in November the working majority he concedes he now lacks in Congress.

In words somewhat more severe than he has employed before, Kennedy told his news conference Wednesday that a share of the blame for the roadblocks his program has encountered in the House rests on some Democrats who have been voting with Republicans for 25 years.

Kennedy's specific mention of 1938 as the inaugural date for the enduring Southern Democrat-Republican coalition pointed the finger at a select group among 19 House members who have been in Congress that long or longer.

Excluding the Republicans, Kennedy could count only a few —such as Reps. Howard W. Smith, D-Va., William M Colmer, D-Miss., and Frank W. Boykin, D-Ala.—among the implacable opposition.

But the historical-minded President obviously was talking about the far wider range of conservatives who have been elected in subsequent years—mostly from the South—and who now deny him a working majority on his controversial bills.

Kennedy appeared to believe that to overcome this coalition the Democrats would have to win a bare minimum of six additional administration supporters in a House that now is divided 263-174 in favor of Democrats over Republicans.

This will take some doing in an off-year election, since the party in control of the White House has lost ground in every such contest since 1934.

With Republicans showing signs of resurgence, Kennedy will have to prove on the campaign trail that he can rub some of his reputed high popularity off on some acceptable Democratic candidates.

Can Rescue Some From Coma

Blood-Cleansing Hailed As Boon to Faulty Liver

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — An artificial liver can rescue some patients from coma due to a faulty liver, three physicians reported today.

The substitute liver is a tube filled with special resins—an ion exchange column—which removes excess ammonia from the blood passing through it.

Normally, the liver gets rid of the ammonia, which is formed when proteins are broken down in the body. The excess ammonia is one cause of coma, and death.

The new device was described to the American Medical Association's annual convention by Drs. Nathaniel P. H. Ching, Thomas F. Nealon Jr. and John H. Gibbon Jr., of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

Blood is taken from an arm, pumped through the column, and returned to the vein in the arm. The device has been found capable of removing 80 per cent of the ammonia in the blood, the team said.

It has brought five out of 10 patients treated thus far out of their comas, they said. In most of the failures, the patients were bleeding internally before the blood-cleansing aid was tried.

The method cannot help all patients with chronic liver trouble, the physicians stressed. It appears best for those with some liver insufficiency who temporarily get into trouble because of insults such as infection, excess protein in the diet, bleeding in the gastro-intestinal tract, or surgery. Any bleeding has to be controlled first.

The Philadelphia team began experimenting with dogs in 1959. Now a pharmaceutical firm is developing disposable, assembled units which need only the addition of a pump.

The physicians said the technique looks promising and safe, and they urged other physicians to try it on more patients to establish its full value.

Matter of Fact

Early Egyptians worshiped cats. Some historians, however, interpret this worship as purely practical. Cats were tamed by the Egyptians in about 3000 B.C. to protect stores of grain. Probably in order to better protect the lives of these animals some smart farmer suggested that the cat represented one of the gods.

Only Matter of Time: Officials

Convicts Remain On Prison Tower

PITTSBURGH (AP) —Hit by hunger and thirst, 11 convicts are sprawled on a water tower at Western State Penitentiary, apparently determined to show just how long they can hold out in their protest demonstration.

Two gave in Wednesday. One of them had to be hospitalized because of his weak condition.

Prison officials are waiting for the rest to come down. It's just a matter of time, they say.

Fourth Day Under Sun

The leader of the defiant convicts is parole violator Robert Payne, 29, who is spending his fourth day under a blazing sun.

Twelve others joined Payne on the tower Tuesday evening in demonstrating against alleged prison brutality.

The two who gave up the ordeal climbed down from the 100-foot high catwalk within a two-hour period around dinner time. It was felt the sight of convicts filing into the mess hall was a factor.

First came James J. Pletcher, 25, a parole violator serving an original burglary sentence of 15 to 30 years.

Pletcher climbed down to a steel beam about 30 feet from the ground. Guards noticed he appeared slumped over with fatigue. They got a ladder and helped him down the rest of the way. He was taken to the prison hospital and reported in fair condition.

Then came Alfred Nardi Jr., 30, a convicted killer. He climbed down unassisted.

Denies Cruelty

One convict with a booming voice shouted to newsmen that the tower prisoners were protesting the use of gas on prisoners in the "hole"—solitary confinement.

Warden James Maroney said that prepared ammonia gas is used on prisoners who act up, but denied that any are treated cruelly.

Arthur T. Prasse, commissioner of the State Bureau of Corrections, flew in from Harrisburg to get a firsthand look at the situation.

"We'll let them make the first move. We will not contact them or talk to them until they come down. They're just as easy to count up there as they are any place," he said.

Di Prima Seeking School Board Job In Highland Area

A Highland man, department manager at the Montgomery Ward store, Poughkeepsie, made known Wednesday he is a candidate for the Highland Central School District Board of Education. He is Louis J. DiPrima 22 Maple Avenue, Highland.

Frank J. Roberto, Chapel Hill Road, Highland, also has filed petitions seeking election on July 11. Martin Dayton, a board member, is not seeking another term.

DiPrima, 46, a resident of Highland the last 10 years, is the father of three schoolage children. He attended New York City grade schools, high school on Long Island and the Washington Square College of New York University. He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the Pacific theatre of operations with the Army Port and Service Command as a ship's transportation officer and special disbursing agent.

DiPrima states he favors "betterment and advancement of education to prepare our children for a specialists' world; establishment of extra curricula activities to prepare students for college courses in various crafts and utilization of the maximum of school tax money."

Castroism Could Be on Agenda In Mexico Talks

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

MEXICO CITY (AP) — When President Kennedy comes to Mexico Friday it's a good guess he will have some frank talk with Mexico's chief executive about the hemisphere's outlook toward Castro Cuba.

Little of the exchange on communism and Castroism is likely to appear in communiques concerning the U.S. leader's conversations with Mexican President Adolfo Lopez Mateos.

The subject of Castroism is ticklish for Mexican politicians. Mexican political leaders are wedded, apparently, to the idea that any public talk picturing Fidel Castro as a danger to Latin America amounts to intervention by the United States in the affairs of its hemisphere neighbors.

Yet Mexico occupies a key position in Latin America. Its support would be extremely valuable in countering the Communist-Castroite alliance.

The United States would like to see Mexico in the role of a staunch ally against the hemisphere-wide Red assault. But there is little prospect President Kennedy can convince President Lopez Mateos to take any public position even hinting at a common front with Washington against Castroism.

At the same time there is a strong possibility that the U.S. President's visit can be fruitful. For one thing, it may strengthen the position of those elements who consider Castro a menace and who even now are beginning to speak out clearly.

There is Castro and Communist influence in the country in some spheres, notably among university students and faculties and among some of the peons. The agitation has been helped by the pro-Castro attitude of former President Lazaro Cardenas, who is a spokesman for the extreme left.

Gold Most Important

Gold is North Dakota's most important mineral resources. It is found in the Black Hills and after more than 50 years of continuous working, the mines still yield millions of dollars in gold each year.

More than 2,100 languages and dialects are spoken by the peoples of the world.

Minor Trouble Possible

Warm Welcome Due JFK in Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Rising expectancy gripped the Mexican capital today on the eve of President Kennedy's arrival for possibly the warmest welcome Mexico has ever given a visiting chief of state.

Tens of thousands of posters, banners and signs were going up along the parade route from the International Airport to Los Pinos, the Mexican White House. Work had been held up until the last minute because of the torrential rains falling each afternoon. Officials did not want them to be damaged or faded Friday.

300 Bands on Hand

Three hundred bands, including many mariachi and marimba groups, were assigned places at intervals along the route.

An estimated one million persons will line the streets. Schools are closing, federal employes are being let out from work, and all unions are ordering members to turn out in force.

The Weather Bureau said it was almost certain that warm sunshine would greet President and Mrs. Kennedy when their jet touches down after a four-hour flight from Washington.

It is almost equally certain that showers will fall during the afternoon, as this is the rainy season.

Police said they expect no anti-Yankee demonstrations. Steps were being taken to prevent any. Known Communists have been rounded up, students warned, and security measures are tight.

However, the Communists have called for a demonstration sometime Friday. A 24-hour visit Tuesday by Blas Roca, Cuba's top Communist, added to fears at least a minor disturbance may develop.

No Agenda for Talks

President Kennedy and his host, President Adolfo Lopez Mateos, will talk privately on three separate occasions, with a total of about 3½ hours set aside for the conversations.

No agenda has been set for their talks, but Kennedy told his news conference in Washington Wednesday he wants to discuss all Latin-American problems, not just those between the United States and Mexico.

This reinforced speculation that the U.S. President would bring up Fidel Castro's regime and its influence throughout Latin America.

The Kennedy will spend 48 hours in Mexico. Their first day's program will be packed with activities, beginning with airport ceremonies and ending with a Mexican folklore ballet at night.

On Saturday President Kennedy will attend the annual Fourth of July celebration held by the 15,000-member American colony. On Sunday, just before they take off for Washington, President and Mrs. Kennedy will attend Mass at Mexico's leading Roman Catholic shrine, the Basilica of Guadalupe.

Can Rescue Some From Coma

Blood-Cleansing Hailed As Boon to Faulty Liver

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — An artificial liver can rescue some patients from coma due to a faulty liver, three physicians reported today.

The substitute liver is a tube filled with special resins—an ion exchange column—which removes excess ammonia from the blood passing through it.

Normally, the liver gets rid of the ammonia, which is formed when proteins are broken down in the body. The excess ammonia is one cause of coma, and death.

The new device was described to the American Medical Association's annual convention by Drs. Nathaniel P. H. Ching, Thomas F. Nealon Jr. and John H. Gibbon Jr., of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

Blood is taken from an arm, pumped through the column, and returned to the vein in the arm. The device has been found capable of removing 80 per cent of the ammonia in the blood, the team said.

It has brought five out of 10 patients treated thus far out of their comas, they said. In most of the failures, the patients were bleeding internally before the blood-cleansing aid was tried.

The method cannot help all patients with chronic liver trouble, the physicians stressed. It appears best for those with some liver insufficiency who temporarily get into trouble because of insults such as infection, excess protein in the diet, bleeding in the gastro-intestinal tract, or surgery. Any bleeding has to be controlled first.

The Philadelphia team began experimenting with dogs in 1959. Now a pharmaceutical firm is developing disposable, assembled units which need only the addition of a pump.

The physicians said the technique looks promising and safe, and they urged other physicians to try it on more patients to establish its full value.

America's highest golf course is the 9,000-foot-high links at Cloudcroft, N. Mex. In winter it is part of a skiing area.

Matter of Fact

Early Egyptians worshiped cats. Some historians, however, interpret this worship as purely practical. Cats were tamed by the Egyptians in about 3000 B.C. to protect stores of grain. Probably in order to better protect the lives of these animals some smart farmer suggested that the cat represented one of the gods.

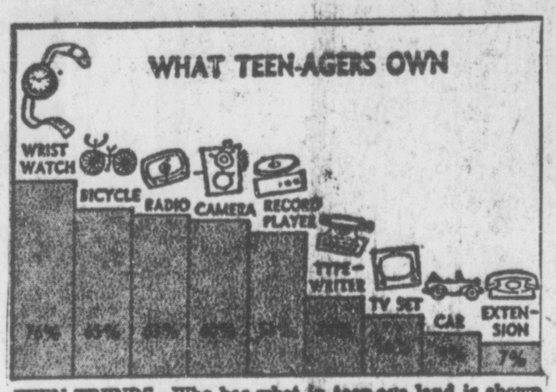
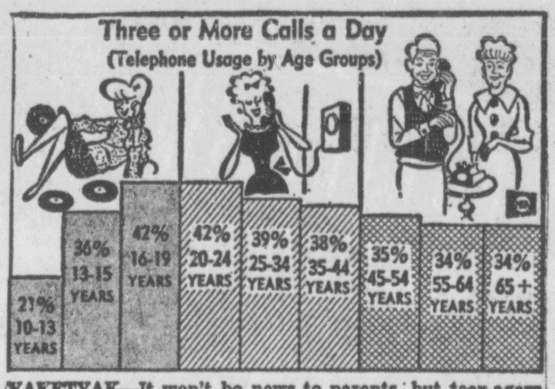
Tabulations on Teen-Agers—



TEEN TRENDS—Who has what in teen-age land is shown in chart above, based on a survey conducted by the Bell System. For instance, three-fourths of those in the survey owned a wrist watch. Booming teen-age market in all kinds of goods is an important factor in the nation's economy.



YAKETYAK—It won't be news to parents, but teen-agers and preteeners account for one-fifth of all home phone calls. This was the result of a survey conducted by the Bell System. Chart above shows the percentage of people in each age group who make three or more calls a day. Usage rises rapidly throughout teen-age years, reaches a peak in early adulthood and then dwindles gradually thereafter.

Only Matter of Time: Officials

Convicts Remain On Prison Tower

PITTSBURGH (AP) —Hit by hunger and thirst, 11 convicts are sprawled on a water tower at Western State Penitentiary, apparently determined to show just how long they can hold out in their protest demonstration.

Two gave in Wednesday. One of them had to be hospitalized because of his weak condition.

Prison officials are waiting for the rest to come down. It's just a matter of time, they say.

Fourth Day Under Sun

The leader of the defiant convicts is parole violator Robert Payne, 29, who is spending his fourth day under a blazing sun.

Twelve others joined Payne on the tower Tuesday evening in demonstrating against alleged prison brutality.

The two who gave up the ordeal climbed down from the 100-foot high catwalk within a two-hour period around dinner time. It was felt the sight of convicts filing into the mess hall was a factor.

First came James J. Pletcher, 25, a parole violator serving an original burglary sentence of 15 to 30 years.

Pletcher climbed down to a steel beam about 30 feet from the ground. Guards noticed he appeared slumped over with fatigue. They got a ladder and helped him down the rest of the way. He was taken to the prison hospital and reported in fair condition.

Then came Alfred Nardi Jr., 30, a convicted killer. He climbed down unassisted.

Denies Cruelty

One convict with a booming voice shouted to newsmen that the tower prisoners were protesting the use of gas on prisoners in the "hole"—solitary confinement.

Warden James Maroney said that prepared ammonia gas is used on prisoners who act up, but denied that any are treated cruelly.

Arthur T. Prasse, commissioner of the State Bureau of Corrections, flew in from Harrisburg to get a firsthand look at the situation.

"We'll let them make the first move. We will not contact them or talk to them until they come down. They're just as easy to count up there as they are any place," he said.

Di Prima Seeking School Board Job In Highland Area

A Highland man, department manager at the Montgomery Ward store, Poughkeepsie, made known Wednesday he is a candidate for the Highland Central School District Board of Education. He is Louis J. DiPrima 22 Maple Avenue, Highland.

Frank J. Roberto, Chapel Hill Road, Highland, also has filed petitions seeking election on July 11. Martin Dayton, a board member, is not seeking another term.

DiPrima, 46, a resident of Highland the last 10 years, is the father of three schoolage children. He attended New York City grade schools, high school on Long Island and the Washington Square College of New York University. He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the Pacific theatre of operations with the Army Port and Service Command as a ship's transportation officer and special disbursing agent.

DiPrima states he favors "betterment and advancement of education to prepare our children for a specialists' world; establishment of extra curricula activities to prepare students for college courses in various crafts and utilization of the maximum of school tax money."

William H. Taft, whose weight varied from 300 to 322 pounds was the heaviest U.S. president.

Minor Trouble Possible

Warm Welcome Due JFK in Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Rising expectancy gripped the Mexican capital today on the eve of President Kennedy's arrival for possibly the warmest welcome Mexico has ever given a visiting chief of state.

Tens of thousands of posters, banners and signs were going up along the parade route from the International Airport to Los Pinos, the Mexican White House. Work had been held up until the last minute because of the torrential rains falling each afternoon. Officials did not want them to be damaged or faded Friday.

300 Bands on Hand

Three hundred bands, including many mariachi and marimba groups, were assigned places at intervals along the route.

An estimated one million persons will line the streets. Schools are closing, federal employes are being let out from work, and all unions are ordering members to turn out in force.

The Weather Bureau said it was almost certain that warm sunshine would greet President and Mrs. Kennedy when their jet touches down after a four-hour flight from Washington.

It is almost equally certain that showers will fall during the afternoon, as this is the rainy season.

Police said they expect no anti-Yankee demonstrations. Steps were being taken to prevent any. Known Communists have been rounded up, students warned, and security measures are tight.

However, the Communists have called for a demonstration sometime Friday. A 24-hour visit Tuesday by Blas Roca, Cuba's top Communist, added to fears at least a minor disturbance may develop.

Castroism Could Be on Agenda In Mexico Talks

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

MEXICO CITY (AP) — When President Kennedy comes to Mexico Friday it's a good guess he will have some frank talk with Mexico's chief executive about the hemisphere's outlook toward Castro Cuba.

Little of the exchange on communism and Castroism is likely to appear in communiques concerning the U.S. leader's conversations with Mexican President Adolfo Lopez Mateos.

The subject of Castroism is ticklish for Mexican politicians. Mexican political leaders are wedded, apparently, to the idea that any public talk picturing Fidel Castro as a danger to Latin America amounts to intervention by the United States in the affairs of its hemisphere neighbors.

Yet Mexico occupies a key position in Latin America. Its support would be extremely valuable in countering the Communist-Castroite alliance.

The United States would like to see Mexico in the role of a staunch ally against the hemisphere-wide Red assault. But there is little prospect President Kennedy can convince President Lopez Mateos to take any public position even hinting at a common front with Washington against Castroism.

At the same time there is a strong possibility that the U.S. President's visit can be fruitful. For one thing, it may strengthen the position of those elements who consider Castro a menace and who even now are beginning to speak out clearly.

There is Castro and Communist influence in the country in some spheres, notably among university students and faculties and among some of the peons. The agitation has been helped by the pro-Castro attitude of former President Lazaro Cardenas, who is a spokesman for the extreme left.

Honor Mrs. FDR At Carnegie Hall

NEW YORK (AP) — More than 2,500 persons gathered in Carnegie Hall Wednesday night to pay tribute to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The affair was sponsored by the New York Committee for Democratic Voters "in gratitude to Mrs. Roosevelt for her devotion and help in rebuilding the Democratic Party."

Mrs. Roosevelt has been a leader in the Democratic reform movement.

Among those present were two announced candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor: Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, Schenectady, and Howard J. Samuels, Canandaigua businessman.

Farm Story about Same

WASHINGTON (AP) — For U.S. farmers, the first five months this year told largely the same story as last year — about the same cash receipts, average prices and volume of farm marketings.

The department of agriculture reports there were little changes between the two five-month periods, but that cash receipts did climb slightly in May compared with May last year.

Dairy-price declines since March —a result of lower support levels and continued heavy marketings in federal order market areas— point to lower cash receipts in the last three quarters of 1962 than in 1961, the department said.

Safety Council Is Recipient of Own Highest Award

CHICAGO (AP)— The National Safety Council has accepted its own highest award for safety from itself.

The award, a plaque, commemorates 3 million man hours worked without disabling injury or day lost because of disabling injury. The council has 375 employes and accumulated its record in 4 years, 3 months.

William H. Lowe, Inland Steel treasurer and the NSC's board chairman, presented the award Wednesday to the council president, Howard Pyle.

Deaths

MENASHA, Wis. (AP)—Cola G. Parker, 71, former president and board chairman of the Kimberly-Clark Corp., and one-time president of the National Association of Manufacturers, died Wednesday.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Monte Pittman, 44, actor, director and writer, died Tuesday night of cancer.

WEST LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP)—Rita Fitzsimons, 64, mother of actress Maureen O'Hara, died Wednesday of cancer.

Typographical Error

CONCORD, N.C. (AP) — "Two tombstones for sale, in excellent condition, $60 each."

But the classified add, which appeared in the Concord Tribune, was a typographical error.

Mrs. D. J. Faggart said she intended selling two trombones. She said she got a lot of replies anyway and could have sold the tombstones if she had them.

Too Much Uranium

LONDON (AP) — The British government announced Wednesday that it possessed so much enriched uranium for its nuclear weapons program that it has decided to cut back production.

Short on Milk, Meat

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet milk production for the first half of 1962 is falling 20 per cent short of the government's target. Meat production is off even more.

Pravda disclosed this Wednesday in reporting a speech by Presidium member Gennady Voronov to a top-level agricultural conference in the Kremlin.

Hope Spaceship Will Be in Use Late Next Year

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—A scientist says there are plans for a spaceship to explore and survey the entire celestial sphere—hopefully by late next year.

The plans were outlined at a meeting of the aviation and space division of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers by John M. Mocovciak Jr. He is a project engineer for the space science group of preliminary design with the Grumman Aircraft Corp. of New York.

He said plans call for a spaceship to orbit the earth at an altitude of about 500 miles in a project shared by the University of Wisconsin and the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory.

$600,000 Is Left To Institutions By Rocky's Aunt

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Alta Rockefeller Prentice, last surviving child of John D. Rockefeller Sr., left more than $600,000 to hospitals and other institutions in a will filed for probate Wednesday in surrogate's court.

Mrs. Prentice, an aunt of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, died at the age of 91 in Midtown Hospital last Thursday after a long illness.

In a will dated March 27, 1961, she left $300,000 to Lenox Hill Hospital.

Mrs. Prentice left $150,000 each to the American Foundation for Biological Research, Chicago, Ill., and the Rip Van Winkle Foundation, Hudson, N.Y.

'Whizzer' White Not Afraid To Speak Up in Hallowed Hall

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — How is Byron R. (Whizzer) White, our newest and youngest (45) member of the Supreme Court, panning out?

To make a risky judgment on the record thus far, he is going to be no flaming liberal, no social reformer type like, for example, Justice William O. Douglas. Nor a right winger, either.

As befits a former Rhodes scholar, he has been doing his home work and his opinions are meaty, whether or not you agree with them. He is not afraid to speak up in the awesome presence of his elders.

Firm on Addiction

Take Monday, when he wrote a dissent gavely telling a majority of the justices they were wrong.

At issue was a California law aimed at narcotics addiction. This made it a crime to be an addict. It provided that a convicted person must be stowed away in county jail for at least 90 days, whether or not he ever applied the needle to his arm in California or committed any antisocial act there.

The court majority held this was cruel and unusual punishment in violation of the Constitution. Douglas, concurring, wrote a lengthy opinion stressing the idea that an addict is sick. He recalled the old days when the insane were sent to the whipping post, or into dungeons, or even burned at the stake.

Takes Majority to Task

But White took the majority, including Douglas, to task, on the ground that it had broken a "wise rule of not deciding constitutional questions except where necessary." He disputed the contention that California tried to punish the defendant in the case, one Lawrence Robinson, for being sick.

There was no evidence at all, he wrote, "that Robinson had lost the power to control his acts." (California has another law, a civil statute, providing hospitalization for addicts who are so far gone that they have lost self-control.)

White said the defendant was an "incipient addict, a redeemable user (of narcotics), and the state chose to send him to jail for 90 days rather than to attempt to confine him by civil poceedings under another statute which requires a finding that the addict has lost the power of self-control."

Respectfully, White told his elders they should not write into the Constitution their own "abstract notions of how to handle the narcotics problem."

Labor View Important

Besides this dissent, White has written three majority opinions since he went on the court April 16. Perhaps the most important held that a labor union's officers and members cannot be sued for damages for violation of a no-strike agreement—only their unions may be sued.

He said it was long-standing federal policy not to penalize members for a union's transgressions.

"Where the union has inflicted the injury," he said, "it alone must pay."

This could hardly be classed as a conservative stance.

So it is hard, yet, to fit White into any labeled pigeonhole.

When Felix Frankfuter first went on the Supreme Court he was variously described — by his friends as a liberal and by his critics as a radical. Now he is known as one of the court's conservatives.

Which proves, perhaps, that everything is relative. Or maybe it proves that labels do not mean much.

GE Upheld Over Vote Time Case

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — In a decision of statewide application, the State Appellate Division ruled Wednesday that a worker can take time off from the job to vote only when he doesn't have enough time in his free hours to go to the polls.

In a unanimous decision, the division's Fourth Department held that the General Electric Co., does not have to pay an employe at GE's New Hartford plant in Oneida County for an hour she took off to vote last Nov. 7.

State Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz, acting for the employe, Mary Thomas, submitted the case to the Appelate Division on an agreed set of facts on action begun in Oneida County.

The justices said the worker was on a 7:30 am to 4 pm shift at the plant on Election Day. The polls were open from 6am-7pm.

The court said she needed only 1½ hours to reach the polls, which did not close until three hours after the end of her shift. She and other employes had contended that sufficient time to vote, as provided in the state's amended Election Law, meant four consecutive hours — either between the opening of the polls and the start of work shift or between the end of the work shift and the closing of the polls.

In upholding GE, the Appellate Division said the intent of the law was to allow time actually needed to vote rather than an arbitary period of four hours.

While no limit is set on the time that may be taken off, not more than two hours shall be with pay, the five justices ruled.

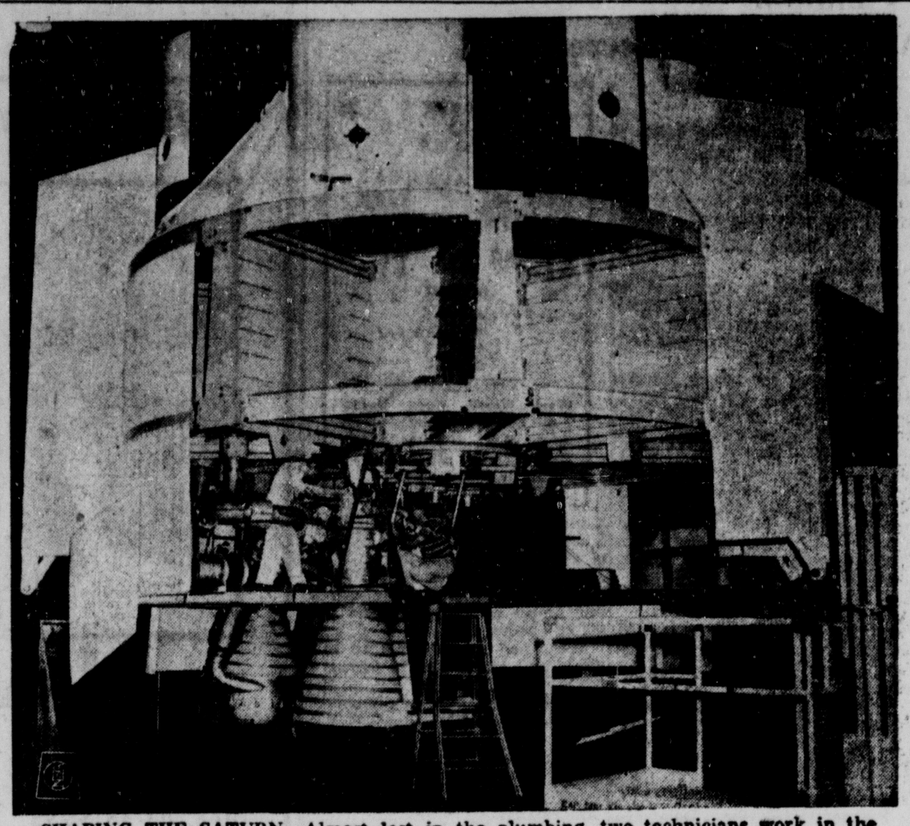
The Appellate Division noted that while the state's original Election Law gave an employe an absolute right to take two hours off while the polls were open, a 1961 version changed it to mean time off only if the worker could not otherwise vote.

Po'keepsie Town, City to Use Same Incinerator Plant

Representatives of the City and Town of Poughkeepsie have reached an agreement on a 20-year contract establishing joint operation of a modernized incinerator. The contract provides for the sale of the city-owned plant and dump site to the joint operation.

It was pointed out that approval of the State Department of Audit and Control will be sought before the plan is presented to the City Common Council and the Town of Poughkeepsie Council for official action.

According to reports the Town and City Councils will survey the contract for their opinions before the plan is submitted to the state for consideration and decision. If the state approves the contract, the City Common Council then is expected to act on the contract and, if it is approved, the Town Council will conduct a referendum on the proposed joint project.



SHAPING THE SATURN—Almost lost in the plumbing, two technicians work in the engine area of a mock-up Saturn rocket at the NASA Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala. The SA-5 (fifth version of the Saturn) will sport several design changes, including larger tanks to carry an additional 100,000 pounds of fuel. Most apparent are the huge fins which have been added to give greater stability and control. The Saturn, world's largest known rocket, has already been successfully tested in an earlier version. The full-scale model aids engineers in the transition from blueprints to actual rocket.

Store Theif Leaves Without Taking Loot

Poughkeepsie detectives are looking for an intruder, who entered a self-service grocery store, packed a carton with merchandise and about $60, and then fled without the loot.

Police Chief John L. Martin said an unidentified neighbor, called headquarters early Tuesday and reported a man was outside Adam's Grocery Store, 123 Winnikee Avenue, Poughkeepsie.

The neighbor shouted to the man and he fled. Police later found the carton containing gum, assorted candies, ink, glue and flashlight batteries, and the cash. Entrance was gained to the store by removing a basement screen.

Dutchess Will Have One of Largest Farms

Dutchess County will have one of the largest dairy farms in the eastern United States, according to plans for expansion of the Carl Hirschman Holstein Dairy Farm, at Smithfield, north of Millbrook.

Plans call for expansion of the farm to about 1,800 acres, with 1,000 dairy cows.

Hirschman came to Dutchess County from Switzerland several years ago. He now has about 400 cows and will increase the herd to 1,000.

Program Under Way To Help Milk Exports

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new program to help exports of U.S. non-fat dry milk is under way.

The Department of Agriculture says the new program permits manufacturers or exporters to export non-fat dry milk from private stocks.

An export payment in the form of negotiable certificates will be made by the department in return for making these exports and registering the foreign sale with the general sales manager of the department's Foreign Agricultural Service.

The department said the certificates may be used in payment for purchase for export of butter, cheese, non-fat dry milk, wheat, feed grains or rice when available, which are held by the commodity credit corp.

The amount of payment for each pound will be announced periodically.

Toy Gunwoman

HUGO, Okla. (AP)—Two men accosted Mrs. Idell Hallman as she drove along a highway. They crowded her car off the road and tried to rob her. She pulled a huge pistol and they fled. The gun was a toy she was taking to a nephew.

GE Upheld Over Vote Time Case

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — In a decision of statewide application, the State Appellate Division ruled Wednesday that a worker can take time off from the job to vote only when he doesn't have enough time in his free hours to go to the polls.

In a unanimous decision, the division's Fourth Department held that the General Electric Co., does not have to pay an employe at GE's New Hartford plant in Oneida County for an hour she took off to vote last Nov. 7.

State Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz, acting for the employe, Mary Thomas, submitted the case to the Appelate Division on an agreed set of facts on action begun in Oneida County.

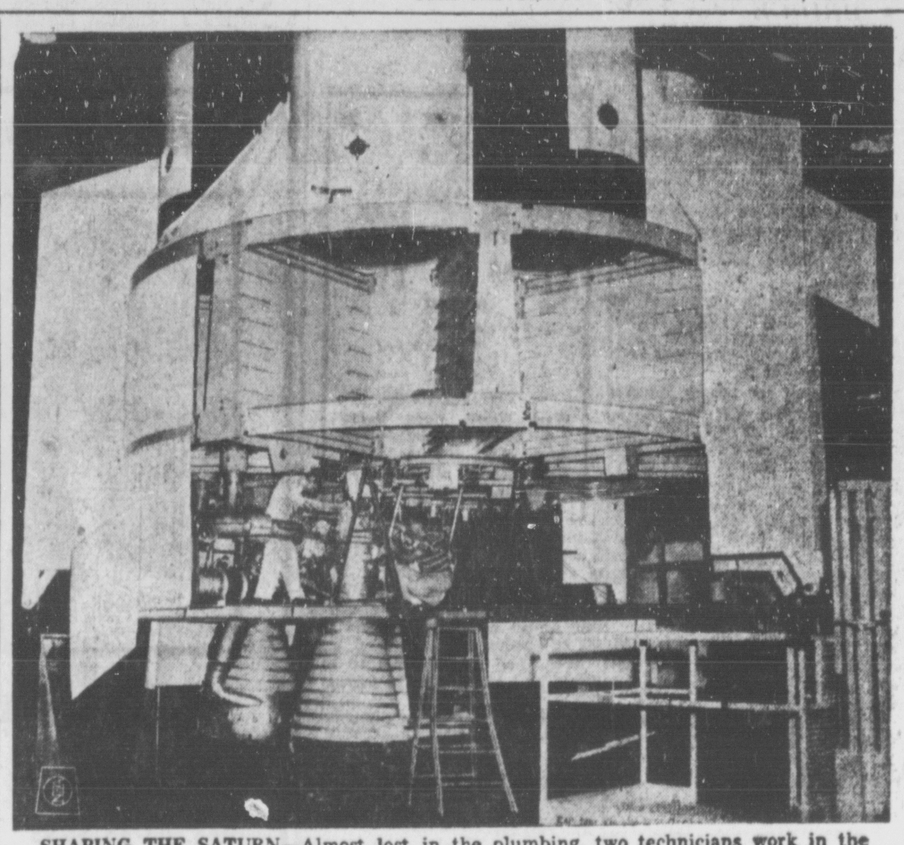
The justices said the worker was on a 7:30 am to 4 pm shift at the plant on Election Day. The polls were open from 6am-7pm.

The court said she needed only 1½ hours to reach the polls, which did not close until three hours after the end of her shift. She and other employes had contended that sufficient time to vote, as provided in the state's amended Election Law, meant four consecutive hours — either between the opening of the polls and the start of work shift or between the end of the work shift and the closing of the polls.

In upholding GE, the Appellate Division said the intent of the law was to allow time actually needed to vote rather than an arbitary period of four hours.

While no limit is set on the time that may be taken off, not more than two hours shall be with pay, the five justices ruled.

The Appellate Division noted that while the state's original Election Law gave an employe an absolute right to take two hours off while the polls were open, a 1961 version changed it to mean time off only if the worker could not otherwise vote.



SHAPING THE SATURN—Almost lost in the plumbing, two technicians work in the engine area of a mock-up Saturn rocket at the NASA Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala. The SA-5 (fifth version of the Saturn) will sport several design changes, including larger tanks to carry an additional 100,000 pounds of fuel. Most apparent are the huge fins which have been added to give greater stability and control. The Saturn, world's largest known rocket, has already been successfully tested in an earlier version. The full-scale model aids engineers in the transition from blueprints to actual rocket.

Po'keepsie Town, City to Use Same Incinerator Plant

Representatives of the City and Town of Poughkeepsie have reached an agreement on a 20-year contract establishing joint operation of a modernized incinerator. The contract provides for the sale of the city-owned plant and dump site to the joint operation.

It was pointed out that approval of the State Department of Audit and Control will be sought before the plan is presented to the City Common Council and the Town of Poughkeepsie Council for official action.

According to reports the Town and City Councils will survey the contract for their opinions before the plan is submitted to the state for consideration and decision. If the state approves the contract, the City Common Council then is expected to act on the contract and, if it is approved, the Town Council will conduct a referendum on the proposed joint project.

Store Theif Leaves Without Taking Loot

Poughkeepsie detectives are looking for an intruder, who entered a self-service grocery store, packed a carton with merchandise and about $60, and then fled without the loot.

Police Chief John L. Martin said an unidentified neighbor, called headquarters early Tuesday and reported a man was outside Adam's Grocery Store, 123 Winnikee Avenue, Poughkeepsie.

The neighbor shouted to the man and he fled. Police later found the carton containing gum, assorted candies, ink, glue and flashlight batteries, and the cash. Entrance was gained to the store by removing a basement screen.

Dutchess Will Have One of Largest Farms

Dutchess County will have one of the largest dairy farms in the eastern United States, according to plans for expansion of the Carl Hirschman Holstein Dairy Farm, at Smithfield, north of Millbrook.

Plans call for expansion of the farm to about 1,800 acres, with 1,000 dairy cows.

Hirschman came to Dutchess County from Switzerland several years ago. He now has about 400 cows and will increase the herd to 1,000.

Program Under Way To Help Milk Exports

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new program to help exports of U.S. non-fat dry milk is under way.

The Department of Agriculture says the new program permits manufacturers or exporters to export non-fat dry milk from private stocks.

An export payment in the form of negotiable certificates will be made by the department in return for making these exports and registering the foreign sale with the general sales manager of the department's Foreign Agricultural Service.

The department said the certificates may be used in payment for purchase for export of butter, cheese, non-fat dry milk, wheat, feed grains or rice when available, which are held by the commodity credit corp.

The amount of payment for each pound will be announced periodically.

Toy Gunwoman

HUGO, Okla. (AP)—Two men accosted Mrs. Idell Hallman as she drove along a highway. They crowded her car off the road and tried to rob her. She pulled a huge pistol and they fled. The gun was a toy she was taking to a nephew.

Big Question on Wall Street: Is Market About to Hit Bottom?

EDITOR'S NOTE—A month ago today, the stock market suffered its worst daily loss since 1929. Since then analysts and economists, for business and government, have been trying to piece together the story of the decline—and to forecast what is in store.

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A month after being stricken on "Black Monday" the stock market still is ailing. No one can say for sure what is going to happen in the future.

The panicky selling of May 28 sent the market to its worst fall since 1929. Before the week was out a rally more than recovered the loss but the pattern of steep decline had been set.

This downtrend has been followed, with only a few interruptions by weak advances, ever since.

Hoping and Guessing

Is the market about to hit bottom?

That is the big question that has Wall Street hoping and guessing.

The analysts whose predictions are closely followed by millions of investors are in disagreement. Some say the market still has to go lower to truly correct prices which had skyrocketed during a frenzy of speculation.

Others feel that earnings compared with share prices have returned to realistic ratios and that many stocks are becoming bargains.

Still others are pinning their hopes for an upturn of the calendar, forecasting that the traditional summer rally will soon lift prices.

"Among the older, more sophisticated analysts the consensus is that the worst is over for the present, there should be a summer rally and any decline following this rally probably would be less violent than the one that preceeded it," says L. O. Hooper of the brokerage firm, W. E. Hutton & Co.

But expressing just the opposite point of view, and exemplifying the many opinions to be found in Wall Street, is analyst Edward F. Underwood of Ira Haupt & Co., who says:

"There is little question in my mind that this is a time of crisis. We are in a major bear (down) market."

No Conclusive Reason

What brought on this decline which has pressed the market averages to their lowest level since 1958?

The reasons cited are legion, and no single one conclusive in itself.

The early phase, beginning last fall, was attributed by some experts to a need for correction of prices that had rocketed too high under a great enthusiasm for growth stocks and new issues.

Others described a market weakened by what they called the tendency of big institutional buyers—the mutual funds and pension funds among others—to sit on the sidelines. Still others pointed to the millions of dollars pulled out of the market by investors who put them in savings banks to reap higher interest rates.

Some Developed Fear

As business failed to move ahead at the rate expected, "lack of confidence" and a fear of a recession developed among some investors.

Then came the Kennedy administration's furious reaction to the $6-a-ton price increase announced by the steel industry after what had been described by government officials as a noninflationary labor agreement.

The administration's forcing of the steel executives to rescind the increase brought accusations that the President was antibusiness.

The steel price battle was blamed by many in Wall Street for actually triggering the market collapse. This school of thought said the steel battle undermined the confidence of already shaky investors.

Kennedy's Theory

Kennedy, himself, has blamed the market's decline on what he called a realization by investors that stock prices had become excessively high.

Kennedy proclaimed that neither he nor his administration was antibusiness but left it clear that he felt the government should act in economic matters when it felt it was in the public interest.

Not everyone on Wall Street put the blame on Kennedy.

"Many people seem to think someone is personally responsible for what has happened in the market recently," said analyst Hooper. "The fact is that this decline stems from the abuse of common stocks by almost everyone in the period of over-speculation."

With recession talk increasing, the financial community looked to Washington for help.

This could take the form of an income tax reduction, as proposed by Kennedy; an increase in depreciation allowances for new plant and equipment, and a cut in margin requirements to allow stock to be bought for 50 per cent cash down payment instead of the current 70 per cent.

The post-mortems over "Black Monday" and the subsequent market gyrations have been exhaustive.

Picked Up by Big Fellow

The New York Stock Exchange made a special study of activity on May 28, 29 and 31. It found that the big sellers on the first day of the break were small investors who dumped stocks they had held for long-term investment. When the market rose on the afternoon of May 29 the major part of the buying was done by larger investors picking up shares of well-known companies.

Surprisingly brokers reported an unusual number of new accounts opened, particularly on May 31 when the recovery continued.

As the market's slide persisted, the discouraged small investors began betting it would keep going down. This was evident from an increase in short sales in which people borrowed stock and sold it, hoping to be able to buy at a lower price and repay the borrowed shares at a profit.

The exchange's study showed that the investing public has been adding to its holdings of big-name common stocks despite the decline. While the public was doing this, however, exchange professionals were lightening their holdings.

Vienna Coup Squeezes West

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Perhaps South overbid his hand when he went all the way to six no-trump on the strength of his partner's vulnerable overcall, but South had a mighty good hand.

West opened a club and a quick count of his winning tricks gave South a count of only 11—six in clubs—three in hearts and the other two aces.

A diamond or spade finesse could give South his 12th trick, but West had opened the bidding and was marked with both those kings. Hence, some sort of squeeze against West was indicated. South started proceedings by knocking out the ace of hearts. West took the second heart, and returned the suit. South cashed his fourth heart, discarding a spade from dummy and now was almost ready for the squeeze.

The trouble was that if he ran off clubs he would have to discard before West and would be squeezed first.

South handled this problem by means of the play known as the Vienna coup. He cashed his ace of diamonds to establish West's king. Then he ran off dummy's clubs and discarded the queen and seven of diamonds and the six of spades.

West had to go down to two cards and either had to unguard his king of spades or throw away his good king of diamonds.

Also here Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Estey, Livingston, N. J., who for several years had a summer place on Route 212, near Willow.

Farmers in the Delaware County milkshed have begun the season's haying operations. Time was, in days before the waterworks, when Town of Olive men could be seen boarding the train, their scythe blades wrapped in burlap, to spend a few weeks mowing on the steep hillsides of the cow country.

Kate F. Urquart, West 10th Street, New York City, was a caller in the village center Friday. She is co-partner in a Roxobel, N. C., antique shop specializing in old prints and business Americana.

Big Firms Have Programs to Help Alcoholics Rehabilitate Selves

EDITOR'S NOTE — In addition to the frightful price compulsive drinking extracts in terms of human suffering and family tragedy, society pays another bill—in dollars and cents. This fourth in a series of five articles examines the impressive changes being produced by industry's growing recognition of both the human debilitation and the economic loss caused by alcoholism.

By BERNARD GAVZER
AP Staff Writer

There'll never be a monument raised to the Allis-Chalmers machine operator who will retire next year at 70. Drunks seldom rate public honors.

But this man already has a different sort of memorial—one that will continue salvaging lives for years to come. His memorial is the revolution he caused in a mammoth industrial firm's attitude toward alcoholic employes. It doesn't include magic treatments, it didn't even happen all at once. But this machine operator was the first alcoholic the company set out to help and success—his own and the company's—made him the forerunner of many others.

Big Companies Help

Today, there are between 80 and 100 other companies that have similar policies. They range from DuPont to the New York Times, from Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. to the Great Northern Railway, from Consolidated Edison to Eastman Kodak, from the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. to Kennecott Copper.

To these firms, the alcoholic is no longer an unstable bum, too weak to resist booze. No longer is he summarily sacked.

Now he is seen as a sick person, deserving the same consideration as a worker suffering from diabetes or other diseases.

Not All At Once

This remarkable change was not made overnight. Nor was it inspired by purely humanitarian motives. It results from a dollar and cents reality.

The hard economic fact is that no matter how finely tuned your equipment, how automated, how modernized your plant, how expertly organized, it takes men to do hings. And the most efficient machine in the world can't be efficient if the man running it is operating at only half his capability.

How It Shows Up

When alcoholism hits a plant, it shows up in these ways:

Absenteeism, reduced efficiency, errors, accidents, loss of customers, loss of training investment and lowered production.

The total cost of alcoholism to industry has been conservatively estimated at $1 billion a year.

For Allis - Chalmers, a new awareness of the problem and positive action came during World War II.

This man then had 37 years with the company. He had been given 11 disciplinary warnings about his drinking. But he didn't stop. So he was fired. Even in a company with 42,000 workers, there was some grief about this one man. He was a good worker and it was a shame to lose him.

Henry A. Mielcarek, manager of employe relations at company headquarters in Milwaukee, recalls that his firm needed every man on the job and operating at 100 per cent. He said it was decided there must be some way of handling the problem other than firing the worker. And he cited the case of a machine operator.

Straightens Out

A management executive working with Mielcarek decided to do something. They got the man to join Alcoholics Anonymous. In six months, he straightened out and came back on the payroll. The union went along, saw that his seniority was restored.

Today Allis - Chalmers has three AA groups meeting on company property, and it maintains a complete counseling service.

DuPont, while it has no AA groups, does have on its staff in Wilmington, Del., a veteran AA who will travel anywhere in the company to take care of an individual problem or help out in some plant.

DuPont also has two full-time psychiatrists and uses a number of other services.

80 PC Recovery

Consolidated Edison decided in 1952 to use a completely new tack by turning the problem over to other hands rather than doing it within the company. It gave $20,000 to the New York University Consultation Center for Alcoholism and made treatment a private matter between the center and the worker. It doesn't even receive reports on patients.

Dr. Arnold Zentner, physician in charge of the consultation center, says followup studies show a recovery rate of 80 per cent.

"We have varying ideas of recovery," he said. "If we can get the patient off alcohol we consider it a very good result. But this doesn't mean that we have resolved underlying conflicts."

Twenty other firms now use services of the center.

In sum, a considerable segment of industry has gone a long way from the days of automatically firing a worker with a drinking problem.

Got Break in 1955

Frank McGee Does Many Things Besides Narrating

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—In a game or variety show, television calls the head man the "host." In a news program, he's the "anchorman," and although often it does not appear that he is doing very much, anchoring is a complicated, sensitive job.

"There's a lot more to it than meets the eye," explained Frank McGee, who has been NBC's central reporter for everything from space flights to international crises.

"The anchorman is necessary from a technical point, to allow the program to move in an orderly way from a central point. But he does many other things, too.

"He often decides the editorial content of the show; he is there to provide a lot of general information about the subject which sets up things for the next man to appear—a reporter on the scene perhaps—who will get down to specifics and the small, interesting detail.

"He also is there to sum up and perhaps offer a broad outline for the solution of a problem."

McGee, a graying man in his early 40s, is one of the few who moved directly into broadcasting from school. Most of his colleagues did their apprenticeship in newspaper work.

Even when studying at the University of California, McGee specialized in speech and worked part time in a broadcasting station.

His big break came in 1955 when he was news chief for a Montgomery, Ala., radio-television station and the city became a center of a mounting storm over civil rights and integration. McGee did so well, he won national recognition—and two later years later moved over to NBC.

NBC will re-run its "Project 20" program showing circus life next Sunday. The program was first run on Jan. 21.

Recommended tonight: "Accent on an American Summer," CBS, 7:30-8 (Eastern Daylight Time)—first of a series of summer shows, starting with "The Fall of the City," a verse play by Archibald MacLeish starring Colleen Dewhurst.

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP)—It took a lot of bull to stop 18-year-oold Edward Lynch of nearby Bellevue. His car was wrecked when it struck and killed a 700-pound bull that had strayed from its pasture onto Ohio 163. Lynch was uninjured.

Assignment Turns Up Figures

Increase in Federal Jobs Even Tops Population Gain

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

C WASHINGTON (APz — Talk about conducting a safari into a jungle!

Listen to the saga of a Senate investigator who was given what looked like a simple assignment. He was told to drop over to the Agriculture Department and pick up all documents there on Billie Sol Estes, the finagling fertilizer financier.

Quite an Ordeal

Emerging weeks later from the air-conditioned bureaucratic jungle, investigator Paul E. Kamerick reported that it was quite an ordeal.

Not that the natives didn't cooperate, he told the Senate Investigations subcommittee Wednesday. Trouble was that the records were not all in one place. He and his Agriculture Department guides had to hack their way through the undergrowth to 16 different offices in order to collect the papers.

The investigator reported what looked to him like a breakdown of communications in the jungle murk—one agency didn't rightly know what the other was doing, he said.

Department officials disputed him, calling their system a well-knit one, no dim jungle.

There are critics who say, however, that a certain murkiness is inevitable in a government so big. And there have been various efforts, mostly unsuccessful, to stunt the government's growth.

Straight Face Proposal

During House debate on the farm bill last week, Rep. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., proposed with straight face an amendment to forbid the number of Agriculture Department employes to rise over the number of farmers in America. This was defeated.

A newsman called the Agriculture Department Wednesday and asked how many farmers there are in America. An official said he did not have an up-to-date statistic on that, but said there are 3,688,000 farms.

Asked how many employes the department has, he said 81,872 full-time and 16,668 part-time. Asked if this included people like county committeemen, he double-checked and said no. There are 16,000 full-time employes like that, plus an indeterminate numoer of part-time people who did '8,000 man years" of work last year.

Trying to get an idea of the growth rate of the total federal bureaucracy, the reporter called Sen. Harry F. Byrd's Joint Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Federal Expenditures. "How many employes did George Washington have under him when he became President?" an aide was asked.

The aide said he didn't have that statistic but that in 1816, the number of federal employes was 4,837, not counting the armed forces. Now the number is 2,471,061. This is a 500-fold increase.

In 1816 the population of the country was about 8.5 million. Now it is 186.5 million. This is only a 22-fold increase.

The trend cannot continue indefinitely. Otherwise everybody will be on the federal payroll drawing tax money to govern, regulate, police and confer other benefits on each other.

MIAMI BOUND—Janet Hadland, 19, of Las Vegas, Nev., will represent her state at the Miss Universe pageant to take place in Miami, Fla.

Federal Employe Faces Charge of Helping in Felony

FRANKFORT, N. Y. (AP) — A federal employe faced a charge today of shielding a former mental patient accused in the fatal stabbing of a farmer's wife.

Richard A. Tuscher, 26, of Utica, a claims representative with the U.S. Social Security Administration in Utica, was arrested Wednesday night and charged with being an accessory to a felony.

State Police Lt. Harry Blaisdell said Tuscher helped Ronald Samanka, 22, escape after the alleged fatal assault.

Stabbed While Sleeping

Mrs. May Ladd, 67, died Wednesday of stab wounds she suffered in the attack Sunday as she slept in her farm home near this Herkimer County village.

Samanka, who once worked on the Ladd farm, has admitted stabbing Mrs. Ladd five or six times with an old sickle because she once laughed at him, Blaisdell said.

Samanka is being held for grand jury action on a charge of first-degree assault. However, Dist. Atty. Albert Schneider said the jury may be asked to consider a homicide charge when it convenes in September.

Troopers said Tuscher met and befriended Samanka in 1956 when Samanka was a patient and Tuscher an attendant at the Newark State School for Mental Defectives.

Tuscher later helped Samanka get the job at the Ladd farm, police said.

Blaisdell said that Tuscher last Sunday had driven Samanka from Frankfort to Utica at Samanka's request, that Samanka had been in Tuscher's home that day, and that Tuscher had given Samanka $10 for train fare to Rochester. Samanka had a farm job nearby, where he was arrested.

Troopers telephoned Tuscher Sunday to ask whether he had seen Samanka and were told he had not seen Samanka for several weeks, Blaisdell said.

At the time of the call, Blaisdell added, Samanka was in Tuscher's home.

Tuscher told troopers he "used poor judgment," Blaisdell said.

Tuscher asked for time to obtain an attorney when he was arraigned before Justice of the Peace George Murtaugh here Wednesday night. The hearing was adjourned, and Tuscher was ordered held at the county jail in lieu of $5,000 bail.

Gardeners who want a healthy lawn should water grass after a windy spell. That's because wind, as well as sun, causes drying of the earth.

McKeon Declares Dem Governor Would Build Road

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP) — The Democratic State Chairman says a superhighway twice vetoed by Gov. Rockefeller will be constructed across Northern New York if a Democratic governor is elected in November.

Chairman William H. McKeon also promised in a speech Wednesday night to Massena Young Democrats that, if a Democrat wins the gubernatorial race, a separate division of the State Commerce Department would be created in the northern part of the state.

McKeon's reference to a superhighway dealt with a proposed expressway linking Watertown, Plattsburgh and Massena and including a connection at the Ogdensburg bridge.

Rockefeller, a Republican seeking re-election this year, has vetoed proposals to construct the highway, unofficially called the St. Lawrence Expressway, because, he said, the Federal Bureau of Public Roads has not approved its designation as part of the Interstate highway system.

If the route were made part of the interstate system, the federal government would pay 90 per cent of its cost and the state 10 per cent. Without the designation, the state and federal government would share the cost equally.

The Democratic chairman charged that Republicans fail to understand "the tremendous boost" the highway would give to the area.

He called it a "natural scenic route" and said he would "do everything in my power to see that it becomes the reality Rockefeller promised it would be four years ago."

Bipartisan Job

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Mrs. W. G. Davis is a staunch Democrat and a precinct chairman. One of her duties is to carry a heavy voting box. Because she is small, Mrs. Davis calls on her husband for help. He is an equally staunch Republican.

Education Dept. Has No Plan on Prayer Decision

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The State Education Department says it has no plans to enforce compliance by local school districts with the U.S. Supreme Court decision on use of prayers in public schools.

The question of compliance, is expected to rest primarily with local school districts. At least a dozen have said they will defy the court ban. Their defiance would come in the fall, since most schools have closed for the summer.

The department said the state education commissioner, Dr. James E. Allen Jr., would force a school to live up to the court's decision only if an appeal were carried to him by someone who objected to non-compliance.

Bad Choice

RAWLINS, Wyo. (AP) — Arthur Dale Phillips Jr. of Hibbing, Minn., was charged with vagrancy when police spotted his washed sox and underwear.

Phillips picked the wrong place to do his laundry—the police station washroom.

A merry-go-round built in 1850 is still in use at Watch Hill, R. I. Its wooden steeds are suspended from a wheel with no platform beneath them.

Federal Employe Faces Charge of Helping in Felony

FRANKFORT, N. Y. (AP) — A federal employe faced a charge today of shielding a former mental patient accused in the fatal stabbing of a farmer's wife.

Richard A. Tuscher, 26, of Utica, a claims representative with the U.S. Social Security Administration in Utica, was arrested Wednesday night and charged with being an accessory to a felony.

State Police Lt. Harry Blaisdell said Tuscher helped Ronald Samanka, 22, escape after the alleged fatal assault.

Stabbed While Sleeping

Mrs. May Ladd, 67, died Wednesday of stab wounds she suffered in the attack Sunday as she slept in her farm home near this Herkimer County village.

Samanka, who once worked on the Ladd farm, has admitted stabbing Mrs. Ladd five or six times with an old sickle because she once laughed at him, Blaisdell said.

Samanka is being held for grand jury action on a charge of first-degree assault. However, Dist. Atty. Albert Schneider said the jury may be asked to consider a homicide charge when it convenes in September.

Troopers said Tuscher met and befriended Samanka in 1956 when Samanka was a patient and Tuscher an attendant at the Newark State School for Mental Defectives.

Tuscher later helped Samanka get the job at the Ladd farm, police said.

Blaisdell said that Tuscher last Sunday had driven Samanka from Frankfort to Utica at Samanka's request, that Samanka had been in Tuscher's home that day, and that Tuscher had given Samanka $10 for train fare to Rochester. Samanka had a farm job nearby, where he was arrested.

Troopers telephoned Tuscher Sunday to ask whether he had seen Samanka and were told he had not seen Samanka for several weeks, Blaisdell said.

At the time of the call, Blaisdell added, Samanka was in Tuscher's home.

Tuscher told troopers he "used poor judgment," Blaisdell said.

Tuscher asked for time to obtain an attorney when he was arraigned before Justice of the Peace George Murtaugh here Wednesday night. The hearing was adjourned, and Tuscher was ordered held at the county jail in lieu of $5,000 bail.

McKeon Declares Dem Governor Would Build Road

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP) — The Democratic State Chairman says a superhighway twice vetoed by Gov. Rockefeller will be constructed across Northern New York if a Democratic governor is elected in November.

Chairman William H. McKeon also promised in a speech Wednesday night to Massena Young Democrats that, if a Democrat wins the gubernatorial race, a separate division of the State Commerce Department would be created in the northern part of the state.

McKeon's reference to a superhighway dealt with a proposed expressway linking Watertown, Plattsburgh and Massena and including a connection at the Ogdensburg bridge.

Rockefeller, a Republican seeking re-election this year, has vetoed proposals to construct the highway, unofficially called the St. Lawrence Expressway, because, he said, the Federal Bureau of Public Roads has not approved its designation as part of the Interstate highway system.

If the route were made part of the interstate system, the federal government would pay 90 per cent of its cost and the state 10 per cent. Without the designation, the state and federal government would share the cost equally.

The Democratic chairman charged that Republicans fail to understand "the tremendous boost" the highway would give to the area.

He called it a "natural scenic route" and said he would "do everything in my power to see that it becomes the reality Rockefeller promised it would be four years ago."

Education Dept. Has No Plan on Prayer Decision

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The State Education Department says it has no plans to enforce compliance by local school districts with the U.S. Supreme Court decision on use of prayers in public schools.

The question of compliance, is expected to rest primarily with local school districts. At least a dozen have said they will defy the court ban. Their defiance would come in the fall, since most schools have closed for the summer.

The department said the state education commissioner, Dr. James E. Allen Jr., would force a school to live up to the court's decision only if an appeal were carried to him by someone who objected to non-compliance.

RAWLINS, Wyo. (AP) — Arthur Dale Phillips Jr. of Hibbing, Minn., was charged with vagrancy when police spotted his washed sox and underwear.

Phillips picked the wrong place to do his laundry—the police station washroom.

Solemn Ceremonies Mark Merger of Lutherans Today

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The largest merger in the history of Lutheranism in America takes place here today.

With solemn ceremony and song, four Lutheran denominations join forces to become one.

"An epochal, long prayed-for event," said the Rev. Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, of New York.

Thousands of Lutherans, including 2,500 delegates and officials, were on hand for the occasion in Detroit's giant Cobo Hall.

"There is jubilation here today," said The Rev. Dr. P. O. Bersell, of Minneapolis. "At long last these four Lutheran bodies have come together because they belong together, because they have one Lord and one faith."

Their past divisions trace back to differences in national origin and languages. But these factors have faded on the American scene, leading to formation of the new united church.

Adopt New Name

Its name: "The Lutheran Church In America."

Altogether, it has 3½ million members in 6,125 congregations, the sixth largest protestant body in the nation.

The merging denominations are the 2½-million-member United Lutheran Church, of German background; the 630,000-member Augustana Lutheran Church, of Swedish descent; the 35,500-member Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church, and the 25,000-member American Evangelical Lutheran Church, of Danish origins.

Their merger is part of a trend toward Christian unity that is gradually bringing various denominations closer together, and is sealing the rifts in organizationally divided Lutheranism.

Back in the 1880's, this country had more than 70 different Lutheran branches, separated along ethnic lines. They have steadily coalesced.

The new union reduces the number to 11, and brings 95 per cent of the 8½ million Lutherans in America into three major bodies.

They are the 206 million-member Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod; the 203 million-member American Lutheran Church, that was formed through a three-way merger in 1960, and the new church created here today.

The new merger comes after about six years of negotiations.

Sixth Sense

Schirra's Wife Knew It Before

LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE, Va. (AP)—A woman's intuition, astronaut Walter M. Schirra Jr. says, told his wife he'd be the next American in space.

Schirra, a Navy commander, whose selection for the United States' next orbital flight was announced officially Wednesday, says his wife Jo realized this fact some time ago "through a sixth sense which all wives have."

Actually, Schirra told a news conference, the official word was given him Tuesday night although he and his family had been told earlier he was the next astronaut in line.

The reaction from Schirra, his wife and his parents was as expected— "Enthusiastic. Delighted. Happy."

Schirra, 39, who may circle the earth as many as six times, said the additional three orbits would be a great bonus.

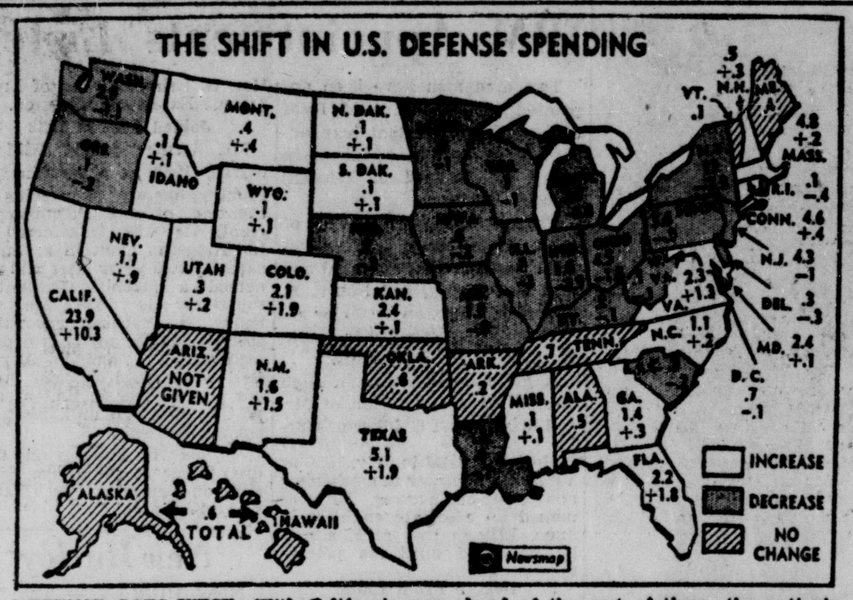
"If I am performing well and the capsule is performing well, we will decide during the third orbit whether to go for six," he said.

Information Due July 5th at GWS On Nurse Course

The Kingston Board of Education is planning to start a Licensed Practical Nurse Training Program for adults in September.

A meeting is being called for Thursday, July 5, at 7:30 p. m. in the auditorium of the George Washington School for all those interested in enrolling for the course. At that time more detailed information will be given about the purpose of the course, eligibility requirements, tuition cost, etc.

Application blanks will be available for those who wish to enroll, Raphael Klein, director of Adult Education, reported today.



DEFENSE GOES WEST—With California way ahead of the rest of them, the nation's western and southern states are receiving the major share of U.S. defense work. They are now getting 52 per cent of all prime contracts, compared to 33 per cent in 1953. Eastern and midwestern states have generally lost (Massachusetts is an exception.) Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin combined dropped from 27.4 to 11.8 per cent of the total. Newsmap above, based on Defense Dept. figures, shows changes by states. Reason for the shift in spending is increased emphasis on electronics and missile work.

Trial Set Monday For 4 Accused Of Bank Robbery

The case of four men accused of the April 16 armed robbery at the Dover Plains National Bank, has been adjourned by Dutchess County Judge John R. Schwartz until Monday, July 2 at 10 a. m.

The judge appointed Michael Dahowski as attorney for William T. Maslousky, 20, of Hurfville, N. J., and William Ciolko as counsel for Charles J. Cooper, 33, of New York City, formerly of the Town of Dover.

The adjournment until Monday was requested by Attorney Edward Kovacs, who entered the case Tuesday for the first time, and said he wanted time to decide whether he will defend Perry Patrick Paulding, 20, of New York City, another defendant.

Edward Filipowicz, who appeared as attorney for the four defendants previously, still represents the fourth defendant, Kenneth D. Graham, 29, New York City.

Accident Toll Is 22,000

CHICAGO (AP) — More than 22,000 persons were killed in accidents in the first three months of 1962, a sharp increase over the same period last year, the National Safety Council reports.

Skouras Out as Film Boss

Retirement Catches No One by Surprise

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The retirement of Spyros Skouras as president of 20th Century-Fox surprised no one in Hollywood. It had been expected since last fall.

Even before the studio's troubles with such recalcitrant stars as Elizabeth Taylor, Marilyn Monroe and Dean Martin, the Wall Street money men had moved in to depose the Greek emigrant who had risen from busboy to head the town's second largest studio.

Cleo Loss Doomed Him

A $25 million loss in production plus the astronomical cost of "Cleopatra"—at $30 million the most expensive movie ever made—doomed the 20-year reign of Skouras as head of the company.

Last September director George Stevens called a news conference to tell why the studio dropped his "The Greatest Story Ever Told," a Carl Sandburg scripted movie about the life of Christ.

At the time, Stevens had spent $2.3 million without a foot of film being shot.

"For some time we had been playing the game, 'Who is Fox?'" said Stevens, who assumed it was Skouras. Skouras expressed great confidence in the picture, but the Wall Street bankers on the Fox board ordered the shelving of the movie.

"That answered the question: 'Who is Fox?'" said Stevens.

Stevens since has moved the story to another studio and will film it this summer.

The director flew to New York, got the movie lock, stock and barrel. Fox was out $2.3 million.

But that was only a pittance compared with the costs of "Cleopatra." The millions in Rome piled up faster than the headlines. Taylor and Richard Burton fiddled about Rome while Fox burned.

As the scenes in "Cleopatra" wound to an agonizing finish, the studio got hit with a deadly body blow by Marilyn Monroe and Dean Martin.

Just Too Much

Marilyn got fired from "Something's Got to Give." Martin objected to working with Lee Remick, Marilyn's replacement. So he quit. Then he sued.

This all happened while the stock market was dropping Fox stock from $39 to $20 a share. It was too much.

The board of directors said Skouras was retiring because of ill health.

Skouras, 69, whose salary as president last year was $139,000, is also a big stockholder in the film firm.

The statement Wednesday said Skouras' successor will be chosen by a committee including Skouras himself, and a new position will be offered to him after his retirement as president.

Hurley Lions Honor Gruner as Coach of Year

Baseball coach Al Gruner of Kingston High school was honored with a presentation by the Hurley Lions Club at its meeting Wednesday.

Gruner, who is a member of the Hurley club, was presented with a plaque by Vernon Goetchius, club president. The award was made in recognition of Gruner's designation as 1962 baseball Coach of the Year in the DUSO League by members of the DUSO Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association.

G. Warren Kias, director of athletics of the Kingston Consolidated school system, was the guest speaker. He told club members how the DUSO award is made and spoke of the many outstanding contributions Gruner has made to baseball in the area.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fancy fixin's for Fourth of July picnic hampers are featured at the nation's groceries this weekend.

Chicken Good Feature

Fried chicken is a good possibility at prices that continue to make for remarkable economy.

Many stores are also featuring specials on luncheon meats and frankfurters. Eggs are again bargain priced.

Hams are another excellent sandwich offering.

Lettuce and tomatoes are mostly priced lower as nearby gardens replace shipped-in supplies. Cucumbers, cabbage, celery and radishes also are attractively priced.

Fruit selections are widening as prices slip. Among the items featured regionally that lend themselves well to outing eating are oranges, plums, nectarines, apricots, grapes, cherries, peaches and figs.

Meat Attractions

For meals at home [illegible] good variety of all courses this weekend. Beef attractions [illegible] round and chuck roasts in the Northeast, ground beef and rib steaks in the Southeast and porterhouse and sirloin steaks in the Midwest.

Other meat attractions include pork chops, ribs, bacon and sausage.

Want to give good old lettuce and tomato salad interesting flavor? Serve it with an oil-and-vinegar dressing to which oregano and garlic have been added.

Pep Pills Worry Pa. More Than Traffic in Drugs

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Pep pills pose a greater law enforcement problem in Pennsylvania than the traffic of narcotics, says State Police Detective George W. Collitt, who is assigned to narcotics investigations.

Pep pills—or bennies—is the layman's term for amphetamine sulphate, a tablet which acts as a stimulant for the motorist.

Collitt said the pills are not a source of energy, but rather a chemical release of energy stored in the body.

They are not considered to be either dangerous or addictive, Collitt said. But continued use of them without a physician's prescription can cause a black out.

Collitt feels the use of pep pills is a "widespread practice" among truck drivers. "Truckers seem to feel it's fashionable to use bennies," he said. The Pennsylvania Motor Trucking Association contends the practice is not indicative of the trucking industry as a whole.

State Police are conducting a quiet, but forceful and continued war on the practice.

Collitt reported that 19 arrests have been made on the Pennsylvania Turnpike since last December for violation of the narcotics and drug law. Most of these involved possession of bennies, he said, although one was for cocaine and a few for heroin. There are probably some motorists who are using the pills and go undetected, he said.

Completes Basic

PVT. JOSEPH J. ELLSWORTH, son of Mrs. Kenneth A. Wells Jr. of 50 Hunter Street, has completed his basic training at Parris Island, S. C. After a leave at home, he returned Sunday for assignment to Japan. Ellsworth is with the Second Battalion, Platoon 208.

Issued Summons

Angelo Binso Villake, 23, of Spring Street, Middletown was issued a summons Wednesday by Saugerties Village Police Sgt. Donald Sullivan charging improper use of village streets. The summons is returnable before Village Police Justice G. Thomas Rea Jr., on Friday.

Phone Trouble Traced

Following Tuesday's heavy rainstorm telephone service between Poughkeepsie and Albany was literally "at stake" until telephone repairmen located the trouble and remedied it. The delay was traced to difficulties near Catskill, J. F. O'Shaughnessy, Albany manager of the New York Telephone Company said, where a surveyor had driven a stake in the ground and then withdrew it. The hole filled with water during the Tuesday afternoon downpour, damaging the underground cable causing delays in communication. Repair crews worked throughout the night and normal service was restored by 5:45 a. m. Wednesday.

Valuable Data Is Gleaned From Check on Traffic

Two traffic surveys conducted in the Poughkeepsie area in April produced valuable information, according to M. Nicholas Sinacori, district engineer, State Department of Public Works, who conducted the surveys.

A land use survey now is underway in the City and Town of Poughkeepsie, and Village of Wappingers Falls, and a spot check of area homes will follow. The surveys are part of a comprehensive study of the Greater Poughkeepsie area undertaken by the State DPW to determine a basis for future road building planning.

Sinacori said checkers interviewed 25,105 drivers in a sampling of 38,659 vehicles which passed through 12 control stations on their way into the City of Poughkeepsie. The district engineer said, "all anticipated goals were reached, and the questioning of 65 per cent of drivers entering the city through control stations is considered to be an excellent example."

Sinacori stated a meeting is planned soon with representatives of the Action Council of Poughkeepsie, the Mid-Hudson Industrial Association and the Dutchess County Planning Commission. At that session final results of the industrial survey will be reviewed.

The district engineer noted that the recent survey showed 94.3 per cent of the traffic checked were passenger cars. Vehicle occupant indicated that 33,631 persons were transported through the control stations.

Saugerties Lists Parking Controls For July 4 Fete

Special parking regulations in Saugerties Village for the July 4 celebration were announced today by Acting Police Chief Harold Mills.

Parking from 12 noon will be prohibited on both sides of the following streets: Russell, Post, Partition from Russell to Main; Main from Partition to Market; Market from Main to Ulster Avenue; Market from Dawes to Prospect, and both sides of Prospect Street.

No parking will be permitted on the east side of Market to Dawes Street.

To facilitate the movement of traffic from Cantine Memorial Field from 10 a. m. to 12 midnight, parking will be prohibited on both sides of Robinson Street.

Savings Banks Deposit Gains Set Record

Deposit gains in mutual savings banks set a May record of $184 million, the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks announced today. The previous record was set in May, 1958, when there was an increase of $182 million. Last year, May deposit gains were $114 million.

The increase brought total deposits in the 513 mutual savings banks to $39.2 billion and total assets to $44.1 billion.

Dr. Grover W. Ensley, executive vice president of the National Association, stated that the increase reflected the high interest rates paid on savings accounts relative to yields and alternative investments, as well as the recent gyrations in the stock market. May was the third month of 1962 in which savings bank deposit gains set a new record.

A new high for May was also recorded in mortgage investments, as savings banks added $254 million to their mortgage portfolios. Mortgage loans total $30.1 billion and represent 68.2 per cent of assets.

Motions Due Friday

Motions on behalf of Donald J. Zaengle, Pawling farmer, who was convicted by a Dutchess County Court trial jury of failing to provide sustenance for his livestock, are scheduled Friday before County Judge John R. Schwartz at Poughkeepsie. District Attorney Raymond C. Baratta said Zaengle faces a maximum sentence of 11 months and 27 days in jail. The jury returned a guilty verdict after an hour of deliberation. Authorities said investigation disclosed two dead cows and two dead calves on the defendant's farm on Jan. 30. Another calf was so weakened by the lack of care it had to be destroyed.

Savings Banks Deposit Gains Set Record

Deposit gains in mutual savings banks set a May record of $184 million, the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks announced today. The previous record was set in May, 1958, when there was an increase of $182 million. Last year, May deposit gains were $114 million.

The increase brought total deposits in the 513 mutual savings banks to $39.2 billion and total assets to $44.1 billion.

Dr. Grover W. Ensley, executive vice president of the National Association, stated that the increase reflected the high interest rates paid on savings accounts relative to yields and alternative investments, as well as the recent gyrations in the stock market. May was the third month of 1962 in which savings bank deposit gains set a new record.

A new high for May was also recorded in mortgage investments, as savings banks added $254 million to their mortgage portfolios. Mortgage loans total $30.1 billion and represent 68.2 per cent of assets.

Motions Due Friday

Motions on behalf of Donald J. Zaengle, Pawling farmer, who was convicted by a Dutchess County Court trial jury of failing to provide sustenance for his livestock, are scheduled Friday before County Judge John R. Schwartz at Poughkeepsie. District Attorney Raymond C. Baratta said Zaengle faces a maximum sentence of 11 months and 27 days in jail. The jury returned a guilty verdict after an hour of deliberation. Authorities said investigation disclosed two dead cows and two dead calves on the defendant's farm on Jan. 30. Another calf was so weakened by the lack of care it had to be destroyed.

35-Hour Forced Marches Bared During Captivity

GEORGE FRYETT JR.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A U.S. soldier released by Communist guerrillas told today of 35-hour forced marches during which his arms were bound and his captors led him with a rope around his neck.

Spec. 4 George F. Fryett Jr., 26, of Long Beach, Calif., told a news conference he was exhibited in many villages during six months in Viet Cong captivity. He said he had to read Communist propagan aloud at gun point four or five times a day.

Fryett, 26 pounds thinner than when he was captured on Christmas Eve, consulted with a U.S. intelligence agent before replying to questions from newsmen. He denied, as he has done before, that he cooperated in any way with the Viet Cong while he was held in the jungle.

Before allowing him to appear at the news conference, U.S. authorities apparently decided he revealed no secrets to his Communist captors and signed no statements critical of the United States. He said he knew nothing about a letter Communist broadcasters said he had written to his family criticizing U.S. support for the South Vietnamese government.

Fryett said the pair of sandals he had been wearing when captured fell apart because of constant exposure to water and marching. His feet were badly blistered.

The soldier said he tried to escape once by slipping into a river. He managed to loosen his hands while partially under water, he said, and pulled the rope around his neck loose. He then tried to swim away under water, but he was caught and bound tightly again.

During his entire stay with the Viet Cong, Fryett said, he was kept at gun point by guards totaling from seven to 50 men.

Fryett was captured while riding a bicycle about 15 miles from Saigon. He was released last Sunday.

Britain's Sir Patrick Dean was to speak in opposition to the demand that his government repeal the constitution of December 1961, call a new constitutional conference and repeal all discriminatory laws in the African territory.

The 38 sponsors of the resolution changed that the 1961 constitution—which has not yet taken effect—is designed to perpetuate the rule of the 200,000 white settlers in the territory over the three million Africans.

They compared discrimination against the Africans with South Africa's apartheid race policies and warned that another Algerian bloodbath could occur unless Africans in Southern Rhodesia gained political equality.

The assembly voted 93-0 to split the Belgian trust territory of Ruanda-Urundi into the independent Republic of Rwanda and Kingdom of Burundi on July 1.

JFK Makes Last Trade Bill Plea, Fate Uncertain

WASHINGTON (AP) — The trade program President Kennedy says is vital to the nation's future comes up for a final vote in the House today, its fate uncertain.

Hours before the expected showdown headcount, Democratic and Republican leaders alike were reluctant to guess what will happen to the measure the President has placed at the top of his congressional priority list.

Kennedy opened his news conference Wednesday with a plea for bipartisan support and made additional eleventh-hour appeals for passage in response to several questions. Clearly, his prestige is on the line and he acted as if he knows it. What the President wants is broad new powers to eliminate tariffs on whole groups of items and to cut in half the duties on others in an effort to meet the rising economic challenge posed by the burgeoning European Common Market.

At the same time Kennedy seeks new forms of help for industries and workers a crumbling of U.S. tariff walls is likely to dislocate.

Barring any unexpected last-minute maneuver, the choice before the House is between the Kennedy program and a one-year extension of the present trade act.

The machinery to make last-minute changes in the bill, if these are deemed necessary to bring in the crucial votes, was oiled and waiting. But administration lieutenants, remembering the stunning defeat exactly a week ago of a Kennedy farm bill that had been extensively amended to suit various interests, were reluctant to follow this course.

Driver Is Summoned After Area Crash

An 18-year-old Westchester County youth was charged with failing to use caution in the operation of a motor vehicle today, after the car he was driving was involved in a collision on the State Thruway, Town of Rosendale.

Thruway Trooper P. H. Madigan summoned David Brainard Perry, of 33 High View Avenue, Tuckahoe, to appear before Justice of the Peace Edward Brodsy, Town of Rosendale, on July 7 to answer the summons.

Perry was driving north and passing a northbound car operated by Tormod Kyrie Eskedal, 54, of 184 Manor Road, Staten Island, when the youth lost control. His car went to the center mall and veered back into the driving lane where it was struck by Eskedal's car, the trooper said.

No injuries were reported. The mishap occurred at 7:55 a. m.

100th Anniversary Of Land Grant Act Will Be Observed

The 100th anniversary of the signing of the Land Grant College Act by President Abraham Lincoln will be observed on July 2, 1962.

Also known as the Morrill Act, this measure laid the groundwork for the Agricultural Extension Service that serves more than 1,460 farmers in Ulster County today, according to William H. Palmer, county agricultural agent.

The beginning of a new era in agricultural development in the country, the Morrill Act brought into being the 68 Land Grant colleges and universities "to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanic arts."

This act has been called the most revolutionary single development in the history of American higher education. It provided for instruction in subjects not previously considered worthy of university study, it reached persons higher education was bypassing, and it led to a new concept of the role of higher education, Agent Palmer explained.

Today a fifth of the nation's 3,891,000 college students attend Land Grant Colleges and universities. They award 25 per cent of the master's and 38 per cent of the doctorate degrees. Also 25 of the 42 living American Nobel Prize winners who studied in this country earned Land Grant degrees.

Referring to New York State Palmer said that it received 990,000 acres of land which went to the support of Cornell University, the Land Grant institution for the state. Ezra Cornell converted this land to a $5,000,000 endowment for the university.

Later the Hatch Act establishing Agricultural Experiment Stations and the Smith-Lever Act setting up the Extension Service, extended the influence began by the Morrill Act, Palmer concluded.

On Top of the Story

HONOLULU (AP)—Police reporters of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin didn't have to go far to cover the story of a burglary suspect fleeing from police. He was cornered in the basement of the newspaper building, and surrendered.

Little Girl Is Bitten by Kitten, Checking Animal

A kitten which bit a downtown three-year-old girl Wednesday was under observation today in compliance with recent police and health department requests to report all such incidents after recently reported discovery of rabies in a bat.

Mrs. John J. Lawrence, of 94 Abruyn Street, notified police at 6:50 p. m. yesterday that the kitten, which she said had been acting strangely, bit her daughter, Maureen on the index finger of the right hand. The SPCA and Dr. Gilbert F. Hoppenstedt, health department veterinarian, were notified.

The child was treated at the Benedictine Hospital and the kitten was placed under observation at the SPCA where it was reported apparently "doing well" today. Its age was said to be about 10 weeks.

The police report said the kitten had bled from the mouth and nose. Mrs. Lawrence today said it had tried to grab her daughter "around the face" before it bit the finger and that it "went for me," as she grabbed it. Maureen, she said, was apparently making satisfactory recovery from the injury at home today.

The kitten, it was reported today, will remain under observation for at least five days, and if it dies an examination will be made.

Police Chief Robert F. Murphy, in a notice Wednesday morning emphasized the importance of immediately reporting all bites by animals to expedite the forwarding of information to the health department and SPCA, and to permit the earliest possible treatment of victims.

Rod Laver Advances

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Top-seeded Rod Laver of Australia advanced to the fourth round of the Wimbledon Tennis Championships today with an easy victory over the United States' No. 1 player, Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., 6-4, 6-1, 6-4.

Laver's chief rival and Davis Cup teammate, Roy Emerson, also had an effortless triumph, beating Fred Stolle of Australia 6-4, 6-4, 6-0, but the tournament lost another of its seeded players.

Ramanathan Krishnan of India, seeded No. 4, was forced to default with an injured right ankle after dropping the first set of his match with John Fraser of Australia 2-6.

Rochester Town Reviews Claims

Three cases of claims against the Town of Rochester were received by Town Attorney Saul Altholz at the regular June meeting of the Town of Rochester town board.

It was agreed that a special conference with Attorney Altholz at his office would be necessary in order to discuss a settlement of the Richard Countryman claim.

The case of Bella Stein, a claim for careless dumping and littering her property, is expected to reach the court calendar some time in the fall. Because the boundary lines between the properties of Stein and Charles Freedman, owner of the town dump site, are not too well defined, Attorney Altholz asked Freedman to have his land surveyed in order to help the town board to establish agreements. He also stressed proper care of the dump at all times.

Proceedings in the show cause court action brought by Howard C. Anderson against the town were reviewed.

At the May meeting of the board a bid to purchase a tractor-mower was awarded to the Davenport Implement Company after the town board had carefully studied and compared bids. Claiming that he had an offer in his bid to meet all specifications, Anderson instituted action against the town board on the grounds that the board had acted in bad faith, that taxpayer's money is being used unwisely and that it was an illegal act on the part of the town board. Altholz has filed an answer in the action and submitted a memorandum to Justice Herbert Hamm.

A resolution was unanimously adopted authorizing the Town of Rochester to employ counsel to the town attorney, such counsel to serve with respect to any matter or litigation as may be deemed necessary by the town board.

Two other resolutions were also adopted unanimously, one for repairs and alterations to the Pataukunk Town Building for future use as a court house and the second one for starting plans for creation of an official Planning Board for the town.

Plans for building additional storage shelter for town equipment were presented by the Cross Lumber Company. The cost for the one presented was $12,387.58, without heating or lighting.

Supervisor Terwilliger's May report showed a balance of $6,623.51 in the General Fund and $2,439.75 in the Highway Fund.

Other regular routine business was transacted.

35-Hour Forced Marches Bared During Captivity

GEORGE FRYETT JR.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A U.S. soldier released by Communist guerrillas told today of 35-hour forced marches during which his arms were bound and his captors led him with a rope around his neck.

Spec. 4 George F. Fryett Jr., 26, of Long Beach, Calif., told a news conference he was exhibited in many villages during six months in Viet Cong captivity. He said he had to read Communist propagan aloud at gun point four or five times a day.

Fryett, 26 pounds thinner than when he was captured on Christmas Eve, consulted with a U.S. intelligence agent before replying to questions from newsmen. He denied, as he has done before, that he cooperated in any way with the Viet Cong while he was held in the jungle.

Before allowing him to appear at the news conference, U.S. authorities apparently decided he revealed no secrets to his Communist captors and signed no statements critical of the United States. He said he knew nothing about a letter Communist broadcasters said he had written to his family criticizing U.S. support for the South Vietnamese government.

Fryett said the pair of sandals he had been wearing when captured fell apart because of constant exposure to water and marching. His feet were badly blistered.

The soldier said he tried to escape once by slipping into a river. He managed to loosen his hands while partially under water, he said, and pulled the rope around his neck loose. He then tried to swim away under water, but he was caught and bound tightly again.

During his entire stay with the Viet Cong, Fryett said, he was kept at gun point by guards totaling from seven to 50 men.

Fryett was captured while riding a bicycle about 15 miles from Saigon. He was released last Sunday.

Rochester Town Reviews Claims

Three cases of claims against the Town of Rochester were received by Town Attorney Saul Altholz at the regular June meeting of the Town of Rochester town board.

It was agreed that a special conference with Attorney Altholz at his office would be necessary in order to discuss a settlement of the Richard Countryman claim.

The case of Bella Stein, a claim for careless dumping and littering her property, is expected to reach the court calendar some time in the fall. Because the boundary lines between the properties of Stein and Charles Freedman, owner of the town dump site, are not too well defined, Attorney Altholz asked Freedman to have his land surveyed in order to help the town board to establish agreements. He also stressed proper care of the dump at all times.

Proceedings in the show cause court action brought by Howard C. Anderson against the town were reviewed.

At the May meeting of the board a bid to purchase a tractor-mower was awarded to the Davenport Implement Company after the town board had carefully studied and compared bids. Claiming that he had an offer in his bid to meet all specifications, Anderson instituted action against the town board on the grounds that the board had acted in bad faith, that taxpayer's money is being used unwisely and that it was an illegal act on the part of the town board. Altholz has filed an answer in the action and submitted a memorandum to Justice Herbert Hamm.

A resolution was unanimously adopted authorizing the Town of Rochester to employ counsel to the town attorney, such counsel to serve with respect to any matter or litigation as may be deemed necessary by the town board.

Two other resolutions were also adopted unanimously, one for repairs and alterations to the Pataukunk Town Building for future use as a court house and the second one for starting plans for creation of an official Planning Board for the town.

Plans for building additional storage shelter for town equipment were presented by the Cross Lumber Company. The cost for the one presented was $12,387.58, without heating or lighting.

Supervisor Terwilliger's May report showed a balance of $6,623.51 in the General Fund and $2,439.75 in the Highway Fund.

Other regular routine business was transacted.

100th Anniversary Of Land Grant Act Will Be Observed

The 100th anniversary of the signing of the Land Grant College Act by President Abraham Lincoln will be observed on July 2, 1962.

Also known as the Morrill Act, this measure laid the groundwork for the Agricultural Extension Service that serves more than 1,460 farmers in Ulster County today, according to William H. Palmer, county agricultural agent.

The beginning of a new era in agricultural development in the country, the Morrill Act brought into being the 68 Land Grant colleges and universities "to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanic arts."

This act has been called the most revolutionary single development in the history of American higher education. It provided for instruction in subjects not previously considered worthy of university study, it reached persons higher education was bypassing, and it led to a new concept of the role of higher education, Agent Palmer explained.

Today a fifth of the nation's 3,891,000 college students attend Land Grant Colleges and universities. They award 25 per cent of the master's and 38 per cent of the doctorate degrees. Also 25 of the 42 living American Nobel Prize winners who studied in this country earned Land Grant degrees.

Referring to New York State Palmer said that it received 990,000 acres of land which went to the support of Cornell University, the Land Grant institution for the state. Ezra Cornell converted this land to a $5,000,000 endowment for the university.

Later the Hatch Act establishing Agricultural Experiment Stations and the Smith-Lever Act setting up the Extension Service, extended the influence began by the Morrill Act, Palmer concluded.

On Top of the Story

HONOLULU (AP)—Police reporters of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin didn't have to go far to cover the story of a burglary suspect fleeing from police. He was cornered in the basement of the newspaper building, and surrendered.

Daily food requirement of a porcupine may amount to 10 per cent of the animal's body weight.

Little Girl Is Bitten by Kitten, Checking Animal

A kitten which bit a downtown three-year-old girl Wednesday was under observation today in compliance with recent police and health department requests to report all such incidents after recently reported discovery of rabies in a bat.

Mrs. John J. Lawrence, of 94 Abruyn Street, notified police at 6:50 p. m. yesterday that the kitten, which she said had been acting strangely, bit her daughter, Maureen on the index finger of the right hand. The SPCA and Dr. Gilbert F. Hoppenstedt, health department veterinarian, were notified.

The child was treated at the Benedictine Hospital and the kitten was placed under observation at the SPCA where it was reported apparently "doing well" today. Its age was said to be about 10 weeks.

The police report said the kitten had bled from the mouth and nose. Mrs. Lawrence today said it had tried to grab her daughter "around the face" before it bit the finger and that it "went for me," as she grabbed it. Maureen, she said, was apparently making satisfactory recovery from the injury at home today.

The kitten, it was reported today, will remain under observation for at least five days, and if it dies an examination will be made.

Police Chief Robert F. Murphy, in a notice Wednesday morning emphasized the importance of immediately reporting all bites by animals to expedite the forwarding of information to the health department and SPCA, and to permit the earliest possible treatment of victims.

Rod Laver Advances

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Top-seeded Rod Laver of Australia advanced to the fourth round of the Wimbledon Tennis Championships today with an easy victory over the United States' No. 1 player, Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., 6-4, 6-1, 6-4.

Laver's chief rival and Davis Cup teammate, Roy Emerson, also had an effortless triumph, beating Fred Stolle of Australia 6-4, 6-4, 6-0, but the tournament lost another of its seeded players.

Ramanathan Krishnan of India, seeded No. 4, was forced to default with an injured right ankle after dropping the first set of his match with John Fraser of Australia 2-6.

Gifted Quartet Plays Sunday in Maverick Hall

An unusually gifted group of musicians will perform Beethoven's Trio in C Minor for Violin, Viola and Cello; Haydn's Trio in G Major for Violin, Piano and Cello; and Mozart's Quartet in G Minor for Strings and Piano, Sunday afternoon, July 1, at 3 p. m. in the first of the 1962 Maverick Sunday Concerts in Woodstock.

Alfio Pignotti, the violinist, at present concert master of the San Antonio Symphony Orchestra, studied at the Eastman and Manhattan Schools of Music, and with William Kroll in Woodstock, Jacques Gordon, Rafael Bronstein, and the late Luigi Silva. This will be his first appearance at the Maverick in 12 years. In the interim he has been a member of the Claremont String Quartet, the Horace Britt Trio and Professor of Violin at the University of Texas.

Frank Mele, whose proficiency on the viola has earned him a considerable local following, has been at various times a member of the Modern Art String Quartet, the Pittsburgh Symphony under Guido Cantelli and Victor de Sabata, and Vermont State Symphony, where he was chief violist, and in 1955-56, was principal violist for the Italian Chamber Orchestra at Florence. Mele, who himself was a child prodigy and joined the Rochester Philharmonic at the age of 21, now teaches private classes in Woodstock.

Born in London

London-born Rohini Coomara, at present the principal cellist of the Quebec Symphony Orchestra, studied cello at the Curtis Institute. The founder of the Collegium Musicum of New York, which has played a large part in effecting the revival of interest in early instrumental music, Miss Coomara's knowledge and experience in the field of chamber music spans the earliest period through the most contemporary.

The pianist for the group, Mrs. Hughette Van Ackere, was born in Belgium, where she graduated in 1947 with highest honors from the Brussels Royal Conservatory of Music, having won in 1946 the Premier Prix de Piano. Under a scholarship from the Italian government, she studied with Guido Agosti in Rome, gave concerts in the major cities of Europe, and took part in the Bartok International Contest for modern music in Budapest and one in Geneva. Since 1954, she has lived in the United States with her husband and has appeared as soloist with a number of orchestra groups and in chamber music concerts.

Rotary Accepts Student Loan Bids to July 30

The Woodstock Rotary Club is now processing applications for their Student Loan Program, club president, Warren J. Marr, announced today.

Loans available fom the Rotary Club are more favorable for the borrower than even the Federal Student Loan Program, Marr said. Under the Woodstock Rotary plan, a student may borrow funds at no interest. Repayment of the loan begins one year after graduation or other termination of education and is spread out over a five year period.

All requests for loans should be addressed to: Student Loan Committee, Woodstock Rotary Club, Woodstock. Applicants should include in their letter the name of the college that they have applied to, the reason for applying for this loan and any other pertinent facts that they feel will help the Rotary loan committee make its decision.

Deadline for application is July 30.

Gladstone Gallery Opener Is Success

The first of the season's exhibits at Gladstone Gallery in Woodstock opened with a reception last Saturday afternoon and was attended by a large audience, including visitors from New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, Washington and California.

This exhibit, which will remain on view until July 6, is a group showing of painting and sculpture by the artists of Gladstone Gallery, including William W. Harris, Agnes Hart, Ru Israels, Lillian Keyes, Milton Leech, Irving Lehman, Bruce Gregory, Robert McFarland, Morris Mitchell, Geri Pine, Frank Rampolla, Ann Ritz, Elden Rowland, Craig Rubadoux, Frances Stein, Nat Werner and Loran Wilford.

The opening show, attractively hung on the spacious walls of the several buildings of Gladstone Gallery, brought much enthusiastic comment and favorable criticism from the viewers. This Group Show is to be followed by a series of special one-man shows and continuing group exhibits of painting and sculpture, both in the main galleries and the studio gallery.

IN MAVERICK CONCERT—Four distinguished musicians who will appear in the first regular Sunday Afternoon Concert at Maverick Hall this weekend are, from the left, standing: Frank Mele, violist; Rohina Coomara, cellist; Alfio Pignotti, violist; seated: Hughette Van Ackere, pianist. Turnau Locale For the Annual Festival Dinner

An exciting and high level program of singing, dancing and instrumental music will begin promptly at 8 p. m. Saturday at the Turnau Opera House, following the annual 6:30 p. m. Woodstock Festival gourmet dinner of ham, turkey and roast beef.

Tickets are limited to this seventh consecutive fund raising Woodstock Festival dinner-musicale and patrons are urged to make reservations ahead of time.

Featured performers will include: baritone Alan Baker singing four Ravel songs; Karen Geiger, who will dance to music by Edgar Varese; pianist Phyllis Rappeport playing Chopin; clarinetist Barbara Cohn in a Hindemith sonata; Barbara Moncure singing folk music; Ira Deutsch on the oboe in an Abivoni concerto; and Nancy Wyner, mezzo soprano, singing lieder and songs by her husband, Yehudi Wyner.

Alan Baker, who has appeared with the Turnau Opera for the past four years, is a member of the Riverside Chamber Singers and received excellent critical notices for his recent concert of lieder in New York.

Karen Geiger, who is a member of the Jean Erdman Dance Company, has taught in New York, at Bard and in Woodstock, and toured with the Erdman Company. Spanish-born Edgar Varese, whose music she will dance to, is considered one of the most significant modern composers of our time.

Yehudi Wyner, this summer's Turnau Opera Company pianist, two years ago won a Guggenheim Award for composing, and together with Ward Pinner, manager of the Turnau, has been responsible for programming the excellent assembly for Saturday night's entertainment.

Ten Chose Three Theme for Third Artists' Show

The Woodstock Artists Association will present an exhibition entitled "Ten Choose Three" for its third show of the 1962 season.

The opening of this exhibition will be from 4 p. m. to 6 p. m. on Saturday, June 30. There will be a slight admission charge for the opening for non-members.

Admission will be free, for this and all other shows this season, except during openings. This exhibition continues from June 30 through July 19, 1962.

Ten artists, who are members of the Association have been selected to choose three works by one other artist, each. These thirty works, and one work from each of the artists making selections will comprise this exhibition. The ten artists making selections are: Franklin Alexander, Robert Angeloch, Konrad Cramer, Cornelia Hartmann, Robert Jacobson, Lillian Lent, Walter Plate, Anton Refregier, James Turnbull and Reginald Wilson. The names of the ten artists whose work will be represented by three examples will not be revealed before the opening of the exhibit.

WAA Plans Talk By Dr. Feldman In The Gallery

The Woodstock Artists Association will present a talk entitled: "The Dilemma of the Artist in the 1960's" by Dr. Edmund B. Feldman at 8:30 p. m., Friday, June 29. The talk will be given in the Artists Association Gallery.

Dr. Feldman is the chairman of the Art Division of State University College at New Paltz, New York. He was formerly an associate professor of art education in the Department of Painting, Sculpture and Design, Carnegie College of Fine Arts, Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Curator of Paintings and Sculpture, the Newark Museum, Newark, N. J.

He is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles (M.A. in Art History), and holds a doctorate in fine arts education from Columbia University. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Pittsburgh Plan for Art, a member of the National Committee on Art Education, and a member of the American Society of Aesthetics.

Dr. Feldman is an active painter and lecturer on art criticism and aesthetics.

Firemen Hoping Public Responds To Their Appeal

Imagine that it is the month of January or February. You are awakened at 3 a. m. by the sound of the siren blowing. Outside, it is 10 or 20 degrees below zero. The siren blows at least three times. Now you know that there is a fire or an emergency of some kind. Many will get out of bed and check through their house to see that everything is in order. This small task accomplished, they return to bed and sleep until morning.

There are many others who also hear the siren but they do not listen for the third blast of the siren. They are out of bed, dressed and driving out of their driveways in their cars even before their wives are fully awake. Do you know who these individuals are? They are your volunteer firemen.

What are the duties of your volunteer firemen? The volunteer fireman does not hesitate to respond to all emergencies. He will leave his dinner table, working around his home, or wherever he may be when he hears the siren.

On Perpetual Call

To sum up the duties of the volunteer fireman, it could be said that: The duties of the volunteer fireman are to respond to the aid of the public whenever and wherever necessary.

To carry out their many duties, it is necessary that the fire companies have the proper equipment and training. To obtain much of this equipment it is necessary that the four companies of the township run bazaars, dances, auctions and other promotions. These affairs cannot be successful without the support of the public.

The volunteer firemen of Woodstock feel that they have served the township in good faith and loyal service. They will continue to do so in the future. All they ask of you is to please support the Annual Bazaar of Woodstock Fire Company No. 1 being held at Andy Lee Memorial Field, Friday and Saturday evenings, June 29-30.

Homer and Marsh In Albany Show

On July 10, the Albany Institute of History and Art will have on display in one of the main galleries a collection of drawings, watercolors, sculpture and oils owned by the Walter Fillin family, Institute members living in Long Island.

The exhibition, called A Family Collection, will remain on view until Sept. 16, after which time the exhibition will tour throughout New York and the New England states.

Items of particular interest in the show include a pastel by Joseph Stella, "Boy With a Bagpipe" which has been on loan to the Museum of Modern Art for the past two years; "Evening" by Winslow Homer; two works by Edward Hopper, one an etching called "East Side Interior" and the other a watercolor entitled "Houses at Gloucester" and a watercolor, "Italian Line" by Reginald Marsh.

Doesn't Miss Acting

Percy Kilbride Is Looking Better Since Retirement

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The lean, crickety figure in tweed suit, including vest, was immediately familiar.

I had heard for years that Percy Kilbride was often seen walking along Hollywood Boulevard, but this was the first time I had seen him.

I reintroduced myself, and the hawk-nosed face brightened with a wry smile.

"Of course," he said warmly. "Still writing those things, huh? My goodness, all those words!"

The memory went back to our last conversation. It was nine years ago, and he was filming "Ma and Pa Kettle at Home." That was the seventh of the corn-fed films he had made with Marjorie Main, a vastly successful series that had stemmed from their roles in "The Egg and I."

It was to be their last. Neither he nor Marjorie had any love for the series; they had quit it the year before, but returned for one more film because of Universal's inducements.

When the film was over, Kilbride kept his word; he disappeared from the acting scene. Marjorie did two more Kettles, with Arthur Hunnicutt and Parker Fennelly trying to fill Pa's soiled shoes. But it wasn't the same, and the series had had its final gasp.

Almost 74, Kilbride looked unchanged. If anything, he looked better.

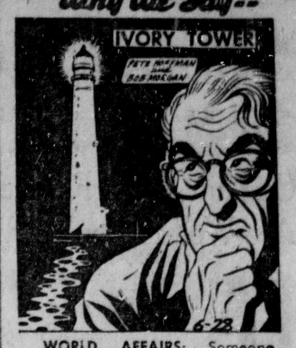
'Feel better," he said in his pleasant twang. "You known on that last Kettle picture, I wasn't feeling well at all. The doctor had to keep giving me injections to keep me going. I didn't know what was wrong with me. I was afraid I was going to die."

So he quit. He had enough to live on because his needs were slight.

I asked if he missed the acting life.

"Oh no, not at all," he said cheerfully. "I find plenty to keep me busy. Now that I'm feeling so well, I might think about going back. But the role would have to be something worth doing."

Why We Say--



WORLD AFFAIRS: Someone who sits by thinking up new ideas, but never puts them into practice is said to be working in an ivory tower. The expression was first used by the French poet, Sainte-Beuve (1837) in reference to his fellow poets who wrote about world affairs but never entered them. He said that they were the same as someone sitting in the typical ivory-colored lighthouse at sea trying to give advice to people on the mainland.

Fort Rosalie in Missouri was the scene of a two-day massacre in November, 1729, when Natchez Indians slaughtered 144 men, 35 women and 56 children.

Rotary Accepts Student Loan Bids to July 30

The Woodstock Rotary Club is now processing applications for their Student Loan Program, club president, Warren J. Marr, announced today.

Loans available fom the Rotary Club are more favorable for the borrower than even the Federal Student Loan Program, Marr said. Under the Woodstock Rotary plan, a student may borrow funds at no interest. Repayment of the loan begins one year after graduation or other termination of education and is spread out over a five year period.

All requests for loans should be addressed to: Student Loan Committee, Woodstock Rotary Club, Woodstock. Applicants should include in their letter the name of the college that they have applied to, the reason for applying for this loan and any other pertinent facts that they feel will help the Rotary loan committee make its decision.

Deadline for application is July 30.

Gladstone Gallery Opener Is Success

The first of the season's exhibits at Gladstone Gallery in Woodstock opened with a reception last Saturday afternoon and was attended by a large audience, including visitors from New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, Washington and California.

This exhibit, which will remain on view until July 6, is a group showing of painting and sculpture by the artists of Gladstone Gallery, including William W. Harris, Agnes Hart, Ru Israels, Lillian Keyes, Milton Leech, Irving Lehman, Bruce Gregory, Robert McFarland, Morris Mitchell, Geri Pine, Frank Rampolla, Ann Ritz, Elden Rowland, Craig Rubadoux, Frances Stein, Nat Werner and Loran Wilford.

The opening show, attractively hung on the spacious walls of the several buildings of Gladstone Gallery, brought much enthusiastic comment and favorable criticism from the viewers. This Group Show is to be followed by a series of special one-man shows and continuing group exhibits of painting and sculpture, both in the main galleries and the studio gallery.

Turnau Locale For the Annual Festival Dinner

An exciting and high level program of singing, dancing and instrumental music will begin promptly at 8 p. m. Saturday at the Turnau Opera House, following the annual 6:30 p. m. Woodstock Festival gourmet dinner of ham, turkey and roast beef.

Tickets are limited to this seventh consecutive fund raising Woodstock Festival dinner-musicale and patrons are urged to make reservations ahead of time.

Featured performers will include: baritone Alan Baker singing four Ravel songs; Karen Geiger, who will dance to music by Edgar Varese; pianist Phyllis Rappeport playing Chopin; clarinetist Barbara Cohn in a Hindemith sonata; Barbara Moncure singing folk music; Ira Deutsch on the oboe in an Abivoni concerto; and Nancy Wyner, mezzo soprano, singing lieder and songs by her husband, Yehudi Wyner.

Alan Baker, who has appeared with the Turnau Opera for the past four years, is a member of the Riverside Chamber Singers and received excellent critical notices for his recent concert of lieder in New York.

Karen Geiger, who is a member of the Jean Erdman Dance Company, has taught in New York, at Bard and in Woodstock, and toured with the Erdman Company. Spanish-born Edgar Varese, whose music she will dance to, is considered one of the most significant modern composers of our time.

Yehudi Wyner, this summer's Turnau Opera Company pianist, two years ago won a Guggenheim Award for composing, and together with Ward Pinner, manager of the Turnau, has been responsible for programming the excellent assembly for Saturday night's entertainment.

Ten Chose Three Theme for Third Artists' Show

The Woodstock Artists Association will present an exhibition entitled "Ten Choose Three" for its third show of the 1962 season.

The opening of this exhibition will be from 4 p. m. to 6 p. m. on Saturday, June 30. There will be a slight admission charge for the opening for non-members.

Admission will be free, for this and all other shows this season, except during openings. This exhibition continues from June 30 through July 19, 1962.

Ten artists, who are members of the Association have been selected to choose three works by one other artist, each. These thirty works, and one work from each of the artists making selections will comprise this exhibition. The ten artists making selections are: Franklin Alexander, Robert Angeloch, Konrad Cramer, Cornelia Hartmann, Robert Jacobson, Lillian Lent, Walter Plate, Anton Refregier, James Turnbull and Reginald Wilson. The names of the ten artists whose work will be represented by three examples will not be revealed before the opening of the exhibit.

WAA Plans Talk By Dr. Feldman In The Gallery

The Woodstock Artists Association will present a talk entitled: "The Dilemma of the Artist in the 1960's" by Dr. Edmund B. Feldman at 8:30 p. m., Friday, June 29. The talk will be given in the Artists Association Gallery.

Dr. Feldman is the chairman of the Art Division of State University College at New Paltz, New York. He was formerly an associate professor of art education in the Department of Painting, Sculpture and Design, Carnegie College of Fine Arts, Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Curator of Paintings and Sculpture, the Newark Museum, Newark, N. J.

He is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles (M.A. in Art History), and holds a doctorate in fine arts education from Columbia University. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Pittsburgh Plan for Art, a member of the National Committee on Art Education, and a member of the American Society of Aesthetics.

Dr. Feldman is an active painter and lecturer on art criticism and aesthetics.

Firemen Hoping Public Responds To Their Appeal

Imagine that it is the month of January or February. You are awakened at 3 a. m. by the sound of the siren blowing. Outside, it is 10 or 20 degrees below zero. The siren blows at least three times. Now you know that there is a fire or an emergency of some kind. Many will get out of bed and check through their house to see that everything is in order. This small task accomplished, they return to bed and sleep until morning.

There are many others who also hear the siren but they do not listen for the third blast of the siren. They are out of bed, dressed and driving out of their driveways in their cars even before their wives are fully awake. Do you know who these individuals are? They are your volunteer firemen.

What are the duties of your volunteer firemen? The volunteer fireman does not hesitate to respond to all emergencies. He will leave his dinner table, working around his home, or wherever he may be when he hears the siren.

On Perpetual Call

To sum up the duties of the volunteer fireman, it could be said that: The duties of the volunteer fireman are to respond to the aid of the public whenever and wherever necessary.

To carry out their many duties, it is necessary that the fire companies have the proper equipment and training. To obtain much of this equipment it is necessary that the four companies of the township run bazaars, dances, auctions and other promotions. These affairs cannot be successful without the support of the public.

The volunteer firemen of Woodstock feel that they have served the township in good faith and loyal service. They will continue to do so in the future. All they ask of you is to please support the Annual Bazaar of Woodstock Fire Company No. 1 being held at Andy Lee Memorial Field, Friday and Saturday evenings, June 29-30.

Homer and Marsh In Albany Show

On July 10, the Albany Institute of History and Art will have on display in one of the main galleries a collection of drawings, watercolors, sculpture and oils owned by the Walter Fillin family, Institute members living in Long Island.

The exhibition, called A Family Collection, will remain on view until Sept. 16, after which time the exhibition will tour throughout New York and the New England states.

Items of particular interest in the show include a pastel by Joseph Stella, "Boy With a Bagpipe" which has been on loan to the Museum of Modern Art for the past two years; "Evening" by Winslow Homer; two works by Edward Hopper, one an etching called "East Side Interior" and the other a watercolor entitled "Houses at Gloucester" and a watercolor, "Italian Line" by Reginald Marsh.

Doesn't Miss Acting

Percy Kilbride Is Looking Better Since Retirement

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The lean, crickety figure in tweed suit, including vest, was immediately familiar.

I had heard for years that Percy Kilbride was often seen walking along Hollywood Boulevard, but this was the first time I had seen him.

I reintroduced myself, and the hawk-nosed face brightened with a wry smile.

"Of course," he said warmly. "Still writing those things, huh? My goodness, all those words!"

The memory went back to our last conversation. It was nine years ago, and he was filming "Ma and Pa Kettle at Home." That was the seventh of the cornfed films he had made with Marjorie Main, a vastly successful series that had stemmed from their roles in "The Egg and I."

It was to be their last. Neither he nor Marjorie had any love for the series; they had quit it the year before, but returned for one more film because of Universal's inducements.

When the film was over, Kilbride kept his word; he disappeared from the acting scene. Marjorie did two more Kettles, with Arthur Hunnicutt and Parker Fennelly trying to fill Pa's soiled shoes. But it wasn't the same, and the series had had its final gasp.

Almost 74, Kilbride looked unchanged. If anything, he looked better.

"Feel better," he said in his pleasant twang. "You known on that last Kettle picture, I wasn't feeling well at all. The doctor had to keep giving me injections to keep me going. I didn't know what was wrong with me, I was afraid I was going to die."

So he quit. He had enough to live on because his needs were slight.

I asked if he missed the acting life.

"Oh no, not at all," he said cheerfully. "I find plenty to keep me busy. Now that I'm feeling so well, I might think about going back. But the role would have to be something worth doing."

Why We Say--

WORLD AFFAIRS: Someone who sits by thinking up new ideas, but never puts them into practice is said to be working in an ivory tower. The expression was first used by the French poet, Sainte-Beuve (1837) in reference to his fellow poets who wrote about world affairs but never entered them. He said that they were the same as someone sitting in the typical ivory-colored lighthouse at sea trying to give advice to people on the mainland.

Fort Rosalie in Missouri was the scene of a two-day massacre in November, 1729, when Natchez Indians slaughtered 144 men, 35 women and 56 children.

Caroline Anna Reissler, Thomas F. Mayone Are Wed in Double Ring Rite on June 24th

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS F. MAYONE

Miss Caroline Anna Reissler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Reissler of 4 Evergreen Court, Saugerties and Thomas Fred Mayone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mayone of Barclay Heights, Saugerties, were wed in a double ring ceremony 1:30 p. m. Sunday, June 24 at the home of Justice of the Peace Robert Stedge, Columbia Street, Sunset Park, Town of Ulster.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blush pink gown of pure silk organza over taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice, abbreviated sleeves and a circlet neckline. The floor length full skirt featured a rose detail. She carried a cascade of light pink carnations and stephanotis centered with white cattleya orchid, large wedding bells and white satin streamers, designed by herself.

Her honor attendant, Mrs. Agnes Winter, Woodhaven, wore a gown of azure blue fashioned with a fitted bodice, abbreviated sleeves and circlet neckline. Her headpiece was a halo of matching tulle trimmed with sequins. She carried a cascade of dark and light pink miniature carnations centered with pink roses and pink satin streamers.

Arthur Winter of Woodhaven was best man.

A reception for 300 guests was held at the Tropical Inn, Port Ewen following the ceremony.

For a wedding trip to Bermuda, the bride wore a three piece green and white linen suit with white picture hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was a white cattleya orchid. Upon their return the couple will make their home in Town of Saugerties.

A graduate of Wappingers Falls Central School, Mrs. Mayone is employed by International Business Machines as a receptionist.

Mr. Mayone, an Ulster County deputy sheriff, is also affiliated with his father in Mayone's Market, Barclay Heights. He is an alumnus of Saugerties High School and a veteran of World War II having served with the Airborne Division in the South Pacific.

Final Pageant Plans Are Announced Here

Final details for the 1962 Miss New York State Pageant were released today by George H. Moore, president of the 1962 board of directors.

"Light and Lovely," as this year's production is called, will begin Thursday night, July 5, at municipal auditorium. Three nights of talent, evening gown and swim suit competition will be climaxed Saturday night, July 7, with the crowning of Miss New York State of 1963.

Master of Ceremonies Bill Nimmo, and the 21 lovely contestants will team up this year with the popular dance team of Harrison and Pat Muller for all three performances.

The Friday and Saturday evening performances will feature the Four Doormen, well-known barbershop quartette from the Perry Como Show. This popular close-harmony group, all members of the Ray Charles Singers, will entertain the Pageant audience with several selections.

"Light and Lovely" promises to be the most outstanding of the Miss New York State Pageants ever held in Kingston. The talent skits prepared by the 21 lovely contestants, provides for a well-balanced production in the very best traditions of the entertainment business.

The 21 three-minute talent routines combine vocal numbers, dance routines, and variety skits, in approximately equal parts along with one dramatic sketch, a "career-type" demonstration and a violin solo by a young lady who is a member of the Hudson Valley Philharmonic.

The competition phases are broken down into three parts during each evening. The first phase, entitled "Moonlight in New York," is the setting for the evening gown competition. The stage is set by designer Earl Jones, of Woodstock, in a luxurious atmosphere, highly sympathetic to formal wear. The contestants are augmented by a background showing a typical "big-city" skyline, with the girls posed on a penthouse.

"Your Name in Lights," phase two of the competition, features the three-minute talent skits and will take place in a setting featuring "Broadway-type" threatre marquee. Aspiring young show business hopefuls will perform in a highly theatrical environment.

The final competition phase, featuring swim suits returns us to the penthouse set, but this time with a swimming pool to naturalize the swim suit scene. This part of the production is called "Penthouse Sun."

Preliminary winners will be announced at the conclusion of each evening's performance.

The 1962 pageant's board of directors acknowledge the contributions of individuals whose efforts are essential to this year's production.

Earl Jones, of Woodstock, designed the sets for the show. These were constructed by Donald Simek and Albert Trowbridge, with equipment furnished by the Coach House Players.

The musical director is Pete Ferraro and sound technician is Tony Bell.

Lighting, one of the most important effects in this year's production, is supervised by Daniel Butt.

Miss Louise Wallace, cosmetician, will be responsible for makeup supervision. Miss Wallace is serving as makeup director for the third time in a Miss New York State pageant.

Stage manager for the 1962 Miss New York State production is Frank A. Reis, assisted by Richard Peck and Joseph Aiello.

The national accounting firm of Peat Marwick, Mitchell & Co., represented by William E. Belser and Arthur W. Patterson will control all balloting and will audit the votes in every competition throughout the pageant.

Tickets are available at the Chamber of Commerce Office.

Crippled Children Will Benefit From Fund Campaign Here

A dinner-dance, to raise funds to send crippled children to the Shrine at Lourdes in France, will be conducted by Knights of Columbus throughout the Hudson Valley Saturday at Middletown.

It is the second such annual affair sponsored by the Hudson Valley Chapter of the K of C, and will be held in the Elks Club at Middletown.

Grand knights and members of 31 Councils throughout the Hudson Valley will attend the dinner.

Joseph McGuigan, past grand knights of Middletown Council, and State Insurance Secretary for the K of C, is general chairman of the event. McGuigan said that profits from the dance will be used to give crippled children the opportunity to go to the Shrine at Lourdes, where so many have experienced miraculous cures.

The new state deputy-elect of the Knights, Edward Kunzinger of Brooklyn, will attend. Others include Supreme Director Emmett Burke and Supreme Secretary Joseph Lamb, representing the Supreme Council of the K of C.

Tickets for the dance still are available from Grand Knights of K of C. Councils throughout the Hudson Valley.

KHS Class of 1937 Reunion Is Success; Large Attendance

The class reunion of the Kingston High School Class of 1937 held June 22 and June 23 at the Governor Clinton Hotel was a well attended social event.

A cocktail party was held Friday evening and a dinner dance on Saturday. The invocation was given by Edgar Schoonmaker of New Haven, Conn. a member of the class. Toastmaster George Svirsky introduced the following faculty members in attendance: Gladys F. Nickerson, Florence Bruckert, Marion A. Murray, Agatha Flick Snyder, G. Warren Kias and Leo J. Doheny. He then read several of many telegrams and letters from classmates unable to attend. Several humorous awards were made to various members of the class covering such categories as most number of children, least hair, largest waistline, most recently married, and youngest child. The award for having traveled the greatest distance went to Donald Mathers who came from La Jolla, Calif. Ruth Hudler Woody from Austin, Texas was runner-up.

Dr. George Rifenbary and Gilbert Richter presented a skit entitled "That Wonderful Year 1937" in which they used events taking place at Kingston High School in conjunction with national events of that year.

William Stall doing a take-off on Mitch Miller led the audience in group singing of the songs that were popular the years 1936 and 1937.

The program ended with everyone singing the "Alma Mater."

Dinner music was furnished by Howard Hotaling who also played for the group singing.

Dancing was to the music of Wendell "Speed" Scherer's orchestra, the songs played for dancing were those that were popular during high school days.

The committee for the reunion was as follows: Gilbert Richter and George Svirsky, co-chairmen, assisted by Robert Delanoy, Ruth Hotaling Freer, William Stall, Florence Rafalowsky Gossett, Anna Albany Manfro, Walter Burger, Harry Wilber, Evelyn Winfield Baltz, Helen Tsitsera, George Rifenbary, Kathryn Watzka Caprotti, Laura Schoonmaker Kaiser, Virginia Dittus Ellis, Harriet Levine Katatsky, Ralph Stewart, Olive Saehloff Stewart, Dorothy Shapiro, Catherine Weierich Dittus and Craig Plough.

"Light and Lovely," as this year's production is called, will begin Thursday night, July 5, at municipal auditorium. Three nights of talent, evening gown and swim suit competition will be climaxed Saturday night, July 7, with the crowning of Miss New York State of 1963.

Master of Ceremonies Bill Nimmo, and the 21 lovely contestants will team up this year with the popular dance team of Harrison and Pat Muller for all three performances.

The Friday and Saturday evening performances will feature the Four Doormen, well-known barbershop quartette from the Perry Como Show. This popular close-harmony group, all members of the Ray Charles Singers, will entertain the Pageant audience with several selections.

"Light and Lovely" promises to be the most outstanding of the Miss New York State Pageants ever held in Kingston. The talent skits prepared by the 21 lovely contestants, provides for a well-balanced production in the very best traditions of the entertainment business.

The 21 three-minute talent routines combine vocal numbers, dance routines, and variety skits, in approximately equal parts along with one dramatic sketch, a "career-type" demonstration and a violin solo by a young lady who is a member of the Hudson Valley Philharmonic.

The competition phases are broken down into three parts during each evening. The first phase, entitled "Moonlight in New York," is the setting for the evening gown competition. The stage is set by designer Earl Jones, of Woodstock, in a luxurious atmosphere, highly sympathetic to formal wear. The contestants are augmented by a background showing a typical "big-city" skyline, with the girls posed on a penthouse.

"Your Name in Lights," phase two of the competition, features the three-minute talent skits and will take place in a setting featuring "Broadway-type" threatre marquee. Aspiring young show business hopefuls will perform in a highly theatrical environment.

The final competition phase, featuring swim suits returns us to the penthouse set, but this time with a swimming pool to naturalize the swim suit scene. This part of the production is called "Penthouse Sun."

Preliminary winners will be announced at the conclusion of each evening's performance.

The 1962 pageant's board of directors acknowledge the contributions of individuals whose efforts are essential to this year's production.

Earl Jones, of Woodstock, designed the sets for the show. These were constructed by Donald Simek and Albert Trowbridge, with equipment furnished by the Coach House Players.

The musical director is Pete Ferraro and sound technician is Tony Bell.

Lighting, one of the most important effects in this year's production, is supervised by Daniel Butt.

Miss Louise Wallace, cosmetician, will be responsible for makeup supervision. Miss Wallace is serving as makeup director for the third time in a Miss New York State pageant.

Stage manager for the 1962 Miss New York State production is Frank A. Reis, assisted by Richard Peck and Joseph Aiello.

The national accounting firm of Peat Marwick, Mitchell & Co., represented by William E. Belser and Arthur W. Patterson will control all balloting and will audit the votes in every competition throughout the pageant.

Tickets are available at the Chamber of Commerce Office.

Crippled Children Will Benefit From Fund Campaign Here

A dinner-dance, to raise funds to send crippled children to the Shrine at Lourdes in France, will be conducted by Knights of Columbus throughout the Hudson Valley Saturday at Middletown.

It is the second such annual affair sponsored by the Hudson Valley Chapter of the K of C, and will be held in the Elks Club at Middletown.

Grand knights and members of 31 Councils throughout the Hudson Valley will attend the dinner.

Joseph McGuigan, past grand knights of Middletown Council, and State Insurance Secretary for the K of C, is general chairman of the event. McGuigan said that profits from the dance will be used to give crippled children the opportunity to go to the Shrine at Lourdes, where so many have experienced miraculous cures.

The new state deputy-elect of the Knights, Edward Kunzinger of Brooklyn, will attend. Others include Supreme Director Emmett Burke and Supreme Secretary Joseph Lamb, representing the Supreme Council of the K of C.

Tickets for the dance still are available from Grand Knights of K of C. Councils throughout the Hudson Valley.

KHS Class of 1937 Reunion Is Success; Large Attendance

The class reunion of the Kingston High School Class of 1937 held June 22 and June 23 at the Governor Clinton Hotel was a well attended social event.

A cocktail party was held Friday evening and a dinner dance on Saturday. The invocation was given by Edgar Schoonmaker of New Haven, Conn. a member of the class. Toastmaster George Svirsky introduced the following faculty members in attendance: Gladys F. Nickerson, Florence Bruckert, Marion A. Murray, Agatha Flick Snyder, G. Warren Kias and Leo J. Doheny. He then read several of many telegrams and letters from classmates unable to attend. Several humorous awards were made to various members of the class covering such categories as most number of children, least hair, largest waistline, most recently married, and youngest child. The award for having traveled the greatest distance went to Donald Mathers who came from La Jolla, Calif. Ruth Hudler Woody from Austin, Texas was runner-up.

Dr. George Rifenbary and Gilbert Richter presented a skit entitled "That Wonderful Year 1937" in which they used events taking place at Kingston High School in conjunction with national events of that year.

William Stall doing a take-off on Mitch Miller led the audience in group singing of the songs that were popular the years 1936 and 1937.

The program ended with everyone singing the "Alma Mater."

Dinner music was furnished by Howard Hotaling who also played for the group singing.

Dancing was to the music of Wendell "Speed" Scherer's orchestra, the songs played for dancing were those that were popular during high school days.

The committee for the reunion was as follows: Gilbert Richter and George Svirsky, co-chairmen, assisted by Robert Delanoy, Ruth Hotaling Freer, William Stall, Florence Rafalowsky Gossett, Anna Albany Manfro, Walter Burger, Harry Wilber, Evelyn Winfield Baltz, Helen Tsitsera, George Rifenbary, Kathryn Watzka Caprotti, Laura Schoonmaker Kaiser, Virginia Dittus Ellis, Harriet Levine Katatsky, Ralph Stewart, Olive Saehloff Stewart, Dorothy Shapiro, Catherine Welerich Dittus and Craig Plough.

Three officers who were not present will be installed at a later meeting.

They Should Be Crisp!

Make sure those crackers you are serving with a spread are crisp! Heat them in a hot oven for a few minutes; they'll cool and re-crisp while you are arranging them on a serving dish.

Mrs. Mary Camps, chairman of sponsors, also assisted during the ceremony.

The Junior Stars will hold a picnic for the group on Saturday, July 14 and a three-day rummage sale on Oct. 17-18-19 at a place to be announced.

The next meeting is scheduled for Saturday night, Sept. 22, at Masonic Temple in Kingston.

Buffalo Philharmonic Announces Season; New Contract Signed

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The Buffalo Philharmonic Society will begin its 1962-63 concert season, as scheduled, on July 6 following settlement of a labor dispute which threatened to cancel the season.

The American Federation of Musicians Local 43 Tuesday accepted a new two-year contract with the society providing for $5 weekly pay raises for each year of the contract and a 29-week season for 1963-64.

"We accepted the contract in the interests of culture," said union president Salvatore Rizzo. The 87-member society announced last week that it would cancel the season unless a settlement was reached by today.

The 1962-63 programs of the Rochester Civic and Philharmonic Orchestras were cancelled last weekend after a similar dispute.

The Buffalo Philharmonic's new season opens with an eight-week summer pops concert program, beginning July 6.

Double Nuptials of Wurtsboro Twins Held Saturday, June 23rd; Wed to Kingston Men

MRS. PETER JOSEPH BRUCK JR.
(Photo Workshop photo)

The double wedding of the Misses Antoinette Marie and Estelle Ann Nigro, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony R. Nigro of Wurtsboro to Peter Joseph Bruck Jr. and Irving Francis Wisneski was solemnized at St. Joseph's Church, Wurtsboro, Saturday, June 23, at noon.

Mr. Bruck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Bruck Sr. of Kingston. Mr. Wisneski is the stepson of Mrs. Adolph Wisneski of Kingston and the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wisneski.

The solemn high nuptial Mass was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis X. Mahoney, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Wurtsboro. The Rev. E. Harold Smith of Our Saviour Church, Bronx, served as deacon and the Rev. Bernard Gerrity of St. Catherine Laboure Church, Lake Katrine as sub-deacon.

The brides were given in marriage by their father. The couples were honor attendants for each other at the double ring ceremony.

Organist was James Sweeney, uncle of Mr. Bruck, and soloist was his wife, Eleanor Sweeney.

The brides wore identical white gowns fashioned with re-embroidered Belgian lace, silk organza posed over taffeta with tiny sleeves of lace, scalloped circlet necklines, fitted bodices, bouffant hooped skirts, with panels of lace at sides from waist to hemline and sweeping back to chapel trains. Their veils of imported silk illusion were very full and gathered to crowns with two large hand rolled silk organza roses. They carried white phalaenopsis orchids on white missals with cascades of stephanotis and green ivy.

Other attendants were: Mrs. William Harder, Kingston, sister of Mr. Bruck; Miss Anna Workes, Miss Anita Zoppi, Miss Maryann Zoppi, all of Bloomfield, N. J., and all cousins of the brides, and Miss Terry Ann Nigro, Middletown, niece of the brides, was junior bridesmaid.

The junior bridesmaid wore a pastel pink floorlength gown with circlet neckline, short sleeves, molded bodice, full skirt of silk organza over taffeta. Her headpiece was a matching silk organza bow with a flirtation veil. She carried a cascade of pink carnations and sweetheart roses.

The four bridesmaids wore azalea pink floorlength gowns with matching headpieces, styled identically to that of the junior bridesmaid. They carried cascades of pink carnations.

Ushers were Robert Beberwyck, Kingston; James Bruck, and John Bruck, the bridegroom's brothers, Kingston and Joseph Pillmeier of Lomontville.

Reception and dinner for approximately 275 guests followed the ceremony at the Sha-Wan-Ga Lodge in High View.

23rd Annual Picnic Set By Immaculate Conception Parish

The combined societies of the Immaculate Conception Church met last Thursday evening in the school hall and set Sunday, July 15, as the date for the 23rd annual parish picnic, to be held on the church grounds from 3 to 11 p. m., rain or shine.

The committees under the chairmanship of John Grabiec and Peter Melnik as co-chairman, announce that there will be new forms of entertainment to assure all those attending this annual affair an afternoon and evening of enjoyment.

A buffet supper will be served starting at 4 p. m. under the supervision of Mrs. Anne McCullough and Mrs. Florence Melnik. Refreshments will be on sale throughout the afternoon and evening. Several booths will feature picnic items and there will be entertainment for both young and old.

On various committees are George Schatzel and John Wojciechowski, refreshments; Mrs. Pearl Reis and Miss Mary Grabiec, tickets; Mrs. Julia Hayes and Mrs. Helen Grabiec, ice cream.

Serving on various committees are Mrs. Mary Wojciechowski, Mrs. Mary Berardi, Thomas Berardi, George Reis, Vincent Stopczynski, John Buboltz, the Misses Frances and Anna Lukasewski, Mrs. Martha Jordan and Mrs. Sophie Cole.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph Sieczek, pastor of the church, and the committees extend an invitation to all the parishioners and their friends and the general public to participate in this annual event.

Entire proceeds from this affair will go toward the new school. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the committee, at the rectory, 467 Delaware Avenue, or at the gate July 15.

At the Markets

MEAT — Meat prices are rising seasonally with quick cooking cuts leading the up-swing. Prices for retail pork cuts, particularly loins, chops, and bacon, are up. Lamb marketings have been rather low, and prices are higher. Here again, quick cooking chops are selling at higher levels. Most beef cuts remain unchanged in price. Broilers and frozen turkeys continue as outstanding choices.

EGGS — Eggs are admirable choices for summer meals because of convenience, food value, and price.

DAIRY PRODUCTS — Milk combines well with many other products for refreshing summer drinks. Don't forget that ice cream is one of the most convenient of desserts to serve.

FRUITS — A much wider variety of fruit choices, selling at reasonable prices, awaits shoppers. Melons are more plentiful — primarily watermelons and cantaloupes. Strawberries, blueberries, cherries, rhubarb, and mangoes are good choices.

VEGETABLES — Seasonsonal weather has brought increased vegetable marketings, and prices are headed down. Miscellaneous leafy greens, spinach, lettuce, endive, and escarole continue in good supply and there are plenty of cucumbers, corn, cabbage, beets, and green onions.

At the Markets

MEAT — Meat prices are rising seasonally with quick cooking cuts leading the up-swing. Prices for retail pork cuts, particularly loins, chops, and bacon, are up. Lamb marketings have been rather low, and prices are higher. Here again, quick cooking chops are selling at higher levels. Most beef cuts remain unchanged in price. Broilers and frozen turkeys continue as outstanding choices.

EGGS — Eggs are admirable choices for summer meals because of convenience, food value, and price.

DAIRY PRODUCTS — Milk combines well with many other products for refreshing summer drinks. Don't forget that ice cream is one of the most convenient of desserts to serve.

FRUITS — A much wider variety of fruit choices, selling at reasonable prices, awaits shoppers. Melons are more plentiful — primarily watermelons and cantaloupes. Strawberries, blueberries, cherries, rhubarb, and mangoes are good choices.

VEGETABLES — Seasonsonal weather has brought increased vegetable marketings, and prices are headed down. Miscellaneous leafy greens, spinach, lettuce, endive, and escarole continue in good supply and there are plenty of cucumbers, corn, cabbage, beets, and green onions.

INVITING ABSENT FRIEND TO WEDDING

Q—A close family friend has been visiting a relative on the West Coast for the past month and is not expected back for several more weeks. My daughter is going to be married in the meantime and there is a question as to whether or not this friend should be sent an invitation even though she will not be here at the time of the wedding. I say that an invitation should be sent to her house so that when she returns home she will know that she was on the wedding list. My daughter thinks it would be ridiculous to send an invitation under the circumstances and that she will take it as a bid for a wedding present. Will you please tell us the correct thing to do in this situation?

A—Even though you do know that she will be away, an invitation should be sent to her at her house. This invitation will not obligate her to send a wedding present.

Seating Bridegroom's Divorced Parents

Q—I am going to be married soon and have a problem in regard to seating at the wedding reception. I know that ordinarily the bridegroom's mother and father are seated at the same table, but my fiance's mother and father are divorced and I don't know whether it would be proper to seat them both at the family table. Neither of them has remarried. Will you please advise me?

A—Even if they have remained on friendly terms, it would be in bad taste to seat the bridegroom's divorced parents at the same table.

Seating Man and Two Women

Q—When a man goes to the theatre or to a concert with two women, what is the correct seating arrangements? Would it not be better if he sat between them?

A—Correctly, the women enter the row of seats ahead of the man who then takes the aisle (or last seat). To sit between the two women is not only a mistake of good form, but of convenience, since he cannot avoid turning his head away from one when talking with the other. Sitting at the end he faces both.

Vice Chairman Is Named for Chest Drive in County

WILLIAM R. STALL

The appointment of William R. Stall as vice chairman of the 1962 Ulster County Community Chest Campaign was announced today by W. Henry Haltermann, campaign chairman.

Stall, assistant vice president of the Savings & Loan Association of Kingston, is a graduate of Kingston High and Moran Business School.

Stall is presently vice president of the Ulster County Community Chest, vice president of the Southeastern New York League of Savings & Loan Associations, a director of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce and an active member of the Lions Club.

"I know," says Stall, "that the vice chairman of the annual Community Chest Campaign has his work cut out for him, but I believe that the Community Chest idea makes sense. One appeal for several separate agencies saves in time and unnecessary campaign expenses. Also, a hard working Chest budget committee assures the contributor that his gift is being carefully allocated."

"The Chest," according to Chairman Haltermann, "is fortunate to have Stall as vice chairman. His convictions about Community Chest are firm and his abilities unquestionable. We know that Stall will add strength to our campaign organization."

Pack 9 Den Has Family Picnic

The Cubs from Den 2 of Pack 9 sponsored by the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer recently held a festive game day and den family picnic at Den Mother Mrs. Blankschan's backyard.

The yard was gayly decorated with colored tape which fenced in an area that held 10 games made by the Cubs, Ted Blankschan, Robert Burger, Glenn and Gordon Stoutenburg and John Fodor.

The Cubs had a refreshment stand and a table of articles for sale. During the afternoon many friends, neighbors and relatives of the Cubs visited, played the games and bought refreshments and articles.

At 6 p. m. the Cubs and their families enjoyed a picnic which ended the den meetings for the summer.

The proceeds from the game day and a newspaper drive which the boys of Den 2 conducted totaled $14.33 which the den presented to the Cubmaster Theodore Blankschan to add to the pack treasury.

Oran Calm Again After Explosions

ALGIERS (AP)—French army headquarters said today calm had returned to the west Algerian capital of Oran after a rampage of destruction by diehard European terrorists defying cease-fire orders from the Secret Army Organization.

Sporadic Shooting

Eight plastic bomb explosions damaged schools and public buildings Wednesday while sporadic shooting in several areas of the city pitted Europeans against Europeans.

The army said radio reports from its Oran headquarters indicated there had been no violence since 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Demonstrations of joy were reported from Oran's Moslem areas, separated from the European sectors of the city by barbed wire.

Secret army leaders in Oran as well as Algiers ordered an end to resistance and urged the European population to join the Moslem majority in rebuilding the ravaged territory.

The quiet came three days before the self-determination referendum that will vote Algeria independent.

Return Is Asked

"Take heart, peace reigns from Oran to Bone," declared a secret army broadcast Wednesday night from Algiers by Jean-Jacques Susini, who negotiated the peace pact with the Moslem nationalists that ended terrorism in Algiers 11 days ago.

Susini called on the Europeans who fled Algeria to return and help the Moslems build a new nation out of the ruins of the secret army's last-ditch scorched earth campaign to keep the territory French.

Authorities were encouraged by reports that the nominal secret army head, ex-Gen. Paul Gardy, had fled Oran to Spain with his closest collaborators.

Criterions Will CompeteSaturday At Bridgeport

The Criterions Drum and Bugle Corps of the Kingston area will appear in the "Champions on Parade" at Hedge Stadium, Bridgeport, Conn., Saturday at 8 p. m.

This marching and manuvering competition is one of the main features of the week-long P. T. Barnum Festival.

Such outstanding corps as the National American Legion Champions The Caballeros of Hawthorne, N. J. and the New York State American Legion Champions, The Crusaders of Rochester will appear, along with other top corps of the country.

Mix ground leftover cooked meat with mashed potatoes and a slightly beaten egg; season well and form into patties. Heat and brown the patties in shallow fat.

Remove Loose Dirt

Some of the new metal primers can be applied over rusted surfaces. They are useful when it is impossible to steel-wool or sand the rust away down to the bare metal. But be sure that all loose rust has been removed because even these special primers require a firm surface for lasting adhesion. However, no paint does as well over rust as it does over a clean surface.

Expect Solution Today in Death OfDutchessYouth

Dutchess County authorities expect to have a solution later today for the death of Jean A. Chamberlain, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Chamberlain, Town of LaGrange, who died Tuesday night in the kitchen of a neighbor's home.

The youth's death was due to asphyxiation resulting from a fractured larnyx, an autopsy disclosed. Chamberlain was president of the junior class at Wappingers Central High School, and active in Boy Scouting.

Sheriff Lawrence M. Quinlan was quoted as saying, authorities don't know exactly how the youth was injured but it is possible he may have gone to a house being built near his home and fell, hitting his throat on some obstruction in the building.

Five Face Court Action Damage To Farm Vehicles

An 18-year-old youth and four boys, all under 16, face court action as the result of an investigation by the sheriff's office of acts of malicious mischief which resulted in damage to two farm tractors on the Archie Van Benschoeten farm near Mt. Marion.

Ulster County Investigator Arthur H. Brown said S. J. Hasbrouck, of Hurley, left a farm tractor and corn planter on the Van Benschoeten farm last weekend, and Sunday the machines were damaged.

The four boys and youth reportedly operated the tractor with corn planter attached over freshly planted corn fields on the Van Benschoeten farm and smashed the tractor into another farm machine, damaging both.

According to Brown he has petitioned the four boys to Children's Court, and said he will institute court action against the 18-year-old youth, who was not identified.

Association Is Formed Here by Insurance Women

The Insurance Women of Kingston held an organizational meeting at the Governor Clinton Hotel on Wednesday, which was conducted by Thelma Barger, president of the Federation of New York Insurance Women's Clubs.

The guest speaker was Annette C. Cirbus, who is the club organizer for the Federation. She presented the object and general purpose of the organization and helped to lay the ground work for the new club.

Officers for the organization, who were appointed at the meeting, are Cordelia Feltman of the Howard R. St. John, Inc. Agency, president; Ann Greco of the Roland A. Augustine Agency, vice president; Kay Levy of the Herman J. Eaton agency, secretary, and Maryrose Lamaro of the Augustine agency, treasurer.

These new officers will be installed at the next meeting of the Insurance Women of Kingston which will be held in the Court House, here on August 8, at 8 p. m. All insurance women are urged to attend.

Death Ruled Accidental

RUTLAND, Vt. (AP)—Vermont authorities have closed the case of Douglas Mayer McKee, 4, who was found suffocated in a suitcase in his grandparents' home at Bennington June 16.

A final conference of state, local and county investigators was held Wednesday at Rutland state police barracks. Afterward, Bennington County State's Atty. John A. Burgess said:

"It was concluded by all of those present that the death was from suffocation accidentally caused during play. The case was accordingly closed.

The boy was found dead in the suitcase when his mother, Mrs. Donald M. McKee, went to look for him June 16, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand L. Mayer.

Possessing Blackjack Brings Fine of $15

A 42-year-old Marlboro man was arrested Wednesday by Highland State troopers and Marlboro Police Chief George Kniffin on a charge of possessing a blackjack in violation of Section 1897 of the Penal law.

Sergeant Robert Smith said Woodrow Wilson Wansley, of Route 9W, Marlboro, was permitted to plead to a reduced charge of disorderly conduct on recommendation of Assistant District Attorney Joseph Torraca.

Wansley was arranged before Town of Lloyd Justice of the Peace Phillip Schunk, who fined the defendant $15 and suspended a six month jail sentence.

Large Increase

Betwen 1940 and 1960, the number of U. S. teen-agers increased about four million to 25,856,000. A much larger increase is expected by 1980, when the Census Bureau estimates the nation will have 41,071,000 youths between 12 and 20.

Complain About Paint

CORNWALL, Ont. (AP)—Cornwall residents near the new Cornwall-Massena International Bridge are complaining to the bridge authority about specks of paint splattering their cars.

The complaints, from as far as a mile from the bridge, coincide with application of a last coat of aluminum paint on the structure, to be opened officially July 3.

Dutchess Mother Dies as Cars of Sons in Collision

A 50-year-old Dover Plains mother of 13 children, whose husband was killed in a highway crash on Feb. 6, was fatally injured Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in a headon collision, Town of Dover.

Two sons of the victim were operating the cars at the time of yesterday's crash. It was Dutchess county's 21st highway death of 1962.

Killed in Wednesday's collision was Mrs. Clara Laura Savoy, of Old Route 22, Dover Plains. She was pronounced dead at the hospital in Sharon, Conn. Death was due to a crushed chest, fractured skull and possible broken neck.

Mrs. Savoy's husband, James, 49, was fatally injured Feb. 6 when his 1962 car was involved in a collision on Route 22 near Dover Plains with a tractor-trailer operated by Robert Edward Wolf, 27, of Windham. Savoy was on his way back to pick up one of his sons at a nearby farm, when he apparently suffered a heart attack and lost control of his car as it rammed into the tractor.

Same Trooper Investigates

Trooper Matthew DisPasquale, Dover Plains, investigated both fatal accidents. Reporting yesterday's collision, the trooper told The Freeman the cars involved were operated by Ralph Savoy, 23, and Stanley Savoy, 25, sons of the victim.

The trooper said Ralph was driving a 1960 car owned by his mother, traveling north on Lime Kiln Road, Town of Dover, and his brother, Stanley, was driving a 1955 car owned by Ralph south on the same secondary road, when the cars crashed headon near the brow of a hill.

DiPasquale stated that tire marks on the pavement indicated the car driven by Stanley failed to keep to the right as the vehicle passed over the top of the hill, but no charges were lodged.

Thrown From Car

Mrs. Savoy was ejected from the car in which she was riding. The vehicle was operated by Stanley.

Other passengers in the same car were children of Mrs. Savoy: Ethel, 18, who suffered lacerations of the face, forehead and a cerebral concussion; Frank, 13, lacerations of the face and forehead and bruises and abrasions of the body; Lewis, 11, cerebral concussion, severe lacerations of the scalp and multiple body bruises; John, 12, lacerations of the head and jaw and body bruises and abrasions.

Ralph Savoy received lacerations of the face, lips and forehead, and his brother, Stanley, suffered lacerations of the scalp and neck and body bruises.

The injured were taken to the Sharon Hospital in the Dover Plains Fire Department ambulance and private cars operated by neighbors.

Tops 75-Player Field

Wiggie de Lisio's 81 Leads Wiltwyck Invitational Golf

It wasn't entirely predictable that she would win. But when she did nobody seemed greatly surprised. Such is the domination that Mrs. A. J. (Wiggie) de Lisio enjoys over area women's golf these days.

The peerless Woodstock Country Club shotmaker fired low gross of 42-39—81 Wednesday to pace the 75-player field in the annual Wiltwyck Women's Invitational by nine shots.

The Ulster County and Florida West Coast champion was threatened only by Mary Diana, the gifted Middletown golfer and bowler. Miss Diana was out in 44, only two strokes behind the leader, but needed 46 shots in the homecoming nine for a 90. Mrs. deLisio also had second low net in Class A with 81-3—78.

Another prominent bowler making steady progress in golf, Mrs. Charlotte Lapine of Wiltwyck, celebrated her promotion to the Class A division by posting low net with a 95 gross and 19 handicap for 76. She carded nines of 48-46.

Mrs. Spiesman Wins

Mrs. Clifford Spiesman of Wiltwyc excelled in Class B where nines of 46-48 gave her low gross (94) and a 22-stroke allowance enabled her to also post low net of 72. Four players trailed Mrs. Spiesman at 102 gross. Second low net honors in B went to Mrs. L. Campbell of Normanside (Albany) with 102-28—74.

Miss Teresa Klein of Dutchess led the Class C gross with 51-54—105 and 33 handicap gave her low net of 72. Runnerup was Mrs. Joseph E. McGrath of Powelton with 109-33—76.

Other low scores in Class A gross were: Mrs. Ed Spiesman, Stamford, 44-49—93; Mrs. Roland Riegel, Shawangunk, 50-44—94.

The summaries:

(Class A Scores)

Mrs. Charlotte Lapine, Wiltwyck, 95-19-76; Mrs. Roland Riegel, Shw., 94-12-82; Mrs. Ed Spiesman, Stamford, 93-11-82; Mary Diana, Middletown, 90-10-80; Mrs. A. J. de Lisio, Woodstock, 81-3-78; Mrs. B. Chilson, Twaalfskill, 100-17-83; Mrs. D. J. Perrott, Powelton, 103-19-84; Mrs. W. D. Harris, Tw, 99-13-86; Mrs. George C. Rifenbary, Wilt., 106-19-87.

(Class B Scores)

Mrs. Clifford Spiesman, Wilt., 94-22-72; Mrs. L. Campbell, Norm., 102-28-74; Mrs. H. DeWitt, Wilt., 103-25-78; Mrs. Gerald Overbaugh, RVW, 106-28-78; Mrs. Joseph Brady, RVW, 102-23-79; Mrs. A. Inger Walker Wins Monthly Woodstock Trophy Tourney

Mrs. Inger Walker posted a net score of 71 to win the Monthly Trophy tournament at the Woodstock Country Club. She fired 45-47-92 gross and had 19 strokes allowance.

Two strokes off the pace was Mrs. Alex Sharpe Jr., with 97-24-73. She had nines of 48-49. Other low net scores were: Mrs. Doris Murray, 97-23-74, with 51-46; Mrs. Claude Needes, 102-26-76, with a pair of 51's.

Other low net scores: Mrs. Charles E. Burnett, 90-13-77; Mrs. Joseph Fitzsimmons, 97-20-77; Mrs. Eleanor Van Gogh, 110-32-78; Mrs. Joseph Forno, 102-22-80; Mrs. Buff Olin, 114-34-880; Mrs. Clair Shaffer, 116-36-80.

Mrs. Alvin Moscowitz posted 126-45-81; Mrs. Philip Salet, 113-31-82; Mrs. Albert Bernard, 112-24-88; Mrs. Walter Van Wagenen, 114-25-89; Mrs. Jean Hildebrandt, 107-17-90.

The victory gave Mrs. Walker her second leg on the Monthly Trophy which must be won three times for permanent possession.

Other names on the trophy are: Mrs. Claude Needes, twice; and Mrs. Kermit Schwartz, Mrs. Joseph Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Joseph Forno, once each.

7 Amateurs, 128 Pros Tee Off on Tough Chi Course

CHICAGO (AP)—A field of 128 professionals and 7 amateurs teed off on a golf course that defies anyone to take it apart.

Par 71 for the 7,110-yard Medinah No. 3 appeared a big challenge as the game's stars tried to position their shots along the tree-flanked fairways and eight dogleg holes that require precision drives.

Daily 18-hole rounds will lead to the windup Sunday and most of the pros looked for a 72-hole score of from 282 to even par 284 to take the $10,000 first prize.

For the first two rounds, defending champion Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, the man who defeated him 71-74 recently in a playoff for the National Open crown at Oakmont are paired together.

RFA Star Signs Bonus Contract With Dodgers

ROME, N. Y. (AP) — Jerry Burlison, 18, a catcher for Rome Free Academy, has signed a professional baseball contract with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

He was signed Wednesday shortly after he graduated from the school. A spokesman for the National League club said the Dodgers paid Burlison a bonus "substantially exceeding $10,000."

The youth had a batting average over .400 at Rome this year. He was assigned to the Dodgers' Triple A Pacific Coast League affiliate at Spokane, Wash.

Gardner Excels In Relief Stint

The casts were strangely different and the imported, high priced professionals were missing—on both sides.

And another thing was truly different—praise the Lord!—Wednesday night at Dietz Stadium, as the "home-grown" Kingston Braves outlasted the Poughkeepsie Hoe-Bowls, 13-12, in the New York-New Jersey League home opener for the locals.

It was a wild and loosely played contest in a traditionally chilly stadium, but at the end of the 3 hours, 40 minute struggle, Manager Dick Bartsch and general manager, Fred Davi, had something to cheer about, Kingston had beaten Poughkeepsie in the NY-NJ League! Sounds like a routine accomplishment, but it isn't. It's as rare as the dinosaur tooth.

Kingstn exploded for nine runs in the first inning, a stunning development that must have shook the ground all the way to the Queen City. Then came the counter rally, as Poughkeepsie reeled off inning totals of 5-3-3 to lead 11-9. Then it was 11-10 Hoes, 12-10 and 13-10 Kingston. The visitors picked up their last run in the 8th. What proved to be the Braves' winning tally in the seventh was the result of two hits, a stolen base, in keeping with the pattern of a game in which four pitchers surrendered 25 hits, 15 walks and their teammates contributed 12 errors.

Gardner Excels

A stout relief pitching chore by Paul Gardner saved the Kingston victory, after starter Mike Spada yielded six hits and eight runs in two innings. Gardner survived an early flurry, then settled down to allow only one run in the last five innings, while striking out five.

Vince Smedes, Chick Boice and Dick Bartsch Jr. slugged two hits each for Kingston and Bartsch further distinguished himself by throwing out three would-be base stealers. The only extra baser was a triple by Poughkeepsie's Butch Veronese, who also added a single.

The game was preceded by a motorcade, with Mayor John J. Schwenk and the 1962 Page One Queen, Sara Imhoff, leading the players in convertibles from Delaware Avenue and Broadway to the stadium. Among the personalities introduced in pre-game ceremonies at the stadium were Mayor Schwenk, the Page One Queen, Lou Maines, president of the Kingston Community Baseball Association; Sam Perry, chairman of the motorcade; and Ad Jones, chairman of the association's board of directors. Mayor Schwenk and the Page One Queen went to the pitching mound where the mayor threw out the first ball.

Now 1-1 in the NY-NJ standings, the Braves take on Newburgh Saturday night at 8:30 at the stadium.

Far Out Fan

BALTIMORE (NEA) — Fans go far afield to get tickets to professional football games, but a mailman in Baltimore really goes all out.

Joseph Benedict is enamored with the Cleveland Browns and not a bit concerned that their home games are played 400 miles from Baltimore. He has just bought a season ticket for the Brown's home games, explaining: "I used to take in two or three Browns' games a year and, although it's a bit of a strain on a mailman's budget, I decided to see all of them this season."

Benedict also ordered tickets for a pre-season double-header, Aug. 18, when the Browns play the Pittsburgh Steelers and Detroit plays Dallas.

Sickler's Belts Lion's Club, 11-2

Keith Nickerson tossed up a two-hitter and got seven-hit backing, including doubles by Greg Rios and Joe Bailey, from his teammates Wednesday as Sickler's Delivery trounced the Lions Club 11-2 in an American Little League game.

Rios also had two singles and delivered one of the key hits in the winners' five run second inning. Tom Dittus also chipped in with a key bingle in the second.

Marshall Byrd and Mike Milano had the two hits for the Lions Club.

Nickerson worked the distance, struck out five and gave up seven free passes to pick up the win. Wayne Parmale and Tom Gallo passed eight and struck out seven. Parmale was tagged with the loss.

Braves Notch Eighth Victory

The champion Braves completed their first-half schedule in the Glasco-East Kingston Little League with a 16 to 5 rout of the Giants. It was their 8th win in nine games. They breezed after a 9-run first inning.

Chuck Misasi limited the Giants to seven hits and struck out 10 to gain his second win against no defeats. Tom Riozzi (0-2) was touched up for 12 hits by the Braves. He fanned 8.

Hank Rua led the Giants with his second home run and a single. Howard Hackney slammed his first round tripper for the winners. Fred Serravallo stroked a double and two singles and Bill Maloney had a single-double combination. Misasi helped his own cause with a pair of singles.

Paul Watzka and Rick Clausi also hit doubles.

Dodgers Win, 7-3, Behind 2-Hitter

Warren Kelder slammed a home run and Chip Grover smacked a double to back up the two hit pitching of Charles Howell and Chip Grover and pace the Dodgers to a 7-3 win in a National Little League game Wednesday.

Howell and Grover posted 14 strikeouts for the winners. Grover got the win.

Besides his circut clout, Kelder had a single and teammates Darwak, Howell, Kidd and Guldy chipped in with a single apiece. W. Sissca and R. DeGroat had the two singles for the Giants.

A. J. Murphy Raps Eighth Home Run

A. J. Murphy clouted his 8th home run of the season and hurled a 4-hitter, as the Jays downed the Owls, 7 to 1, in Jaycee Little League action Wednesday.

Murphy had a two bagger in addition to his blast. He fanned 12 batters and walked only two in gaining the decision over Bobby Walker, who fanned nine and passed six.

A double by Jack Mautner, a passed ball and an error helped the Jays to three runs in the first inning. They added two in the second on Murphy's round tripper and another in the sixth on a passed ball.

The Owls spoiled Murphy's bid for a shutout in the bottom of the sixth when Jordan Pauker connected for his second single of the game and eventually scored on a wild pitch by Murphy.

Giants Squeeze By Indians, 3-1

The Giants moved into first place a half game ahead of the Indians Tuesday by edging the Indians 3-1 on 11 walks and three hits in an Esopus Legion Little League game Wednesday.

John Fitzgerald, Dick Kren, and Jeff Lisman picked up all three of the Giants' hits and Kren tallied three of the winning runs.

The Indians picked up five safeties including a four bagger by John Fitzgerald and a double by Rich Mott.

Lisman worked the route, struck out 14 and walked eight Indian batters to pick up the win while Doug Freeman and Fitzgerald were teaming up to strike out 10 and walk 11 Giants. Freeman was tabbed with the loss.

Braves Edge Poughkeepsie, 13-12, in NY-NJ Home Opener

Tops 75-Player Field

Wiggie de Lisio's 81 Leads Wiltwyck Invitational Golf

It wasn't entirely predictable that she would win. But when she did nobody seemed greatly surprised. Such is the domination that Mrs. A. J. (Wiggie) de Lisio enjoys over area women's golf these days.

The peerless Woodstock Country Club shotmaker fired low gross of 42-39—81 Wednesday to pace the 75-player field in the annual Wiltwyck Women's Invitational by nine shots.

The Ulster County and Florida West Coast champion was threatened only by Mary Diana, the gifted Middletown golfer and bowler. Miss Diana was out in 44, only two strokes behind the leader, but needed 46 shots in the homecoming nine for a 90. Mrs. deLisio also had second low net in Class A with 81-3—78.

Another prominent bowler making steady progress in golf, Mrs. Charlotte Lapine of Wiltwyck, celebrated her promotion to the Class A division by posting low net with a 95 gross and 19 handicap for 76. She carded nines of 48-46.

Mrs. Spiesman Wins

Mrs. Clifford Spiesman of Wiltwyc excelled in Class B where nines of 46-48 gave her low gross (94) and a 22-stroke allowance enabled her to also post low net of 72. Four players trailed Mrs. Spiesman at 102 gross. Second low net honors in B went to Mrs. L. Campbell of Normanside (Albany) with 102-28—74.

Miss Teresa Klein of Dutchess led the Class C gross with 51-54—105 and 33 handicap gave her low net of 72. Runnerup was Mrs. Joseph E. McGrath of Powelton with 109-33—76.

Other low scores in Class A gross were: Mrs. Ed Spiesman, Stamford, 44-49—93; Mrs. Roland Riegel, Shawangunk, 50-44—94.

The summaries:

Inger Walker Wins Monthly Woodstock Trophy Tourney

Mrs. Inger Walker posted a net score of 71 to win the Monthly Trophy tournament at the Woodstock Country Club. She fired 45-47-92 gross and had 19 strokes allowance.

Two strokes off the pace was Mrs. Alex Sharpe Jr., with 97-24-73. She had nines of 48-49. Other low net scores were: Mrs. Doris Murray, 97-23-74, with 51-46; Mrs. Claude Needes, 102-26-76, with a pair of 51's.

Other low net scores: Mrs. Charles E. Burnett, 90-13-77; Mrs. Joseph Fitzsimmons, 97-20-77; Mrs. Eleanor Van Gogh, 110-32-78; Mrs. Joseph Forno, 102-22-80; Mrs. Buff Olin, 114-34-880; Mrs. Clair Shaffer, 116-36-80.

Mrs. Alvin Moscowitz posted 126-45-81; Mrs. Philip Salet, 113-31-82; Mrs. Albert Bernard, 112-24-88; Mrs. Walter Van Wagenen, 114-25-89; Mrs. Jean Hildebrandt, 107-17-90.

The victory gave Mrs. Walker her second leg on the Monthly Trophy which must be won three times for permanent possession.

Other names on the trophy are: Mrs. Claude Needes, twice; and Mrs. Kermit Schwartz, Mrs. Joseph Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Joseph Forno, once each.

7 Amateurs, 128 Pros Tee Off on Tough Chi Course

CHICAGO (AP)—A field of 128 professionals and 7 amateurs teed off on a golf course that defies anyone to take it apart.

Par 71 for the 7,110-yard Medinah No. 3 appeared a big challenge as the game's stars tried to position their shots along the tree-flanked fairways and eight dogleg holes that require precision drives.

Daily 18-hole rounds will lead to the windup Sunday and most of the pros looked for a 72-hole score of from 282 to even par 284 to take the $10,000 first prize.

For the first two rounds, defending champion Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, the man who defeated him 71-74 recently in a playoff for the National Open crown at Oakmont are paired together.

RFA Star Signs Bonus Contract With Dodgers

ROME, N. Y. (AP) — Jerry Burlison, 18, a catcher for Rome Free Academy, has signed a professional baseball contract with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

He was signed Wednesday shortly after he graduated from the school. A spokesman for the National League club said the Dodgers paid Burlison a bonus "substantially exceeding $10,000."

The youth had a batting average over .400 at Rome this year. He was assigned to the Dodgers' Triple A Pacific Coast League affiliate at Spokane, Wash.

Gardner Excels In Relief Stint

The casts were strangely different and the imported, high priced professionals were missing—on both sides.

And another thing was truly different—praise the Lord!—Wednesday night at Dietz Stadium, as the "home-grown" Kingston Braves outlasted the Poughkeepsie Hoe-Bowls, 13-12, in the New York-New Jersey League home opener for the locals.

It was a wild and loosely played contest in a traditionally chilly stadium, but at the end of the 3 hours, 40 minute struggle, Manager Dick Bartsch and general manager, Fred Davi, had something to cheer about, Kingston had beaten Poughkeepsie in the NY-NJ League! Sounds like a routine accomplishment, but it isn't. It's as rare as the dinosaur tooth.

Kingstn exploded for nine runs in the first inning, a stunning development that must have shook the ground all the way to the Queen City. Then came the counter rally, as Poughkeepsie reeled off inning totals of 5-3-3 to lead 11-9. Then it was 11-10 Hoes, 12-10 and 13-10 Kingston. The visitors picked up their last run in the 8th. What proved to be the Braves' winning tally in the seventh was the result of two hits, a stolen base, in keeping with the pattern of a game in which four pitchers surrendered 25 hits, 15 walks and their teammates contributed 12 errors.

Gardner Excels

A stout relief pitching chore by Paul Gardner saved the Kingston victory, after starter Mike Spada yielded six hits and eight runs in two innings. Gardner survived an early flurry, then settled down to allow only one run in the last five innings, while striking out five.

Vince Smedes, Chick Boice and Dick Bartsch Jr. slugged two hits each for Kingston and Bartsch further distinguished himself by throwing out three would-be base stealers. The only extra baser was a triple by Poughkeepsie's Butch Veronese, who also added a single.

The game was preceded by a motorcade, with Mayor John J. Schwenk and the 1962 Page One Queen, Sara Imhoff, leading the players in convertibles from Delaware Avenue and Broadway to the stadium. Among the personalities introduced in pre-game ceremonies at the stadium were Mayor Schwenk, the Page One Queen, Lou Maines, president of the Kingston Community Baseball Association; Sam Perry, chairman of the motorcade; and Ad Jones, chairman of the association's board of directors. Mayor Schwenk and the Page One Queen went to the pitching mound where the mayor threw out the first ball.

Now 1-1 in the NY-NJ standings, the Braves take on Newburgh Saturday night at 8:30 at the stadium.

Far Out Fan

PALTIMORE (NEA) — Fans go far afield to get tickets to professional football games, but a mailman in Baltimore really goes all out.

Joseph Benedict is enamored with the Cleveland Browns and not a bit concerned that their home games are played 400 miles from Baltimore. He has just bought a season ticket for the Brown's home games, explaining: "I used to take in two or three Browns' games a year and, although it's a bit of a strain on a mailman's budget, I decided to see all of them this season."

Benedict also ordered tickets for a pre-season double-header, Aug. 18, when the Browns play the Pittsburgh Steelers and Detroit plays Dallas.

Sickler's Is 15th In Pin Tourney

Sickler's Delivery of Kingston rolled 3297 gross in the State Bowling Proprietors first annual handicap tournament Sunday in Albany, good for 15th position among the more than 300 teams entered.

The local five rapped 930, 942 and 892 for 2764 and had a handicap of 453 pins. Don Sickler Jr. showed the way with 202-589 while John Dunn rapped 585, Cliff Miller 576, Len Sickler Jr. 554 and John DeCicco 460.

Len Sickler Jr. rolled a 700 gross triple score, putting him in 14th place. He shot 176, 178 and 211 for 565 and had a 135 pin handicap. Sickler and Miller are fifth in the doubles event, shooting a gross score of 1335.

The tourney will conclude this weekend.

Kilter Choice At Monticello

MONTICELLO — Kilter, co-owned by Lucien and Marcel Fontaine, Montreal, is listed as the 3-1 morning line choice for the feature $1,400 Class B-2 trot tonight at Monticello Raceway.

Lucien Fontaine, currently on a hot streak, will take Kilter away from the two post against a field of seven. Kilter has failed to win in three starts at Monticello, but has been in the money twice. Before coming here, the five-year-old mare posted a pair of victories—one in 2:06.4—in Canada.

Dundeen B., on the rail with Jack Adams ,is the second early choice at 4-1. The Star's Pride mare finished fifth in her only start here this year. She has a 2:05.1 mark for the season over a mile course.

John Dill of Goshen, N. Y., wil drive Halzel Hawkins from No. 3 and the mare is pegged at 5-1. Hazel Hawkins scored in 2:07.4 here about two weeks ago.

Minka, with two straight wins, will be facing tougher company, but is another threat. Harold Dancer Jr., will be the pilot when Minka opens from the six lane.

Rounding out the field will be Volarie (6-1), Success Al, Archie Mon and Be Cheerful, all 8-1.

Liberty Stable's Artie Hanover is the early pick in the secondary feature in the fifth race. George Sziklai will drive the five-year-old Tar Heel ambler against threats like Cosmo Topper, Meadow Susan and Jamaica in the $1,000 dash for Class C-1 sidewheelers.

Gerry Green blanked Subways on two hits, 5-0, as Nadler's rolled to their 9th straight victory in the City Softball League Wednesday.

In another game, Bloomington Inn had two big scoring innings to outlast White Eagles, 16 to 12.

Nadler's picked up only five hits off losing pitcher John Wood, one of which was a homer by John Kozlowski. Bob Schlanger stroked a single and double and Ferraro hit a double. Roy Casella and John Smith accounted for the Subway safeties.

Bloomington raked Rich Hoffman for 17 hits and scored 6 runs in the second and 6 in the sixth. Don Miller and Cy Van Ort collaborated on a six-hitter for the Inn nine. Bob Burns hit a homer and Tony Turck had a double for the Eagles.

Al Studt slammed a double and two singles in three trips for Bloomington. Don Hoban hit three singles, while George Smith and Bill Pratt added triples.

Stephan Smith 5-2 Choice in Yonkers Feature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The early, 5-2 favorite in the Pace at Yonkers Raceway tonight is Stephan Smith, who triumphed in the $65,000 Good Time Pace a week ago.

Tonight's two-mile race, the season's richest free-for-all event, features nine of the fastest pacers in the world. The favorite, starting from the No. 6 post, will be driven by Gene Sears.

Henry T. Adios and Royal Rick, winner of the first of the triple series, are second choices, both at 3-1. Royal Rick won the $50,000 International.

In Wednesday night's big-money race at Saratoga Raceway, there was no doubt about the victor in the $13,016 Bostwick Division of Battle of Saratoga trotting feature, a two-dash Grand Circuit event. Campbelltown won both dashes, in 2:09 4-5 and 2:08 4-5 respectively. The time for the second dash was a national season record for a 2-year-old trotting colt on a half-mile track.

Campbelltown, driven by Del Miller, returned $18.20 in the first dash and $7.50 in the second.

In other harness racing in New York State:

YONKERS — Vint Hanover ($14.70) won the $3,750 Croton Trot in 2:03 4-5. Al Thomas drove.

BUFFALO — Guy Sampson, ($4.10) took the $2,000 Montefiore Pace in 2:02 1-5.

VERNON — Diamond Sam ($2.60) scored in the $1,500 featured pace for 2-year-olds in 2:p3 1-5, fastest time nationally for a 2-year-old pacer on a mile track this season. Julius Benedict drove.

Fires 220 Solo

Rosemary Weider slammed a 220 solo and 479 series to pace the Summerettes league at Woodstock Lanes. Team results: Mower's Market 1, Woodstock Pharmacy 2; P. J. Weider 2, Woodstock Lanes 1; Woodstock Packing 1, Safeway School System 2; Ted's Service Center 3, Deanie's Dillies 0.

4-1 Daily Double Returns $28.40 At Monticello

MONTICELLO, New York — Chummy Chum and Ele Vernon Girl turned in wire to wire victories in the first two races tonight to form a daily double of $28.40 of numbers 4 and 1 at Monticello Raceway.

Frank Popfinger, subbing for brother Bill, drove Chummy Chum to an identical 2:10.4 victory as the four-year-old mare won her second straight race.

Chummy Chum paid across the board mutuels of 9.10, 3.60 and 3.50. Miss Tryax was second and returned 3.60 and 2.90. Miss R. S. was the show horse for 6.80. The dash was a claiming trot.

Jim Williard snapped a 27-race losing string with Ele Vernon Girl in a claiming pace. Ele Vernon Girl, a seven-year-old mare, was clocked in 2:09.1.

The winner, which held off a late rally by Miss Lorene Hayes, was the 6-5 favorite in the betting and paid 4.50, 3.10 and 2.70.

Miss Lorene Hayes, second on the rail all the way, returned 5.40 and 3.30. Friscota was third for 4.20.

Mighty Tide Draws Rail

Monticello Track Mark Seen Likely in HTA Pace Friday

MONTICELLO—The luck of the draw may pave the way for a sub-two-minute mile when the semi-final leg of the $10,375 Harness Tracks of America pace is raced Friday at Monticello Raceway.

Powerful Mighty Tide, the bread-and-butter performer of Black Shoe Stable, Garden City, L. I., will start against the rail. That alone should serve as a tip-off that a record isn't out of reach.

Drawings for post position were conducted Monday night. And as luck would have it, Mighty Tide drew the starting spot from where he is most dangerous.

Six horses will face the barrier in the mile dash which is the next-to-last stop on the eight-leg championship series for four-year-old pacers. The climax will come July 5 in New York when the final is raced for $50,000.

Mighty Tide will open from the pole position with 69-year-old Paul Vineyard in the sulky. The other five starters from the rail out will be Al Sam (Earl Beebe), Well Away (Joe O'Brien), Shadydale Monitor (Jim Dennis), Lang Hanover (Jimmy Hackett) and Way Wave K (Ralph Baldwin).

Because he is a notorious front-running horse, Mighty Tide, a son of Hoot Mon-Mighty Sister, stands a fine chance of lowering the two-minute barrier. Vineyard, a past-master at front-running driving, won't have to concern himself with early traffic. Anyway, there are few horses around that can get the jump on Mighty Tide once the starting gate opens.

Has Three Wins

Mighty Tide has won three legs of the HTA and in each trip, he's scored practically wire to wire victories. His triumphs came at Rosecroft in 2:00.2, at Maywood, 2:01.4, and at Lebanon, 2:00.2. He cut out almost all the pace when Henry T. Adios smashed the Buffalo track record in 1:59.4 in the sixth leg almost two weeks ago.

Mighty Tide holds track records at Rosecroft and Lebanon. He's started in all six HTA races and is the biggest point collector with 53. With Henry T. not entered in Friday's race, Mighty Tide has all but clinched the point title.

Track conditions are favorable for a record effort. Track Superintendent Herb Cauthers has the strip lightning fast. In fact, the surface is in the best shape ever.

Mighty Tide will be returning to the scene of one of his greatest achievements on Friday. Last year, during Grand Circuit, he carved out back-to-back heats of 2:01.1 and 2:01.2. The times stand as records for three-year olds and are combined heat standards.

Adios Butler is the track record-holder with a 1:59.2 clocking in a time trial. However, Tar Boy boasts the track mark for a betting race, 1:59.4.

Fastest time this year at Monticello was posted by Firesweep when he turned in a 2:01.3 over two weeks ago. Right Time paced a 2:02 mile last Saturday.

2 Horsemen to Be Enshrined In the Trotting Hall of Fame

GOSHEN — Two prominent horsemen will be enshrined and a special presentation will be made in the Hall of Fame of the Trotter July 4.

E. Roland Harriman and Steve Phillips were elected as the first living persons to the Hall of Fame by members of the United States Harness Writer's Association. The writers plan to formally induct the two men into the harness racing shrine after their election held in 1961.

Leonard Cohen, president of the U. S. Harness Writers, will introduce Harriman and Phillips to the assembled newsmen, horsemen and museum visitors. Then comes the official hanging of specially designed plaques, created for the occasion.

A second part of the program is the presentation of a new exhibit to the Hall of Fame by the Monticello Chapter of the harness writers. The display, shown in the museum entranceway, consists of five original sculptures portraying the quintet of stallions that are the ancestors of today's Standardbreds and Thoroughbreds. Entitled "The Founding Fathers," the exhibit describes the history of each of the famous sires that include Daley's Arabian, the Godolphin Arabian, Byerley's Turk, Mambrino and Messenger. The works of art were the creation of Mrs. Grace Lopez and Beverly Lopez of Weston, Conn. Presenting the exhibit to the museum will be the chapter president, Philip A. Pines, joined by the members of his group.

Third Day of Grand Circuit

The ceremony comes on the third day of Grand Circuit week at Historic Track. Post time each afternoon is 1:30, July 2-6. Harriman heads Historic Track which has been in the Harriman family for nearly 70 years.

Two seasons ago, Steve Phillips, well known for his developing one of the first successful mobil starting gates, presented his original gate to the Hall of Fame. It is displayed in the museum loft accompanied by sulkies once drawn by champion trotters and pacers.

The public is invited to the July 4th ceremony at the Hall of Fame. Many of harness racings' biggest names are expected to be there, also, paying tribute to a pair of the sport's outstanding contributors.

Molyneaux Slams 643

Jay Molyneaux Sr. caught on fire for games of 231, 194, 217 and a 643 blast in the Summer Overlook league at Woodstock Lanes.

Kilter Choice At Monticello

MONTICELLO — Kilter, co-owned by Lucien and Marcel Fontaine, Montreal, is listed as the 3-1 morning line choice for the feature $1,400 Class B-2 trot tonight at Monticello Raceway.

Lucien Fontaine, currently on a hot streak, will take Kilter away from the two post against a field of seven. Kilter has failed to win in three starts at Monticello, but has been in the money twice. Before coming here, the five-year-old mare posted a pair of victories—one in 2:06.4—in Canada.

Dundeen B., on the rail with Jack Adams ,is the second early choice at 4-1. The Star's Pride mare finished fifth in her only start here this year. She has a 2:05.1 mark for the season over a mile course.

John Dill of Goshen, N. Y., wil drive Halzel Hawkins from No. 3 and the mare is pegged at 5-1. Hazel Hawkins scored in 2:07.4 here about two weeks ago.

Minka, with two straight wins, will be facing tougher company, but is another threat. Harold Dancer Jr., will be the pilot when Minka opens from the six lane.

Rounding out the field will be Volarie (6-1), Success Al, Archie Mon and Be Cheerful, all 8-1.

Liberty Stable's Artie Hanover is the early pick in the secondary feature in the fifth race. George Sziklai will drive the five-year-old Tar Heel ambler against threats like Cosmo Topper, Meadow Susan and Jamaica in the $1,000 dash for Class C-1 sidewheelers.

Nadlers' Green Blanks Subway on 2 Hits, 5-0

Gerry Green blanked Subways on two hits, 5-0, as Nadler's rolled to their 9th straight victory in the City Softball League Wednesday.

In another game, Bloomington Inn had two big scoring innings to outlast White Eagles, 16 to 12.

Nadler's picked up only five hits off losing pitcher John Wood, one of which was a homer by John Kozlowski. Bob Schlanger stroked a single and double and Ferraro hit a double. Roy Casella and John Smith accounted for the Subway safeties.

Bloomington raked Rich Hoffman for 17 hits and scored 6 runs in the second and 6 in the sixth. Don Miller and Cy Van Ort collaborated on a six-hitter for the Inn nine. Bob Burns hit a homer and Tony Turck had a double for the Eagles.

Al Studt slammed a double and two singles in three trips for Bloomington. Don Hoban hit three singles, while George Smith and Bill Pratt added triples.

Stephan Smith 5-2 Choice in Yonkers Feature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The early, 5-2 favorite in the Pace at Yonkers Raceway tonight is Stephan Smith, who triumphed in the $65,000 Good Time Pace a week ago.

Tonight's two-mile race, the season's richest free-for-all event, features nine of the fastest pacers in the world. The favorite, starting from the No. 6 post, will be driven by Gene Sears.

Henry T. Adios and Royal Rick, winner of the first of the triple series, are second choices, both at 3-1. Royal Rick won the $50,000 International.

In Wednesday night's big-money race at Saratoga Raceway, there was no doubt about the victor in the $13,016 Bostwick Division of Battle of Saratoga trotting feature, a two-dash Grand Circuit event. Campbelltown won both dashes, in 2:09 4-5 and 2:08 4-5 respectively. The time for the second dash was a national season record for a 2-year-old trotting colt on a half-mile track.

Campbelltown, driven by Del Miller, returned $18.20 in the first dash and $7.50 in the second.

In other harness racing in New York State:

YONKERS — Vint Hanover ($14.70) won the $3,750 Croton Trot in 2:03 4-5. Al Thomas drove.

BUFFALO — Guy Sampson, ($4.10) took the $2,000 Montefiore Pace in 2:02 1-5.

VERNON — Diamond Sam ($2.60) scored in the $1,500 featured pace for 2-year-olds in 2:03 1-5, fastest time nationally for a 2-year-old pacer on a mile track this season. Julius Benedict drove.

Fires 220 Solo

Rosemary Weider slammed a 220 solo and 479 series to pace the Summerettes league at Woodstock Lanes. Team results: Mower's Market 1, Woodstock Pharmacy 2; P. J. Weider 2, Woodstock Lanes 1; Woodstock Packing 1, Safeway School System 2; Ted's Service Center 3, Deanie's Dillies 0.

4-1 Daily Double Returns $28.40 At Monticello

MONTICELLO, New York — Chummy Chum and Ele Vernon Girl turned in wire to wire victories in the first two races tonight to form a daily double of $28.40 of numbers 4 and 1 at Monticello Raceway.

Frank Popfinger, subbing for brother Bill, drove Chummy Chum to an identical 2:10.4 victory as the four-year-old mare won her second straight race.

Chummy Chum paid across the board mutuels of 9.10, 3.60 and 3.50. Miss Tryax was second and returned 3.60 and 2.90. Miss R. S. was the show horse for 6.80. The dash was a claiming trot.

Jim Williard snapped a 27-race losing string with Ele Vernon Girl in a claiming pace. Ele Vernon Girl, a seven-year-old mare, was clocked in 2:09.1.

The winner, which held off a late rally by Miss Lorene Hayes, was the 6-5 favorite in the betting and paid 4.50, 3.10 and 2.70.

Miss Lorene Hayes, second on the rail all the way, returned 5.40 and 3.30. Friscota was third for 4.20.

Mighty Tide Draws Rail

Monticello Track Mark Seen Likely in HTA Pace Friday

MONTICELLO—The luck of the draw may pave the way for a sub-two-minute mile when the semi-final leg of the $10,375 Harness Tracks of America pace is raced Friday at Monticello Raceway.

Powerful Mighty Tide, the bread-and-butter performer of Black Shoe Stable, Garden City, L. I., will start against the rail. That alone should serve as a tip-off that a record isn't out of reach.

Drawings for post position were conducted Monday night. And as luck would have it, Mighty Tide drew the starting spot from where he is most dangerous.

Six horses will face the barrier in the mile dash which is the next-to-last stop on the eight-leg championship series for four-year-old pacers. The climax will come July 5 in New York when the final is raced for $30,000.

Mighty Tide will open from the pole position with 69-year-old Paul Vineyard in the sulky. The other five starters from the rail out will be Al Sam (Earl Beebe), Well Away (Joe O'Brien), Shadydale Monitor (Jim Dennis), Lang Hanover (Jimmy Hackett) and Way Wave K (Ralph Baldwin).

Because he is a notorious front-running horse, Mighty Tide, a son of Hoot Mon-Mighty Sister, stands a fine chance of lowering the two-minute barrier. Vineyard, a past-master at front-running driving, won't have to concern himself with early traffic. Anyway, there are few horses around that can get the jump on Mighty Tide once the starting gate opens.

Has Three Wins

Mighty Tide has won three legs of the HTA and in each trip, he's scored practically wire to wire victories. His triumphs came at Rosecroft in 2:00.2, at Maywood, 2:01.4, and at Lebanon, 2:00.2. He cut out almost all the pace when Henry T. Adios smashed the Buffalo track record in 1:59.4 in the sixth leg almost two weeks ago.

Mighty Tide holds track records at Rosecroft and Lebanon. He's started in all six HTA races and is the biggest point collector with 53. With Henry T. not entered in Friday's race, Mighty Tide has all but clinched the point title.

Track conditions are favorable for a record effort. Track Superintendent Herb Cauthers has the strip lightning fast. In fact, the surface is in the best shape ever.

Mighty Tide will be returning to the scene of one of his greatest achievements on Friday. Last year, during Grand Circuit, he carved out back-to-back heats of 2:01.1 and 2:01.2. The times stand as records for three-year olds and are combined heat standards.

Adios Butler is the track record-holder with a 1:59.2 clocking in a time trial. However, Tar Boy boasts the track mark for a betting race, 1:59.4.

Fastest time this year at Monticello was posted by Firesweep when he turned in a 2:01.3 over two weeks ago. Right Time paced a 2:02 mile last Saturday.

2 Horsemen to Be Enshrined In the Trotting Hall of Fame

GOSHEN — Two prominent horsemen will be enshrined and a special presentation will be made in the Hall of Fame of the Trotter July 4.

E. Roland Harriman and Steve Phillips were elected as the first living persons to the Hall of Fame by members of the United States Harness Writer's Association. The writers plan to formally induct the two men into the harness racing shrine after their election held in 1961.

Leonard Cohen, president of the U. S. Harness Writers, will introduce Harriman and Phillips to the assembled newsmen, horsemen and museum visitors. Then comes the official hanging of specially designed plaques, created for the occasion.

A second part of the program is the presentation of a new exhibit to the Hall of Fame by the Monticello Chapter of the harness writers. The display, shown in the museum entranceway, consists of five original sculptures portraying the quintet of stallions that are the ancestors of today's Standardbreds and Thoroughbreds. Entitled "The Founding Fathers," the exhibit describes the history of each of the famous sires that include Daley's Arabian, the Godolphin Arabian, Byerley's Turk, Mambrino and Messenger. The works of art were the creation of Mrs. Grace Lopez and Beverly Lopez of Weston, Conn. Presenting the exhibit to the museum will be the chapter president, Philip A. Pines, joined by the members of his group.

Third Day of Grand Circuit

The ceremony comes on the third day of Grand Circuit week at Historic Track. Post time each afternoon is 1:30, July 2-6. Harriman heads Historic Track which has been in the Harriman family for nearly 70 years.

Two seasons ago, Steve Phillips, well known for his developing one of the first successful mobil starting gates, presented his original gate to the Hall of Fame. It is displayed in the museum loft accompanied by sulkies once drawn by champion trotters and pacers.

The public is invited to the July 4th ceremony at the Hall of Fame. Many of harness racings' biggest names are expected to be there, also, paying tribute to a pair of the sport's outstanding contributors.

Molyneaux Slams 643

Jay Molyneaux Sr. caught on fire for games of 231, 194, 217 and a 643 blast in the Sumner Overlook league at Woodstock Lanes.

Molyneaux's big series highlighted spirted action in the village circuit, where youthful John Chalmers slammed 203-233—612 and Merritt DeGraff had 210-220—604.

Herb Wyman decked 201, Brian Walsh 221-213, Bill Murray 202, Art Hansen 203, Duncan Wilson 202, Ben Sanford 208, Schuyler Schultz 200, Fred Allen 202-201, Don Sickler 204-202, Vic Allen 215, Aubrey Berry 203, Ev Wolven 203.

Team results:

Kullmann's Southpaws 1, Swaman's Essos 2; Woodstock Cleaners 2, Mac Tools 1; Deanie's Rest 2, Woodstock Fire Company No. 1 (1); Allen Electric 3, Safeway School Systems 0; Bearsville Market 2, Mower's Market 1.

Drysdale, A New Man, Wins 13th

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Calm, cool and collected, that's Don Drysdale. That's right—Don Drysdale.

The Los Angeles Dodgers' fireballer, whose pitching talents have been diminished in the past by an easily reached boiling point, has learned to curb his temper and seems headed toward his first 20-victory season in the majors.

Drysdale, 25, won No. 13 Wednesday night with a five-hitter that whipped Milwaukee 6-2, but had to maintain his composure during a series of incidents. Twice he was hit by pitches, and twice had to pitch out of jams created by errors. In the sixth, Maury Wills booted a grounder by Hank Aaron, allowing the first Braves' run to score. In the eighth, Ed Mathews got a double when Frank Howard misjudged his fly, and took third on a passed ball.

The Giants remained on top with their fifth consecutive victory, 6-3 over the Reds. Third-place Pittsburgh edged the New York Mets 6-5 in 10 innings and fourth-place St. Louis blanked the Chicago Cubs twice, 4-0 and 8-0 on shutouts by Larry Jackson and Ray Sadecki. Houston and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

Davis Hits Homer

Drysdale (13-4) also got the Dodgers started in the fifth when he was hit by a Bob Shaw (9-4) pitch. Wills forced him, then rode home on Willie Davis' homer. The Dodgers clinched it with three in the seventh against reliever Hank Fischer.

Ed Bailey, who hit a pinch-hit grand slam homer for the Giants Tuesday, tagged a Ted Wills pitch for a two-run homer in the sixth inning that snapped a 3-3 tie against his former Reds' teammates. Harvey Kuenn and Felipe Alou each homered for the San Franciscans. Wally Post hit his 12th for the defending NL Champs. Bob Bolin (1-0), won it in relief of Mike McCormick. Wills lost his first decision.

Bill Virdon's fourth single, a walk to Dick Groat, and Bob Skinner's third single got the game-winner across for the Pirates against Mets' starter Roger Craig (4-10). The victory went to Diomedes Olivo (3-0).

Jackson (7-7) checked the Cubs on four singles in the opener and Sadecki (5-4) held the Chicagoans to five hits in the windup as the Cardinals ran their latest winning streak to five games.

Roberts Continues Upcurve

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Robin Roberts is on a definite upcurve. The 35-year-old right-hander who hit a dip when he was handed his unconditional release by the New York Yankees this season won his fourth straight for the Baltimore Orioles Wednesday, beating the Chicago White Sox 3-1.

Paul Foytack and Detroit beat first-place Cleveland 4-0, the Yankees whipped Minnesota 7-3 and Los Angeles blanked Boston 3-0—leaving the Indians one game ahead of the Twins, with the Yanks and Angels two games off the pace. In the AL's other game, Kansas City beat Washington 4-1.

Roberts was a 20-game winner six years in a row for the Phils, but gradually tailed off and last year was a dismal 1-10. The word was his fast ball was gone and he hadn't developed a delivery to replace it.

Foytack won his sixth in seven decisions, six-hitting the Indians, while the Tigers dealt Cleveland ace Dick Donovan his third loss against 11 victories.

The Yankees went to work early against Jim Kaat, roughing up the Minnesota southpaw for six runs in the first two innings. Tom Tresh led New York's attack with a homer and single. Roger Maris also homered for the Yanks—his 13th of the year, compared with 27 at this stage last year.

Ralph Terry gave the Twins eight hits.

The Angels, no-hit by Boston's Earl Wilson Tuesday night, rebounded as Don Lee and Dean Chance collaborated on a five-hitter against the Red Sox. Lee came out with none out in the ninth after a walk to Pete Runnels and a single by Bob Tillman, and Chance left the runners stranded by putting down the final three men in order.

Kansas City netted a pair of unearned runs in the fourth inning and went on to win their third in a row as Ed Rakow handcuffed the Senators. Rakow held Washington scoreless on five hits until the ninth, when singles by Harry Bright, Ken Retzer and Bob Johnson produced the Senators' run.

Hughes Retires At Middletown; Served 38 Years

Jack Hughes has retired as director of athletics at Middletown High School, effective immediately. The Middletown School Board accepted the retirement and then rehired Hughes as a part time consultant.

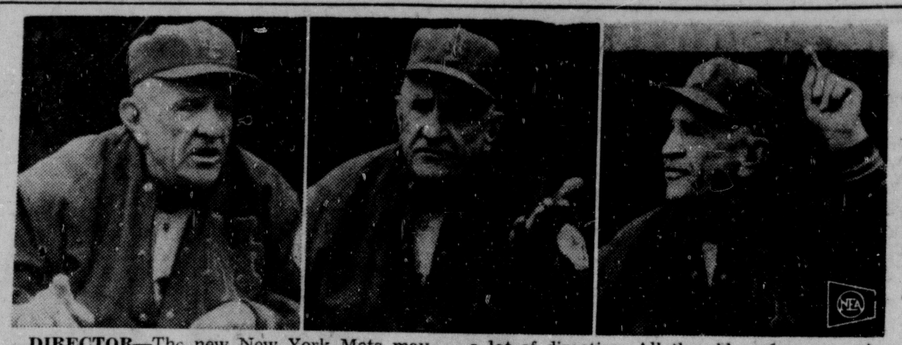
One of the original "big five" of DUSO League coaches, Hughes handled football, basketball, baseball and track at Middletown before devoting his full time to be the director of athletics.

President Anthony J. Veraldi of the School Board said that a replacement for Hughes will not be named in the near future.

The retirement of Hughes, who has been at Middletown for 38 years, leaves only Kingston's G. Warren Kias and Sam J. Kalloch of Poughkeepsie as the original members of the big five still coaching. Kias coaches the track and cross country teams at Kingston and serves as director of athletics. Kalloch is director of athletics at Poughkeepsie and also coaches the three major sports.

C. Everett Stevens of Newburgh Free Academy retired a couple of years ago and Al Chase of Port Jervis died last year. They were the other long time coaches and athletic directors in the league.

PITCHING — Larry Jackson, Cardinals, started double shutout of Chicago Cubs by allowing only four singles in 4-0 first game triumph before Ray Sadecki limited Cubs to five hits in 8-0 nightcap victory.



DIRECTOR—The new New York Mets may not be going anywhere in the National League, but this isn't stopping Casey Stengel from doing a lot of directing. All the old professor requires is a little more pitching and all-around execution to attain his goal. (NEA Telephoto)

AFL Door Still Open Today, But No Entries Seen

BOSTON (AP)—The door was still open today for American Football League expansion but the feeling was the present eight-club setup will continue another year at least.

The AFL's Executive Committee decided Wednesday against expanding to 10 teams, with two new franchises starting play in 1963.

Commissioner Joe Foss said he felt there was no reason to rush expansion at this time. However, he said a decision to expand still could be reached later this year. That decision would have to come prior to the league draft the last week of November if it is to come at all this year, he said.

The eight-club owners conferred in Boston for three days, discussing a variety of league matters in addition to hearing presentations of franchise applications from syndicates in New Orleans, Kansas City and Atlanta.

Griffith Hoping To Forget Before Title Encounter

NEW YORK (AP)—Will Emile Griffith be able to forget the Benny (Kid) Paret tragedy and go all out against Ralph Dupas in their July 13 welterweight title fight?

"I hope so," said Emile as he prepared to leave today for Las Vegas, the fight site. "I guess I won't know until I get in there. I know in my heart that Benny's death was an accident. Boxing is my business. It got me and my family out of the slums and I never want to be poor again. So I will continue to fight."

Talking in the sing-song of his native Virgin Islands the welterweight champion added: "I'm still a little uncomfortable in the ring. In training I know what I want to do and sometimes I can do everything and sometimes I just can't."

Griffith hasn't fought since he regained the 147-pound division crown on the 12th round knockout of the March 24 night that resulted in Paret's death 10 days later.

Pleugh One-Man Team for Hawks

Billy Pleugh of the Mohawks, who is listed as a shortstop in the boxscore, turned out to be quite a hitter and pitcher in the Met Knothole League Wednesday evening.

He pounded four hits, including three singles and a triple, and had 9 strikeouts as the winning pitcher. B. Struble shared the pitching with Pleugh.

Gary Lucas and Dallas Pickett, listed as a shortstop, pitched for the Iroquois who went down to a 9-2 drubbing on only two hits. J. Gumaer hit a single and double for the Mohawks.

Bechtold One-Hits BR Legion

Neil Bechtold of the Hurley Lions pitched hitless ball for 6 1/3, before Joe Schabot of the American Legion touched him for a single, in the Babe Ruth League Wednesday.

But Bechtold was returned the winner, 3-0, in a brilliant duel with Frank McGowan, who allowed only two safeties. Bechtold struck out 10 and McGowan six. Ken Hopper and John Tweedy accounted for the two Hurley hits — both singles which came in the second inning.

Hopper singled with one out and John Cook sacrificed him to second. After Mike O'Connor walked, both runners moved up on a wild pitch and scored on Tweedy's single.

Gary Van Etten's base on balls, steal of second and two infield outs produced the third Hurley tally in the third.

Three games are scheduled today, with Vols playing the Elks at 6 p. m. at the Athletic Field. In a Dietz stadium doubleheader, Hurley plays Rotary at 6 p. m. and Knights of Columbus meets the 35 Club at 8:30 p. m.

Their sweep of the Greco-Roman competition that ended Wednesday night was even more decisive than their freestyle victory last week — despite some come-from-behind displays of strength by Turkey and Hungary.

Drysdale, A New Man, Wins 13th

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Calm, cool and collected, that's Don Drysdale. That's right—Don Drysdale.

The Los Angeles Dodgers' fireballer, whose pitching talents have been diminished in the past by an easily reached boiling point, has learned to curb his temper and seems headed toward his first 20-victory season in the majors.

Drysdale, 25, won No. 13 Wednesday night with a five-hitter that whipped Milwaukee 6-2, but had to maintain his composure during a series of incidents. Twice he was hit by pitches, and twice had to pitch out of jams created by errors. In the sixth, Maury Wills booted a grounder by Hank Aaron, allowing the first Braves' run to score. In the eighth, Ed Mathews got a double when Frank Howard misjudged his fly, and took third on a passed ball.

The Giants remained on top with their fifth consecutive victory, 6-3 over the Reds. Third-place Pittsburgh edged the New York Mets 6-5 in 10 innings and fourth-place St. Louis blanked the Chicago Cubs twice, 4-0 and 8-0 on shutouts by Larry Jackson and Ray Sadecki. Houston and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

Davis Hits Homer

Drysdale (13-4) also got the Dodgers started in the fifth when he was hit by a Bob Shaw (9-4) pitch. Wills forced him, then rode home on Willie Davis' homer. The Dodgers clinched it with three in the seventh against reliever Hank Fischer.

Ed Bailey, who hit a pinch-hit grand slam homer for the Giants Tuesday, tagged a Ted Wills pitch for a two-run homer in the sixth inning that snapped a 3-3 tie against his former Reds' teammates. Harvey Kuenn and Felipe Alou each homered for the San Franciscans. Wally Post hit his 12th for the defending NL Champs. Bob Bolin (1-0), won it in relief of Mike McCormick. Wills lost his first decision.

Bill Virdon's fourth single, a walk to Dick Groat, and Bob Skinner's third single got the game-winner across for the Pirates against Mets' starter Roger Craig (4-10). The victory went to Diomedes Olivo (3-0).

Jackson (7-7) checked the Cubs on four singles in the opener and Sadecki (5-4) held the Chicagoans to five hits in the windup as the Cardinals ran their latest winning streak to five games.

Roberts Continues Upcurve

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Robin Roberts is on a definite upcurve. The 35-year-old right-hander who hit a dip when he was handed his unconditional release by the New York Yankees this season won his fourth straight for the Baltimore Orioles Wednesday, beating the Chicago White Sox 3-1.

Paul Foytack and Detroit beat first-place Cleveland 4-0, the Yankees whipped Minnesota 7-3 and Los Angeles blanked Boston 3-0—leaving the Indians one game ahead of the Twins, with the Yanks and Angels two games off the pace. In the AL's other game, Kansas City beat Washington 4-1.

Roberts was a 20-game winner six years in a row for the Phils, but gradually tailed off and last year was a dismal 1-10. The word was his fast ball was gone and he hadn't developed a delivery to replace it.

The White Sox drew first blood when Joe Cunningham singled in a sixth-inning run, but Jim Gentile rapped left-hander Juan Pizarro for one homer in the last of the sixth and smacked another with one on in the eighth.

Foytack won his sixth in seven decisions, six-hitting the Indians, while the Tigers dealt Cleveland ace Dick Donovan his third loss against 11 victories.

The Yankees went to work early against Jim Kaat, roughing up the Minnesota southpaw for six runs in the first two innings. Tom Tresh led New York's attack with a homer and single. Roger Maris also homered for the Yanks—his 13th of the year, compared with 27 at this stage last year.

Ralph Terry gave the Twins eight hits.

The Angels, no-hit by Boston's Earl Wilson Tuesday night, rebounded as Don Lee and Dean Chance collaborated on a five-hitter against the Red Sox. Lee came out with none out in the ninth after a walk to Pete Runnels and a single by Bob Tillman, and Chance left the runners stranded by putting down the final three men in order.

Kansas City netted a pair of unearned runs in the fourth inning and went on to win their third in a row as Ed Rakow handcuffed the Senators. Rakow held Washington scoreless on five hits until the ninth, when singles by Harry Bright, Ken Retzer and Bob Johnson produced the Senators' run.

Hughes Retires At Middletown; Served 38 Years

Jack Hughes has retired as director of athletics at Middletown High School, effective immediately. The Middletown School Board accepted the retirement and then rehired Hughes as a part time consultant.

One of the original "big five" of DUSO League coaches, Hughes handled football, basketball, baseball and track at Middletown before devoting his full time to be the director of athletics.

President Anthony J. Veraldi of the School Board said that a replacement for Hughes will not be named in the near future.

The retirement of Hughes, who has been at Middletown for 38 years, leaves only Kingston's G. Warren Kias and Sam J. Kalloch of Poughkeepsie as the original members of the big five still coaching. Kias coaches the track and cross country teams at Kingston and serves as director of athletics. Kalloch is director of athletics at Poughkeepsie and also coaches the three major sports.

C. Everett Stevens of Newburgh Free Academy retired a couple of years ago and Al Chase of Port Jervis died last year. They were the other long time coaches and athletic directors in the league.

PITCHING — Larry Jackson, Cardinals, started double shutout of Chicago Cubs by allowing only four singles in 4-0 first game triumph before Ray Sadecki limited Cubs to five hits in 8-0 nightcap victory.

DIRECTOR—The new New York Mets may not be going anywhere in the National League, but this isn't stopping Casey Stengel from doing a lot of directing. All the old professor requires is a little more pitching and all-around execution to attain his goal. (NEA Telephoto)

AFL Door Still Open Today, But No Entries Seen

BOSTON (AP)—The door was still open today for American Football League expansion but the feeling was the present eight-club setup will continue another year at least.

The AFL's Executive Committee decided Wednesday against expanding to 10 teams, with two new franchises starting play in 1963.

Commissioner Joe Foss said he felt there was no reason to rush expansion at this time. However, he said a decision to expand still could be reached later this year. That decision would have to come prior to the league draft the last week of November if it is to come at all this year, he said.

The eight-club owners conferred in Boston for three days, discussing a variety of league matters in addition to hearing presentations of franchise applications from syndicates in New Orleans, Kansas City and Atlanta.

Griffith Hoping To Forget Before Title Encounter

NEW YORK (AP)—Will Emile Griffith be able to forget the Benny (Kid) Paret tragedy and go all out against Ralph Dupas in their July 13 welterweight title fight?

"I hope so," said Emile as he prepared to leave today for Las Vegas, the fight site. "I guess I won't know until I get in there. I know in my heart that Benny's death was an accident. Boxing is my business. It got me and my family out of the slums and I never want to be poor again. So I will continue to fight."

Talking in the sing-song of his native Virgin Islands the welterweight champion added: "I'm still a little uncomfortable in the ring. In training I know what I want to do and sometimes I can do everything and sometimes I just can't."

Griffith hasn't fought since he regained the 147-pound division crown on the 12th round knockout of the March 24 night that resulted in Paret's death 10 days later.

Pleugh One-Man Team for Hawks

Billy Pleugh of the Mohawks, who is listed as a shortstop in the boxscore, turned out to be quite a hitter and pitcher in the Met Knothole League Wednesday evening.

He pounded four hits, including three singles and a triple, and had 9 strikeouts as the winning pitcher. B. Struble shared the pitching with Pleugh.

Gary Lucas and Dallas Pickett, listed as a shortstop, pitched for the Iroquois who went down to a 9-2 drubbing on only two hits. J. Gumaer hit a single and double for the Mohawks.

Bechtold One-Hits BR Legion

Neil Bechtold of the Hurley Lions pitched hitless ball for 6 1/3, before Joe Schabot of the American Legion touched him for a single, in the Babe Ruth League Wednesday.

But Bechtold was returned the winner, 3-0, in a brilliant duel with Frank McGowan, who allowed only two safeties. Bechtold struck out 10 and McGowan six. Ken Hopper and John Tweedy accounted for the two Hurley hits — both singles which came in the second inning.

Hopper singled with one out and John Cook sacrificed him to second. After Mike O'Connor walked, both runners moved up on a wild pitch and scored on Tweedy's single.

Gary Van Etten's base on balls, steal of second and two infield outs produced the third Hurley tally in the third.

Three games are scheduled today, with Vols playing the Elks at 6 p. m. at the Athletic Field. In a Dietz stadium doubleheader, Hurley plays Rotary at 6 p. m. and Knights of Columbus meets the 35 Club at 8:30 p. m.

Reds Peacefully Capture Amateur Wrestling Crown

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The Russians staged a peaceful invasion of Toledo, Ohio, and carried away the Wold Amateur Wrestling Championship.

Their sweep of the Greco-Roman competition that ended Wednesday night was even more decisive than their freestyle victory last week — despite some come-from-behind displays of strength by Turkey and Hungary.

Law on Election Literature to Help

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP) — The State Election Commissioners Assocation was told Wednesday night that a new state law that requires disclosure of the names of persons who order campaign literature is a potent weapon against hate mongers in politics.

That assessment of the law, passed by the 1962 Legislature, was given by Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz at the association's annual convention.

The law requires that campaign literature bear the name of the organization or persons that authorize it, the name of the person who placed the order for the printing and the name of the printer. Previously, only the name of the printer was required.

Policy Trial Set July 3

A 57-year-old Poughkeepsie grocer is scheduled for trial on Tuesday, July 3, before City Judge Milton Haven on a charge of keeping a place for policy. Richard McNair, of 99 Catherine Street, that city, was accused of taking policy bets last week totaling $226.47. He has entered a plea of innocent.

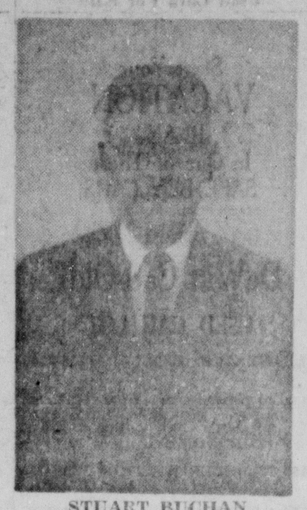
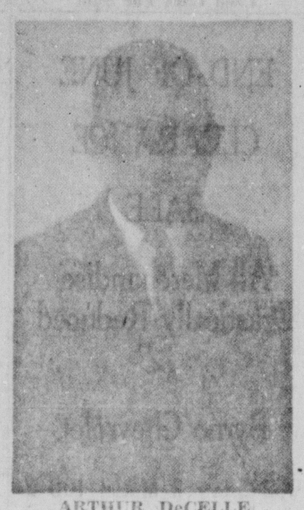
Total of Seven File for Four Board Positions

SCOTT GILPIN



STUART BUCHAN



ARTHUR DeCELLE

Seven candidates for the four open positions on the Saugerties Central School board of education filed their petitions with Mrs. Margaret Marburger, school district clerk, before the deadline at 4:45 p. m. on Wednesday. Voting on candidates will take place on July 11, between the hours of 12 noon and 9 p. m. in the auditorium of the Main Street School, with four voting machines being made available to handle the expected large turnout.

With the exception of incumbent Jack Pakanen, who is a candidate to succeed himself for a three year term without opposition, each nominee will vie with another for the three open positions. Incumbent Robert Herb of Malden will oppose Arthur DeCelle of Saugerties; Edwin Olson of Katsbaan will run against Scott Gilpin of Blue Mountain for the two year term which must be filled due to the resignation of Mrs. Sarah Brandt; Norman Nitschke and Stuart Buchan will seek the three year term of office now held by Mrs. Agnes Schroeder, who is retiring. Both men are residents of Barclay Heights, the former District 10.

A resume of the three candidates who filed on the last day follows:

Stuart M. Buchan of 13 Birchwood Drive, has been associated with International Business Machines for 15 years. He is presently a project manager in the Quality Control Division. A resident of Saugerties for 15 years, Buchan is a deacon in the Saugerties Reformed Church, treasurer of the Lions Club and served as chairman of the highly successful Saugerties Chapter of the Kingston Hospital Fund Drive. He is a World War II veteran, receiving his educational credits at Fraserburgh Academy in Scotland and Gidea Park College, England. His wife, Lois, and two children, Debralea, six and James A., two, complete his family.

Scott Gilpin of Blue Mountain is also an IBM affiliate, for the past six years, presently employed as an associate engineer. Born and raised in Plattsburgh, he was graduated with honers from the Agricultural and Technical Institute at Canton. He is presently working for his BA degree at Marist College. An area resident for four years, Gilpin has recently purchased a home in Blue Mountain, Route 1, Box 251, where he lives with his wife, Roberta and children, Layne, eight years old, Twyla, six, Heidi, three and Sean, 18 months.

The 29-year-old candidate is a member of the Blue Mountain Reformed Church, a member of its choir and is an active member of the Area Men's Club of Blue Mountain.

Arthur Joseph DeCelle, a native of Troy, raised on Long Island, relocated to Saugerties five years ago to become affiliated with the Saugerties Daily Post, rising to editor in 1959. He is currently the managing editor of the Catskill Daily Mail.

A veteran of the Korean conflict, DeCelle is past commander and chaplain of the Saugerties Memorial Post 5034, VFW, an active member of the Saugerties Council 4536, Knights of Columbus, a Holy Name member of St. Mary of the Snow Church, worker on the recent Cardinal's School Building Campaign, and president of the Ulster County Cana Conference movement. He has been chairman of the Loyalty Day program and assisted on its committees for four years. Currently, he is in his third year as assistant to the director of the Miss Saugerties Pageant.

DeCelle, a 1957 graduate of St. John's College, Hillcrest, L. I. resides at 132 Market Street, with his wife, Isabel, and children, Arthur IV, 4½, Charles, 3½, Isabel, 2, and Margaret Mary, 9 months.

July 4th Parade Route Outlined

The plans for this year's Fourth of July parade are completed. All organizations have been invited, the route has been selected and a qualified panel of judges has been secued to judge the floats and marching units.

A. W. Richter as Grand Marshal will lead the 100 participating units. The parade will consist of eight divisions with a drum corps forming the nucleus of each division. The drum corps are: Saugerties Drum Corps; Continental Cadets of Catskill; Tivoli Drum Corps; Thunderbirds of Hudson; VFW Drum Corps of Hudson; Troop 12 Drum and Bugle Corps of Kingston; Schenectady Pipe Band and Red Devils Drum Corps of Kingston.

The theme for this year's parade is Acts of Freedom and floats depicting deeds, events or documents that have contributed to freedom have been entered by the following organizations:

Saugerties DAR; Woodstock Motor Club; Okiodako Campfire Girls; Saugerties VFW in conjunction with their auxiliary; Boy Scout Troop 32; Cub Pack 32; Girl Scout Troop 104; Girl Scout Troop 99; Brownie Troop 37 and Saugerties Rotary Club.

The Saugerties Jaycees will also enter a float and the 40 & 8 of Port Ewen will display its famous locomotive. There will be an antique bicycle ridden by Darlene and Frankie Naccarato and a children's attraction presented by the Saugerties Lions Club. In addition, the following organizations or individuals will participate:

Saugerties Chamber of Commerce; Miss Saugerties; Miss Saugerties Runners-up; Stewart Air Force Base; Past "Man of the Year"; Glasco Fire Company; Glasco Fire Company Auxiliary; Mayor Holmes; Village Board; Miss Loyalty; Gold Star Mothers; Dads of Foreign Service Vets; Tivoli Fire Company; Supervisor Peter Williams; Town Board; Saugerties Campfire Girls; Saugerties Bluebirds; Page One Queen; Centerville Fire Company; Saugerties Girl Scouts; Saugerties Brownies; Society of Little Gardens; Exempt Fireman's Association; Saugerties Knights of Columbus; Saugerties Fish and Game Club; Washington Hook and Ladder Company; Malden-West Camp Fire Company; Saugerties Cub Scouts; Hillside Volunteer Fire Company; Saugerties Boy Scouts; Boy Scout Commissioner Kenneth Magyar and staff; IOOF, 50-year members; R. A. Snyder Hose Company; Pioneer Girls of Baptist Church; Saxton Fire Company; Golden Agers; Saugerties American Legion Auxiliary and Cedar Grove Fire Company.

The parade will form in the Finger Street Extension area and will start promptly at 10 a. m. It will proceed up Washington Avenue to Russell Street, over Russell Street to Partition Street, up Partition Street to Main Street, over Main Street to Market Street, up Market Street to Prospect Street and over Prospect Street to Washington Avenue and Cantine Field. The floats will remain at Cantine Field for public inspection.

Awards will be given for the best floats. The floats will be judged on the basis of originality appropriateness of the theme and appearance. Awards are first, a trophy and $50; second a trophy and $25; third a trophy and $15.

A trophy will be awarded to the best senior marching unit and the best junior marching unit. The floats will be judged in the assembly area at 9 a. m. and the marching units as they pass the Main Street reviewing stand.

The judges are George Baron, Harold Boyer and Dr. Gerald P. Gorman. Harry Thayer will present the awards at Cantine Field within one hour of the parade's conclusion.

Plans Bus Tour

There are still a few seats available for the bus trip to Atlantic City sponsored by the VFW Ladies Auxiliary the weekend of July 13.

The bus will leave the Saugerties terminal Friday evening and return Sunday evening. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Violet Rocklein or Mrs. Arthur DeCelle. All proceeds will benefit the fund of the organization which is used for charitable projects.

Parking Eased

The Saugerties Jaycees have announced that there will be two parking fields available for the field day and fireworks spectators this year, instead of the usual one. In addition to Knaust's Field which was used last year and has its entrance off Market Street, another field will be available directly south of the high school. This additional parking lot will have its entrance off Washington Avenue. This will mean that a greater number of people may park nearer the field, rather than having to park several blocks away. The addition of another parking lot should also alleviate the problem of cars leaving after the fireworks are over.

Area Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilsey of Market Street are attending a four-day convention of the state funeral directors being held at Grossinger's.

Miss M. Elinor Lente, head of the language department of Saugerties High School, has been admitted as a participant to the summer language institute which will function at the New York University Campus, University Heights, under the auspices of the National Defense Education Act from July 2 to Aug. 17.

School Budget Made Available; Vote Is July 10

Copies of the estimated budget for the Saugerties Central Schools for the school year 1962-63 are now available at the Administration Building on Mill Street for any taxpayer in the district, and may be obtained any day during the week, with the exception of Saturdays and holidays, between the hours of 8:15 a. m. and 4:45 p. m.

The annual meeting for the purpose of voting on the budget will be held at the Saugerties High School Tuesday, July 10, at 7:30 p. m.

The total estimated budget is $1,939,232.04, an increase of $143,184.01 over 1961-62, or 7.4 per cent. The estimated tax rate per thousand of assessed valuation is $73.20, which is a decrease of $1.52 per thousand from the rate of last year.

The major increases in expenditures include instructional service, $1,006,920.75, an increase of $124,940.75 due to increase in teachers salaries and the addition of 11 new faculty members; operation of plant, $138,450, an increase of $3,250, with $1600 of this due to increase in salaries to custodians. Transportation of pupils will take an estimated $170,767, an increase over last year by $4,600.

There will be some increase in revenue including an estimated increase in state aid totaling $145,229, an estimated increase in revenue from assessments on new property of $11,000.

The total estimated income and balances total $1,224,748.44, with the amount to be raised by taxation, $694,843.60

Kenneda Elected New President of 1st Baptist Men

George R. Kenneda of Hurley was elected president of the Men's Club of First Baptist Church Wednesday night during the annual picnic meeting at Upper Hasbrouck Park.

Kenneda succeeds Abram D. Winchell.

Robert Rathbun was elected vice-president and Elston North Jr. treasurer. Alfred Shultis was reelected secretary.

Highlight of the evening was the clash between Al Sonnenberg's "Old Line Baptists" and Jim Decker's Newcomers. The "Old Liners" broke up a 2-1 ball game with five runs in the second to win handily, 15 to 5. Al Hunt went the route for the winners while Bill Brown and Marcel Koval divided the pitching chores for the Newcomers.

Norm Rice stroked a homer for the winners. Several glittering defensive gems highlighted the seven-inning tilt including Al Shultis' great one-handed grab of a hot liner near second base, "Jumping" Joe Siphers' grab of a sinking liner in left field and Billy Smallwood's catch of a drive in short center.

Art Pedersen, Norm Bowen and Bill More umpired the contest.

A steak dinner was served under the direction of Chester Greene, who was chef for the night, assisted by George Matthews and several other committeemen.

Prayer Ban Blow To Heritage, Is Spellman View

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York City says the U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing prayers in the state's public schools is a blow to the nation's heritage.

"... America has surely traveled far from the ideals of her founding fathers when the prayerful mention of God's holy name in a public school breaks the law in this blessed land," said the Cardinal Wednesday.

Cardinal Spellman attended the 50th anniversary mass of the Most Rev. Joseph A. Burke, bishop of Buffalo's Roman Catholic Diocese.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the resolution published herewith has been adopted by the Fire Commissioners of the St. Remy Fire District of the Town of Esopus, Ulster County, New York, at Fireman's Hall in said Fire District on the 13th day of June, 1962, and the validity of the obligations authorized by such resolution may be hereafter contested only if such obligations were authorized for an object or purpose for which the said Fire District is not authorized to expend money, or if the provisions of law which should have been complied with as of the date of publication of this notice were not substantially complied with, and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity is commenced within twenty days after the date of publication of this notice, or such obligations were authorized in violation of the provisions of the Constitution.

Dated: Kingston, New York
June 25, 1962.

HENRY B. DOWERS
Secretary Board of Fire Commissioners of the St. Remy Fire District, Town of Esopus, Ulster County, New York.

BOND RESOLUTION
DATED MAY 15, 1962.

AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE AND SALE OF $5,000.00 OF FIRE DISTRICT SERIAL BONDS OF THE ST. REMY FIRE DISTRICT FOR THE PURCHASE OF EQUIPMENT.

WHEREAS, a proposition was duly adopted at a special district meeting of the qualified voters of St. Remy Fire District, Town of Esopus, Ulster County, New York, on June 12, 1962, authorizing the Board of Fire Commissioners of said Fire District to expend a sum not exceeding $5,000.00 for the purchase of equipment for said Fire District, more particularly as set forth in Bond Resolution dated May 15, 1962, and in Notice of Special District Meeting published in The Kingston Daily Freeman, Kingston, New York, on Tuesday, May 29, 1962;

WHEREAS, it is now desired to authorize the issuance of $5,000.00 in serial bonds; or a single statutory installment bond of $5,000.00; or $5,000.00 in bond anticipation notes; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the Fire Commissioners of the St. Remy Fire District of the Town of Esopus, Ulster County, New York, as follows:

Section 1.
To pay for the purchase of apparatus and equipment for the prevention of fires in said fire district at a total estimated maximum cost of $5,000.00.

Section 2.
The maximum estimated cost of such object or purpose is $5,000.00, and the plan for the financing of such maximum estimated cost is as follows:

(a) By the issuance of serial bonds in the amount of $5,000.00 of said fire district heretofore authorized by a bond resolution dated May 15, 1962; or
(b) The issuance of a single statutory installment bond pursuant to Section 62.10 of the Local Finance Law in the principal amount of $5,000.00; or
(c) The issuance of bond anticipation notes in the amount of $5,000.00 with one year maturities over a period of five years, annually paying off a portion of such notes and renewing the balance by the issuance of a new note.

Section 3.
The periods of probable usefulness of the aforesaid object or purpose for which such bonds are to be issued pursuant to Section 11.00 of the Local Finance Law are hereby determined to be five years.

Section 4.
It is hereby determined that the proposed maturity of the obligations authorized hereby will not be in excess of five years.

Section 5.
The faith and credit of said district are pledged to the payment by taxes levied on all taxable real property within said district of principals of said bonds and interest thereon when due.

Section 6.
The District Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to issue and sell such bonds herein, including renewals of such notes, at private sale in accordance with the provisions of Section 63.00 of the Local Finance Law and the District Treasurer is further delegated and authorized to issue Bond Anticipation Notes, consistent with the provisions of the Local Finance Law.

Section 7.
The validity of such bonds may be contested only if:

(a) Such bonds are authorized for an object or purpose for which said Fire District is not authorized to expend money; or
(b) The provisions of law which should be complied with at the date of publication of this resolution are not substantially complied with, and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity is commenced within twenty days after the date of such publication; or
(c) Such bonds are authorized in violation of the provisions of the Constitution.

Section 8.
This resolution, which takes effect immediately, shall be published in full in the Kingston Daily Freeman, together with a notice of the Fire District Secretary in substantially the form provided for in Section 81.00 of the Local Finance Law.

Law on Election Literature to Help

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP) — The State Election Commissioners Association was told Wednesday night that a new state law that requires disclosure of the names of persons who order campaign literature is a potent weapon against hate mongers in politics.

That assessment of the law, passed by the 1962 Legislature, was given by Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz at the association's annual convention.

The law requires that campaign literature bear the name of the organization or persons that authorize it, the name of the person who placed the order for the printing and the name of the printer.

Previously, only the name of the printer was required.

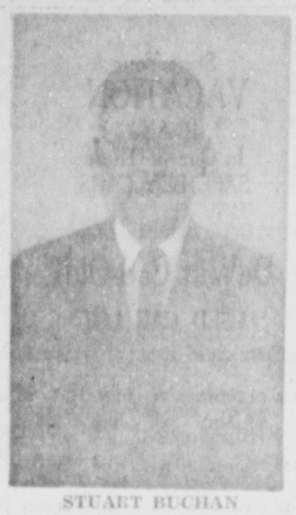
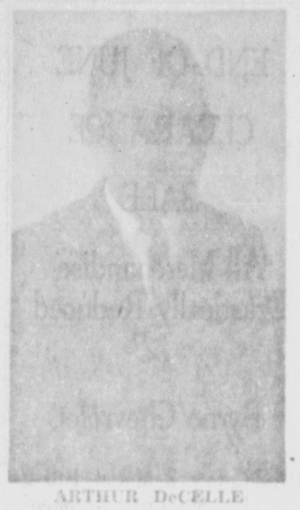
SCOTT GILPIN



STUART BUCHAN



ARTHUR DeCELLE

Seven candidates for the four open positions on the Saugerties Central School board of education filed their petitions with Mrs. Margaret Marburger, school district clerk, before the deadline at 4:45 p. m. on Wednesday. Voting on candidates will take place on July 11, between the hours of 12 noon and 9 p. m. in the auditorium of the Main Street School, with four voting machines being made available to handle the expected large turnout.

With the exception of incumbent Jack Pakanen, who is a candidate to succeed himself for a three year term without opposition, each nominee will vie with another for the three open positions. Incumbent Robert Herb of Malden will oppose Arthur DeCelle of Saugerties; Edwin Olson of Katsbaan will run against Scott Gilpin of Blue Mountain for the two year term which must be filled due to the resignation of Mrs. Sarah Brandt; Norman Nitschke and Stuart Buchan will seek the three year term of office now held by Mrs. Agnes Schroeder, who is retiring. Both men are residents of Barclay Heights, the former District 10.

A resume of the three candidates who filed on the last day follows:

Stuart M. Buchan of 13 Birchwood Drive, has been associated with International Business Machines for 15 years. He is presently a project manager in the Quality Control Division. A resident of Saugerties for 15 years, Buchan is a deacon in the Saugerties Reformed Church, treasurer of the Lions Club and served as chairman of the highly successful Saugerties Chapter of the Kingston Hospital Fund Drive. He is a World War II veteran, receiving his educational credits at Fraserburgh Academy in Scotland and Gidea Park College, England. His wife, Lois, and two children, Debralea, six and James A., two, complete his family.

Scott Gilpin of Blue Mountain is also an IBM affiliate, for the past six years, presently employed as an associate engineer. Born and raised in Plattsburgh, he was graduated with honors from the Agricultural and Technical Institute at Canton. He is presently working for his BA degree at Marist College. An area resident for four years, Gilpin has recently purchased a home in Blue Mountain. Route 1, Box 251, where he lives with his wife, Roberta and children, Layne, eight years old, Twyla, six, Heidi, three and Sean, 18 months.

The 29-year-old candidate is a member of the Blue Mountain Reformed Church, a member of its choir and is an active member of the Area Men's Club of Blue Mountain.

Arthur Joseph DeCelle, a native of Troy, raised on Long Island, relocated to Saugerties five years ago to become affiliated with the Saugerties Daily Post, rising to editor in 1959. He is currently the managing editor of the Catskill Daily Mail.

A veteran of the Korean conflict, DeCelle is past commander and chaplain of the Saugerties Memorial Post 5034, VFW, an active member of the Saugerties Council 4536, Knights of Columbus, a Holy Name member of St. Mary of the Snow Church, worker on the recent Cardinal's School Building Campaign, and president of the Ulster County Cana Conference movement. He has been chairman of the Loyalty Day program and assisted on its committees for four years. Currently, he is in his third year as assistant to the director of the Miss Saugerties Pageant.

DeCelle, a 1957 graduate of St. John's College, Hillcrest, L. I. resides at 132 Market Street, with his wife, Isabel, and children, Arthur IV, 4½, Charles, 3½, Isabel, 2, and Margaret Mary, 9 months.

July 4th Parade Route Outlined

The plans for this year's Fourth of July parade are completed. All organizations have been invited, the route has been selected and a qualified panel of judges has been secued to judge the floats and marching units.

A. W. Richter as Grand Marshal will lead the 100 participating units. The parade will consist of eight divisions with a drum corps forming the nucleus of each division. The drum corps are: Saugerties Drum Corps; Continental Cadets of Catskill; Tivoli Drum Corps; Thunderbirds of Hudson; VFW Drum Corps of Hudson; Troop 12 Drum and Bugle Corps of Kingston; Schenectady Pipe Band and Red Devils Drum Corps of Kingston.

The theme for this year's parade is Acts of Freedom and floats depicting deeds, events or documents that have contributed to freedom have been entered by the following organizations:

Saugerties DAR; Woodstock Motor Club; Okiodako Campfire Girls; Saugerties VFW in conjunction with their auxiliary; Boy Scout Troop 32; Cub Pack 32; Girl Scout Troop 104; Girl Scout Troop 99; Brownie Troop 37 and Saugerties Rotary Club.

The Saugerties Jaycees will also enter a float and the 40 & 8 of Port Ewen will display its famous locomotive. There will be an antique bicycle ridden by Darlene and Frankie Naccarato and a children's attraction presented by the Saugerties Lions Club. In addition, the following organizations or individuals will participate:

Saugerties Chamber of Commerce; Miss Saugerties; Miss Saugerties Runners-up; Stewart Air Force Base; Past "Man of the Year"; Glasco Fire Company; Glasco Fire Company Auxiliary; Mayor Holmes; Village Board; Miss Loyalty; Gold Star Mothers; Dads of Foreign Service Vets; Tivoli Fire Company; Supervisor Peter Williams; Town Board; Saugerties Campfire Girls; Saugerties Bluebirds; Page One Queen; Centerville Fire Company; Saugerties Girl Scouts; Saugerties Brownies; Society of Little Gardens; Exempt Fireman's Association; Saugerties Knights of Columbus; Saugerties Fish and Game Club; Washington Hook and Ladder Company; Malden-West Camp Fire Company; Saugerties Cub Scouts; Hillside Volunteer Fire Company; Saugerties Boy Scouts; Boy Scout Commissioner Kenneth Magyar and staff; IOOF, 50-year members; R. A. Snyder Hose Company; Pioneer Girls of Baptist Church; Saxton Fire Company; Golden Agers; Saugerties American Legion Auxiliary and Cedar Grove Fire Company.

The parade will form in the Finger Street Extension area and will start promptly at 10 a. m. It will proceed up Washington Avenue to Russell Street, over Russell Street to Partition Street, up Partition Street to Main Street, over Main Street to Market Street, up Market Street to Prospect Street and over Prospect Street to Washington Avenue and Cantine Field. The floats will remain at Cantine Field for public inspection.

Awards will be given for the best floats. The floats will be judged on the basis of originality appropriateness of the theme and appearance. Awards are first, a trophy and $50; second a trophy and $25; third a trophy and $15.

A trophy will be awarded to the best senior marching unit and the best junior marching unit. The floats will be judged in the assembly area at 9 a. m. and the marching units as they pass the Main Street reviewing stand.

The judges are George Baron, Harold Boyer and Dr. Gerald P. Gorman. Harry Thayer will present the awards at Cantine Field within one hour of the parade's conclusion.

Plans Bus Tour

There are still a few seats available for the bus trip to Atlantic City sponsored by the VFW Ladies Auxiliary the weekend of July 13.

The bus will leave the Saugerties terminal Friday evening and return Sunday evening. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Violet Rocklein or Mrs. Arthur DeCelle. All proceeds will benefit the fund of the organization which is used for charitable projects.

Parking Eased

The Saugerties Jaycees have announced that there will be two parking fields available for the field day and fireworks spectators this year, instead of the usual one. In addition to Knaust's Field which was used last year and has its entrance off Market Street, another field will be availlable directly south of the high school. This additional parking lot will have its entrance off Washington Avenue. This will mean that a greater number of people may park nearer the field, rather than having to park several blocks away. The addition of another parking lot should also alleviate the problem of cars leaving after the fireworks are over.

Area Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilsey of Market Street are attending a four-day convention of the state funeral directors being held at Grossinger's.

Miss M. Elinor Lente, head of the language department of Saugerties High School, has been admitted as a participant to the summer language institute which will function at the New York University Campus, University Heights, under the auspices of the National Defense Education Act from July 2 to Aug. 17.

School Budget Made Available; Vote Is July 10

Copies of the estimated budget for the Saugerties Central Schools for the school year 1962-63 are now available at the Administration Building on Mill Street for any taxpayer in the district, and may be obtained any day during the week, with the exception of Saturdays and holidays, between the hours of 8:15 a. m. and 4:45 p. m.

The annual meeting for the purpose of voting on the budget will be held at the Saugerties High School Tuesday, July 10, at 7:30 p. m.

The total estimated budget is $1,939,232.04, an increase of $143,184.01 over 1961-62, or 7.4 per cent. The estimated tax rate per thousand of assessed valuation is $73.20, which is a decrease of $1.52 per thousand from the rate of last year.

The major increases in expenditures include instructional service, $1,066,920.75, an increase of $124,940.75 due to increase in teachers salaries and the addition of 11 new faculty members; operation of plant, $138,450, an increase of $3,250, with $1600 of this due to increase in salaries to custodians. Transporiation of pupils will take an estimated $170,767, an increase over last year by $4,600.

There will be some increase in revenue including an estimated increase in state aid totaling $145,229, an estimated increase in revenue from assessments on new property of $11,000.

The total estimated income and balances total $1,224,748.44, with the amount to be raised by taxation, $694,843.60

Kenneda Elected New President of 1st Baptist Men

George R. Kenneda of Hurley was elected president of the Men's Club of First Baptist Church Wednesday night during the annual picnic meeting at Upper Hasbrouck Park.

Kenneda succeeds Abram D. Winchell.

Robert Rathbun was elected vice-president and Elston North Jr. treasurer. Alfred Shultis was reelected secretary.

Highlight of the evening was the clash between Al Sonnenberg's "Old Line Baptists" and Jim Decker's Newcomers. The "Old Liners" broke up a 2-1 ball game with five runs in the second to win handily, 15 to 5. Al Hunt went the route for the winners while Bill Brown and Marcel Koval divided the pitching chores for the Newcomers.

Norm Rice stroked a homer for the winners. Several glittering defensive gems highlighted the seven-inning tilt including Al Shultis' great one-handed grab of a hot liner near second base, "Jumping" Joe Siphers' grab of a sinking liner in left field and Billy Smallwood's catch of a drive in short center.

Art Pedersen, Norm Bowen and Bill More umpired the contest.

A steak dinner was served under the direction of Chester Greene, who was chef for the night, assisted by George Matthews and several other committeemen.

Prayer Ban Blow To Heritage, Is Spellman View

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York City says the U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing prayers in the state's public schools is a blow to the nation's heritage.

". . . America has surely traveled far from the ideals of her founding fathers when the prayerful mention of God's holy name in a public school breaks the law in this blessed land," said the Cardinal Wednesday.

Cardinal Spellman attended the 50th anniversary mass of the Most Rev. Joseph A. Burke, bishop of Buffalo's Roman Catholic Diocese.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the resolution published herewith has been adopted by the Fire Commissioners of the St. Remy Fire District of the Town of Esopus, Ulster County, New York, at Fireman's Hall in said Fire District on the 13th day of June, 1962, and the validity of the obligations authorized by such resolution may be hereafter contested only if such obligations were authorized for an object or purpose for which the said Fire District is not authorized to expend money, or if the provisions of law which should have been complied with as of the date of publication of this notice were not substantially complied with, and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity is commenced within twenty days after the date of publication of this notice, or such obligations were authorized in violation of the provisions of the Constitution.

Dated: Kingston, New York
June 25, 1962.

HENRY B. DOWERS
Secretary Board of Fire Commissioners of the St. Remy Fire District, Town of Esopus, Ulster County, New York.

BOND RESOLUTION
DATED MAY 15, 1962.

AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE AND SALE OF $5,000.00 OF FIRE DISTRICT SERIAL BONDS OF THE ST. REMY FIRE DISTRICT FOR THE PURCHASE OF EQUIPMENT.

WHEREAS, a proposition was duly adopted at a special district meeting of the qualified voters of St. Remy Fire District, Town of Esopus, Ulster County, New York, on June 12, 1962, authorizing the Board of Fire Commissioners of said Fire District to expend a sum not exceeding $5,000.00 for the purchase of equipment for said Fire District, more particularly as set forth in Bond Resolution dated May 15, 1962, and in Notice of Special District Meeting published in The Kingston Daily Freeman, Kingston, New York, on Tuesday, May 29, 1962;

WHEREAS, it is now desired to authorize the issuance of $5,000.00 in serial bonds; or a single statutory installment bond of $5,000.00; or $5,000.00 in bond anticipation notes; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the Fire Commissioners of the St. Remy Fire District of the Town of Esopus, Ulster County, New York, as follows:

Section 1.
To pay for the purchase of apparatus and equipment for the prevention of fires in said fire district at a total estimated maximum cost of $5,000.00.

Section 2.
The maximum estimated cost of such object or purpose is $5,000.00, and the plan for the financing of such maximum estimated cost is as follows:

(a) By the issuance of serial bonds in the amount of $5,000.00 of said fire district heretofore authorized by a bond resolution dated May 15, 1962; or
(b) The issuance of a single statutory installment bond pursuant to Section 62.10 of the Local Finance Law in the principal amount of $5,000.00; or
(c) The issuance of bond anticipation notes in the amount of $5,000.00 with one year maturities over a period of five years, annually paying off a portion of such notes and renewing the balance by the issuance of a new note.

Section 3.
The periods of probable usefulness of the aforesaid object or purpose for which such bonds are to be issued pursuant to Section 11.00 of the Local Finance Law are hereby determined to be five years.

Section 4.
It is hereby determined that the proposed maturity of the obligations authorized hereby will not be in excess of five years.

Section 5.
The faith and credit of said district are pledged to the payment by taxes levied on all taxable real property within said district of principals of said bonds and interest thereon when due.

Section 6.
The District Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to issue and sell such bonds herein, including renewals of such notes, at private sale in accordance with the provisions of Section 63.00 of the Local Finance Law and the District Treasurer is further delegated and authorized to issue Bond Anticipation Notes, consistent with the provisions of the Local Finance Law.

Section 7.
The validity of such bonds may be contested only if:

(a) Such bonds are authorized for an object or purpose for which said Fire District is not authorized to expend money; or
(b) The provisions of law which should be complied with at the date of publication of this resolution are not substantially complied with, and an action, suit or proceeding contesting such validity is commenced within twenty days after the date of such publication; or
(c) Such bonds are authorized in violation of the provisions of the Constitution.

Section 8.
This resolution, which takes effect immediately, shall be published in full in the Kingston Daily Freeman, together with a notice of the Fire District Secretary in substantially the form provided for in Section 81.00 of the Local Finance Law.

EMPLOYMENT

NOTICE TO JOB APPLICANTS
The Kingston Daily Freeman does not knowingly accept help wanted advertisements from employers covered by the Federal Wage-Hour Law if they offer less than legal minimum wages. Beginning September 3, 1961, employees engaged in interstate or foreign commerce or in the production of goods for such commerce must be paid not less than $1.15 an hour and at least time and one-half for hours worked after 40 in a workweek, unless specifically exempt. Employees of certain large retail, service, construction, and other enterprises must be paid not less than $1.00 an hour after September 3, 1961, but no overtime for such employment is required until September 3, 1963. If you are offered less by covered employers, or if you have questions concerning this law or other activities of the U. S. Department of Labor, call or write the Department's local office at Bronx: Abraham Klainoard, Investigation Supr., 881 Gerard Ave., Bronx, N. Y. WYandotte 2-1235.

'Urge to Kill'

Handyman Held In Cabbie Death

AVERILL PARK, N.Y. (AP)—A taxicab driver was shot to death Wednesday night and state police held a handyman they quoted as saying:

"I have had the urge to kill for some time. I felt it last night while riding in the cab."

Police said John G. Calkins, 46, shot William J. Gallagher, 57, of Albany, as the latter sat in his cab in front of the farm home of Calkins' father, George, in this community about 20 miles east of Albany.

The younger Calkins, who is single, had been working at the Lido Beach Club, Point Lookout, L.I. He had come north on a visit and was about to return to Long Island.

He told police he had obtained a bus ticket Wednesday night. But, he said, $70 later was taken from him in an Albany grill so he cashed in the bus ticket, then hailed the cab to go to his father's house.

At the house, he asked the driver to wait, went in for a 12-gauge shotgun and shot Gallagher twice from a porch 35 feet from the cab, police said.

They said Calkins then telephoned the police. His father and a hired man were in the barn.

Police said Calkins evidently had no personal hatred for Gallagher.

"He had been drinking," they said.

Police said he would be charged with first-degree murder.

Deadlock Looms On Sugar Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration has won its sugar fight in the Senate with overwhelming passage of a bill that would eliminate subsidies to foreign producers.

Passage Wednesday night by a 76-2 vote after 10 hours of debate sent the measure to a Senate-House conference. There it runs smack into a House bill which is in direct opposition to administration recommendations on foreign sugar purchases.

Under Tight Schedule

The conferees will be working under a tight deadline since the 28-year-old sugar law, which long has divided the American market under tight controls, expires at midnight Saturday.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., head of the Senate delegation, told a reporter he would not be surprised if there is a conference deadlock. He suggested a temporary extension of the present law might result.

Rep. Harold D. Cooley, D-N.C., who is expected to lead the House conferees, has called the administration bill wholly unacceptable on foreign purchases.

Both bills agree on increasing to 60 per cent the U.S. growers' share of the domestic sugar market. It now is 55 per cent.

They also are quite similar on the allocation to American producers of more than 60 per cent of the new growth factor resulting from increasing population, although the Senate measure is slightly more generous to U.S. beet growers.

Disagree Completely

The two bills disagree completely on the method of handling the 40 per cent of American consumption reserved for foreign countries.

Beside following the administration lead in eliminating the premium subsidy price on foreign purchases, the Senate also knocked out all country-by-country allocations except for the long-standing obligation to the Philippines.

The House bill named 25 countries and gave them specific quotas.

The Senate accepted Kennedy's proposal that 2.58 million tons of the foreign share be allotted to Cuba if that country's Communist government is overturned. Meanwhile, the tonnage would go to friendly nations on a competitive basis.

The House version reserved 1.5 million tons for Cuba but parceled that out among all nations in the next year.

Mickey Cochran Dies, Ex-Pilot Of Detroit Club

DETROIT (AP) — Gordon Stanley (Mickey) Cochrane, former Manager of the Detroit Tigers and a member of baseball's Hall of Fame, died today at a Lake Forest, Ill., hospital.

A Detroit club official said word of Cochrane's death was received here today.

A spokesman at the hospital said Cochrane, 58, had been in and out of the hospital several times in the last year. He said the cause of death had not been determined.

Ex-Solon Wins New Trials for Mother's Estate

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Former Assemblyman Harry A. Reoux, Warrensburg Republican, today won court orders for new trials in his lengthy battle to obtain $85,000 in stock and otherwise share in his mother's estate.

He lost to relatives in previous court actions.

In issuing its decisions, the State Supreme Court's Appellate showed a trace of exasperation with the dispute, which has been in various state courts, including the Court of Appeals, for more than five years.

Two issues are to be decided.

The first is Reoux's claim that he was entitled to $85,000 in stock owned by his mother, Mrs. Adelia H. Reoux. This action began before her death in 1958. The Court of Appeals rejected his claim the same year.

The other issue concerns Reoux's contention that his parents agreed in 1924 to share their estate with Reoux and his sister if Reoux would remain in the Glens Falls area and help manage family businesses.

When the mother died, she made no provision for Reoux. He contends that his sister, her husband, and their two sons, forced Mrs. Reoux to change her will.

Safety Tip

Here's the correct way to position a ladder when you're painting. Place the foot of the ladded about one-fourth its length away from the wall: a sixteen-foot ladder should be four feet from the house. Grasp the side rails rather than the rungs while climbing. Never paint a ladder with opaque paint or enamel. To protect the wood use clear varnish which will not hide any cracks.

We believe your roof is a vital part of your building.
We consider, in making a proposal, that you believe in us and that you want a good roof, with the very necessary parts that go to make up the total.
The type and quality shingle or built-up roofing you choose is MOST important. However, proper application, proper flashings, and proper treatment of unusual parts of your roof must be a part of the job to make a strong integrated roof at completion.
Even though YOU pay for it . . . we consider your roof is OUR roof, after we complete it.

'Urge to Kill'

Handyman Held In Cabbie Death

AVERILL PARK, N.Y. (AP)—A taxicab driver was shot to death Wednesday night and state police held a handyman they quoted as saying:

"I have had the urge to kill for some time. I felt it last night while riding in the cab."

Police said John G. Calkins, 46, shot William J. Gallagher, 57, of Albany, as the latter sat in his cab in front of the farm home of Calkins' father, George, in this community about 20 miles east of Albany.

The younger Calkins, who is single, had been working at the Lido Beach Club, Point Lookout, L.I. He had come north on a visit and was about to return to Long Island.

He told police he had obtained a bus ticket Wednesday night. But, he said, $70 later was taken from him in an Albany grill so he cashed in the bus ticket, then hailed the cab to go to his father's house.

At the house, he asked the driver to wait, went in for a 12-gauge shotgun and shot Gallagher twice from a porch 35 feet from the cab, police said.

They said Calkins then telephoned the police. His father and a hired man were in the barn.

Police said Calkins evidently had no personal hatred for Gallagher.

"He had been drinking," they said.

Police said he would be charged with first-degree murder.

Lacquer Aluminum

If you want that new aluminum garden furniture you've just bought to keep its gleaming surface for the rest of the summer—and next year, too—it's a good idea to protect it with a coat of non-yellowing exterior lacquer.

Deadlock Looms On Sugar Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration has won its sugar fight in the Senate with overwhelming passage of a bill that would eliminate subsidies to foreign producers.

Passage Wednesday night by a 76-2 vote after 10 hours of debate sent the measure to a Senate-House conference. There it runs smack into a House bill which is in direct opposition to administration recommendations on foreign sugar purchases.

Under Tight Schedule

The conferees will be working under a tight deadline since the 28-year-old sugar law, which long has divided the American market under tight controls, expires at midnight Saturday.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., head of the Senate delegation, told a reporter he would not be surprised if there is a conference deadlock. He suggested a temporary extension of the present law might result.

Rep. Harold D. Cooley, D-N.C., who is expected to lead the House conferees, has called the administration bill wholly unacceptable on foreign purchases.

Both bills agree on increasing to 60 per cent the U.S. growers' share of the domestic sugar market. It now is 55 per cent.

They also are quite similar on the allocation to American producers of more than 60 per cent of the new growth factor resulting from increasing population, although the Senate measure is slightly more generous to U.S. beet growers.

Disagree Completely

The two bills disagree completely on the method of handling the 40 per cent of American consumption reserved for foreign countries.

Beside following the administration lead in eliminating the premium subsidy price on foreign purchases, the Senate also knocked out all country-by-country allocations except for the long-standing obligation to the Philippines.

The House bill named 25 countries and gave them specific quotas.

The Senate accepted Kennedy's proposal that 2.58 million tons of the foreign share be allotted to Cuba if that country's Communist government is overturned. Meanwhile, the tonnage would go to friendly nations on a competitive basis.

The House version reserved 1.5 million tons for Cuba but parceled that out among all nations in the next year.

Mickey Cochran Dies, Ex-Pilot Of Detroit Club

DETROIT (AP) — Gordon Stanley (Mickey) Cochrane, former Manager of the Detroit Tigers and a member of baseball's Hall of Fame, died today at a Lake Forest, Ill., hospital.

A Detroit club official said word of Cochrane's death was received here today.

A spokesman at the hospital said Cochrane, 58, had been in and out of the hospital several times in the last year. He said the cause of death had not been determined.

Ex-Solon Wins New Trials for Mother's Estate

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Former Assemblyman Harry A. Reoux, Warrensburg Republican, today won court orders for new trials in his lengthy battle to obtain $85,000 in stock and otherwise share in his mother's estate.

He lost to relatives in previous court actions.

In issuing its decisions, the State Supreme Court's Appellate showed a trace of exasperation with the dispute, which has been in various state courts, including the Court of Appeals, for more than five years.

Two issues are to be decided.

The first is Reoux's claim that he was entitled to $85,000 in stock owned by his mother, Mrs. Adelia H. Reoux. This action began before her death in 1958. The Court of Appeals rejected his claim the same year.

The other issue concerns Reoux's contention that his parents agreed in 1924 to share their estate with Reoux and his sister if Reoux would remain in the Glens Falls area and help manage family businesses.

When the mother died, she made no provision for Reoux. He contends that his sister, her husband, and their two sons, forced Mrs. Reoux to change her will.

Safety Tip

Here's the correct way to position a ladder when you're painting. Place the foot of the ladded about one-fourth its length away from the wall: a sixteen-foot ladder should be four feet from the house. Grasp the side rails rather than the rungs while climbing. Never paint a ladder with opaque paint or enamel. To protect the wood use clear varnish which will not hide any cracks.

We believe your roof is a vital part of your building.

We consider, in making a proposal, that you believe in us and that you want a good roof, with the very necessary parts that go to make up the total.

The type and quality shingle or built-up roofing you choose is MOST important. However, proper application, proper flashings, and proper treatment of unusual parts of your roof must be a part of the job to make a strong integrated roof at completion.

Even though YOU pay for it . . . we consider your roof is OUR roof, after we complete it.
